WINTER JACKETS—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

THE TYPICAL

Winter Jackets

FOR 1893-4.

RE made of Covert, Kersey, Beaver, Chinchilla, Rough Cheviot, Diagonal and Mixed Cloths. The Colors that predominate aside from Black are Havana, Myrtle, Navy and Tan. Thirty-two inches is the average length, although some are two inches shorter, or just as much longer. Double Breasted Loose Fronts, with immense revers, are largely in the majority, some few, however, being made tight-fitting. But the most pleasing feature of the 1893-4 jacket is embodied in the "Worth" Collar, with its ample and wavy spread from shoulder to shoulder.

Where this collar is not applied the turn or roll is much wider than formerly, and is frequently made of velvet, with cuffs and edges to correspond. Many collars of this style have in addition a full circular ruffle of cloth attached, which gives an added air of gracefulness. Sleeves are quite narrow at the cuffs, tapering gradually into extreme largeness at the shoulders. Backs have more or less of the "umbrella" fullness. Many of the jackets are trimmed with neat fur edging. Capes in Seal Plush, Cloth and Fur that are decidedly handsome. For beauty and quantity this season's stock of CHILDREN'S WRAPS eclipses all former lines. We have special sizes—39, 41, 43 and 45, in Ladies' Jackets. Larger sizes made to order. Our Jackets and Capes are shapeliness personified—the creation of expert men tailors—products of the best skill and most advanced ideas procurable. Special values from $4.95 up.

Transfer Recorded.
Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made September 28, by Jacob John Ebberts and wife, Charles Klein and wife to Jennie B. Kirchner, wife of Otto L. Kirchner, for $1,500, lots 8 and 19 in Klein and Stifel's addition, or Grandview addition.

Coal Mine Accident.
A train of coal cars broke loose at the Wheeling Creek coal mines yesterday and collided with others. An old man, aged about 64 years, James Penman, who was on the runaway cars, got caught in the wreck and his left leg was broken. Dr. Van Wagoner set the fracture.

The Farewell Concert.
This evening's concert at the public building square by Mayer's band will be the last of the season. The following programme will be rendered:
1. March, Knight of Labor.
2. "Fedora" waltz.
3. "La Passarella."
4. Gavot, by Linden.
5. "La Vestale."
6. "Queen of Hearts" waltz.
7. "Should old acquaintance be forgot?"

County Finance Committee.
A meeting of the county commissioners' finance committee was held yesterday afternoon, at which 100 copies of the schedule of fees chargeable by justices were ordered printed. The committee also fixed a limit on the charges for examination of suspected lunatics. A committee was appointed to appraise the jail and site. The clerk's annual financial statement was read and ordered printed as directed by wire.

A Cheap Coal Supply.
An immense quantity of coal has been gathered in and along the river by idle men in Martin's Ferry this summer, a few getting as high as 1,000 bushels. In one place up the river 15,000 bushels were deposited by the sinking of a barge, and a number of men had a regular picnic there. Several men have gathered enough coal to last them until next summer, and not a few are laying in a supply of wood.

Charles Kettler's Funeral.
The funeral of Charles Kettler took place from his late residence on the South Side yesterday afternoon, Rev. P. J. Hoh, of Zion's church, officiating. Many members of the Mozart singing society attended, and sang several appropriate selections at Mt. Zion cemetery, where the interment was. LaBelle lodge A. O. U. W. also attended in a body, and the pallbearers were members of these two organizations.

Two Old Timers Back Again.
Yesterday afternoon Harry Hill went to the Wheeling Installation Company's store, drunk, and insisted on sitting down. He was ordered away and went, but returned later and became very abusive to the people about the store. A telephone call was sent to the police headquarters, and Lieutenant Terrill went up and brought Hill into the fold.
Rod Dixon was drunk at the post-office corner yesterday afternoon, and Lieutenant Gaus ordered him away. He refused to go, and Gaus took him to the lockup to think it over.

A Bigamist gets off.
Yesterday in the criminal court, Judge Jordan on the bench, a nolle was entered in the case of W. P. or Platoff Taylor, indicted for bigamy. It is understood that a new indictment will be presented by the next grand jury, and for this reason Charles Doyle and Albert Parker, witnesses, were recognized in $30 each for their appearance at the next term of court to testify for the defense.

Temporary Alimony Granted.
In Judge Campbell's side of the circuit court yesterday an order was entered in the chancery suit of H. W. Rook vs. Fannie B. Rook, for divorce, by which the plaintiff was ordered to pay to the defendant $40 for attorney's fees on or before October 6, and $15 for her maintenance on the first day of each month thereafter. H. W. Rook was also enjoined from disposing of any of his property before a final settlement of the suit.

Fair Only in Name.
Yesterday's Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette says: "William A. Fair was committed to jail last night on a charge of bigamy preferred by Luella Smith. Fair is an advertising agent, and came to Pittsburgh about three years ago from Wheeling. A short time ago he married the Smith woman, and several days ago she discovered that Fair had a wife living in West Virginia. Yesterday she made information against him before Alderman Gripp, and there will be a hearing October 2. Elizabeth A. Knight also lodged a charge against the man."

WAS THERE A ROBBERY?

Measures Taken by the Baltimore & Ohio Would seem to indicate There Was.
Railroad news travels with flash-like rapidity among railroad men, and generally retains at least a semblance of reliability. Though the Baltimore & Ohio people have denied the attempted train robbery on their Connellsville division near McKeesport, the statement is made among the employes of the road in this vicinity that there really was such an attempt to rob the train as was at first reported, and further that the company has taken measures to prevent the repetition of such occurrences by arming with revolvers its passenger trainmen. A passenger brakeman, who runs from Wheeling to Grafton, is responsible for the statement that the passenger trainmen on his division are all now, or will be, armed. Such measures would seem to indicate that the company fears more attempts of the character of the McKeesport one will be made.

LAST NIGHT'S ALARM.

A Blaze in the Wheeling Pottery Plant That Was Soon Put Out.
An alarm of fire rang in from box 56, on the South Side, called the entire department to the corner of Chapline and Thirty-first streets last evening about 7 o'clock. The alarm was repeated several times, and people up town thought there was a big fire. A gas pipe had by some means fallen down in the sagger room of the Wheeling pottery plant and the escaping gas became ignited and was fast forming the nucleus of a conflagration when discovered by passers-by. The blaze was put out by means of buckets of water before even the Eighth ward apparatus arrived on the scene. Had the blaze not been discovered while it was yet in its infancy a destructive, and at this time especially unfortunate fire would have resulted.

A DELIGHTFUL TRIP

Through a Region which Ought to be Tributary to Wheeling.
Mr. F. W. Baumer and Mr. Clem Smith went out to Morgantown Thursday, and rode home yesterday on their wheels. They followed the Monongahela river for some distance, then crossed to Waynesburg and rode in most of the way over the surveyed line line of the Wheeling & Connellsville railroad, down Ten-Mile creek to Big Wheeling and down the latter to a point near Haneytown, whence they crossed to that village, and then rode home by the ridge. Mr. Smith helped to survey the railroad and was of course familiar with the country, and both gentlemen report a delightful time. All along the route they found the people exceedingly desirous that the railroad project should be put through to a successful completion. The weather was perfect, and they returned with a high estimate of the beauty and richness of the region the road would traverse if built.

A FARM HOUSE BURNED,

Inflicting Severe Loss, Without any Insurance—The Owner Away.
The residence of Joseph E. Majors, on his farm on Scotch Ridge, four miles west of Martin's Ferry, was burned to the ground Thursday night, together with a part of the contents. The fire originated from a defective flue and the house soon went up in smoke. Most of the furniture downstairs was saved. The total loss was about $1,500. There was no insurance on the house or its contents. Miss Nannie Majors lost $100 in money, a fine seal skin saccue and other clothing worth $250. Mr. and Mrs. Majors had been at the Smithfield fair and found their home in ashes when they returned.
