WHEELING, NOVEMBER 28, 1893.

The Wilson Slasher. Even the Democrats in Washington are surprised by the radical, slashing character of the Wilson bill. They should not be.

Italy's Commotion. The bank scandals have upset the Italian cabinet and disturbed all Italy. The people see that trusted men in high places have been abusing the public confidence and feathering their nests.

The Mills bill was a gentle zephyr in comparison with the Wilson cyclone. The Chicago Inter Ocean has caused members of Congress to be interviewed on the tariff.

The Great Unwound. The Chicago Inter Ocean has caused members of Congress to be interviewed on the tariff. It was especially desired to know whether the recent elections would be regarded as new instructions from the people.

What did the recent elections show? That thirty-two districts now represented by Democrats went Republican. This would make a change of sixty-four in the political complexion of the house without going out of the states of Massachusetts, New York, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Ohio, Illinois, Nebraska and Kansas.

Now will the administration print the long expected report of the speckled speculator Spreckels? That is the missing companion picture to the able remarks of the buoyant Blount.

FRANCE, Italy, Portugal and Servia are in the throes of cabinet crises, and there is trouble in the British ministry. Grover I may find himself in the royal swim before long.

This season's orange crop in Florida is much above the average in quantity, being estimated at 5,000,000 boxes, and is much earlier than usual.

Do we need foreign coal, iron ore, lumber and salt to mix with the like domestic products so as to improve the market for the domestic article?

SENATOR FAULKNER is quoted as fearing that Chairman Wilson will yield to the party influences which insist that coal shall be put on the free list.

THEY were going to put sugar back on the dutiable list as soon as they got a chance. They are for revenue, and sugar is a great revenue producer when it is used that way. They have not done it. The answer to the riddle is that they are afraid. The Republican sugar scheme hit the country's fancy, and the Democrats will not take the risk of upsetting it entirely.

BIRMINGHAM, Alabama, wants Governor McKinley to come down that way and give a tariff talk. Alabama is seeking comfort in these Democratic days.

Good Beginning for the Glass Industry. The first day of practical work to save the glass industry of Wheeling foops up about $70,000. The most encouraging feature of it all is that the men who have been employed in the factories subscribed $45,000, which they will increase to $50,000.

In this list is represented about forty heads of families. These men have done more than anybody else will do. Most of them have agreed to venture all they have in the world to make the undertaking successful, and in some cases the subscription represents many years of saving.

The soliciting committees will be in the field again to-day, and it is very desirable that they meet with a prompt and liberable response as they go their rounds. They are working for the public benefit and should be treated accordingly.

CHAIRMAN WILSON has come pretty near to going the whole hog. If the Democrats could succeed in this and remain in power long enough to follow it up with another, there would be nothing left.

The bank scandals have upset the Italian cabinet and disturbed all Italy. The people see that trusted men in high places have been abusing the public confidence and feathering their nests.

The trouble in Italy is very much more than an ordinary cabinet crisis, for it goes to the root of things. The free list "take-off" of the free traders surprises even some of them.

Another of the old familiar faces lies cold in death. Mr. L. S. Delaplain, whose death is announced this morning, had been identified with Wheeling for nearly sixty years, having come to Wheeling in his young manhood.

Mr. Delaplain was said to be the oldest dry goods merchant in the country. He had a wide acquaintance in all the great markets, where he had also unlimited credit. He was one of the business landmarks of Wheeling, a model business man in every respect.

DEMOCRATIC free traders to American sugar producers—Our little scheme is to murder your industry by degrees. We shall take one-eighth of its life each year for eight years just to see whether it can live that long.

driven cars for forty years on the Somerville avenue line, in that city, and during that time has traveled a distance equal to twenty-five times around the world.

According to the Philadelphia Record, Clarence F. Bement, of that city, has a collection of minerals which is second to only one in the world, that of the British museum. It is estimated to be worth fully half a million dollars.

The idea of an ancient tropical continent at the South pole uniting South America, Madagascar and Australia is arousing considerable interest and discussion in scientific circles.

There have been more remains of mastodons and other extinct mammals found in Ichucknee river, Florida, than any other stream in the world.

Altoona, Wis., lays claim to the champion high kicker of the world. His name is W. S. Stokes and he has a record of ten feet six inches.

There is a twin crystal of emerald in St. Petersburg 7 inches long, 4 broad and weighing 43 pounds.

A prominent society leader of Chicago says that the inner circle of that city numbers exactly eighty.

The Hon. Johnson N. Camden, of Parkersburg, W. Va., United States senator and millionaire, is at the Fifth Avenue hotel. It was from Senator Camden that Lawrence T. Neal, of Ohio, received his first political lessons years ago when Neal was an ambitious clerk in Parkersburg.

The Great Northern railroad, which has established a line of steamers from Seattle to China and Japan, is now employing a Chinese traveling agent to drum up business for the line, and with excellent results. Ton Saie has been in the United States for twenty-two years, however, and is pretty thoroughly Americanized.

In an article on the present status of electricity Arthur V. Abbott estimates that the 530 electric roads in the country now use 7,500 miles of track, with 17,000 cars, requiring engines of 100,000 horse power. The companies are capitalized for $135,000,000.

Mr. William Binek's new novel is called "Highland Cousins." The Harpers propose to publish it as a serial in the Bazar. The chief serial of the coming year in their Weekly is what is reported to be a strong novel by Miss Mary Wilkins.

Judge R. T. W. Duke, jr., of Charlottesville, will deliver the oration on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone of the Masonic Home in Richmond, Va., on the 6th of December.

It is reported that J. Pierpont Morgan will be made chairman of the Union Pacific reorganization committee.

Teacher—Tommy, have you found out the difference between a republic and a monarchy yet? Tommy—I asked paw about it, and he says that in a monarchy the people obey their rulers because they respect them, and in a republic they obey the bosses 'cause they can't help it.

Inquisitive Tommy—Sunday is the first day of the week, isn't it, pa? His Pa—Yes, my son. Inquisitive Tommy—And Saturday is the last day, ain't it? His Pa—Yes. Inquisitive Tommy—Then how is it that Saturday comes before Sunday?—Chicago Record.

What do you think of Miss Anticuss? Trimley—I think she would make a very good soldier. Bingley—How so? Trimley—She seems so eager to get into an engagement.

CURRENT LITERATURE.

The Christmas number of Scribner's Magazine contains five short stories of unusual beauty in sentiment, especially chosen for their appropriateness to the Christmas season. The authors are Robert Grant, Thomas Nelson Page, Henry van Dyke, Edith Wharton, and Herbert D. Ward.

The illustrations represent the best work of eminent artists, including J. R. Weguelin, Edwin Lord Weeks, F. S. Church, Howard Pyle, A. B. Frost and Irving R. Wiles. A novelty in magazine illustration is sixteen pages of exquisite half-tone reproductions of the Della Robbia sculptures, printed in tint to suggest the delicate material of the Kobbia work.

F. Marion Crawford, the distinguished novelist, who in "Paul Patoff" showed his wonderful familiarity with Constantinople and his exquisite power of describing it, has written for Scribner's two articles on "Constantinople," which in themselves are a perfect expression of all the varied life and color of that wonderful city.

"Anthony Ken" is the title of a story by Charles Stokes Wayne, which is published complete in the December number of "Tales From Town Topics." It is a highly interesting story of a strange love episode in the life of a young American in Europe, who, by becoming entangled with an adventuress, brings endless misery upon himself.

Some Reflections on the Men Who Voted For a Change and Got It. Philadelphia Free. Some folks are never thankful—not even to command! I've been tellin' my old woman so—she will not understand!

It is for me! I'm happy! tho' it's tryin' in a way. To miss the spendin' money an' the talk of job an' pay. But I'm happy in rememberin' the vote I cast last year.

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

The Worst Thing That Could Possibly Happen. Graphic Description by One Who Has Been Through It.

We Believe it to be Unequaled in Truthful Annals of Facts.

Mr. Lewis Grant, a well-known and prominent citizen of Somerville, Mass., who resides at 77 Partridge avenue, gives what we believe to be an almost unequalled experience.

"I have been," said Mr. Grant to the writer, "afflicted with nervous debility for several years, trembling on the slightest excitement and suffering the greatest mental agony. I was in constant fear that something was about to happen to me, was unable to obtain the proper amount of sleep and rest at night, woke unrefreshed in the morning and experienced an uncontrollable dread of everything."

"In fact, my entire nervous system was shattered and life was a source of constant torment to me and my ambition was entirely gone. After consulting several physicians without receiving any benefit, I was induced to try Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I am happy to say that from the very first bottle I commenced to steadily improve and have continued to grow stronger. My nerves until now, having taken my fifth bottle, I consider myself entirely cured of this fearful malady, nervous exhaustion."

"My nerves have wholly regained their former strength and the trembling which almost entirely incapacitated me from my work, has completely ceased. I can sleep perfectly well and wake in the morning refreshed after a good night's rest."

"I cannot speak highly enough of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. I consider it the most wonderful medicine of the age. I cheerfully recommend its use to all persons afflicted with disease."

The terrible experience of Mr. Grant and his remarkable cure by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, shows that this wonderful medicine is what the sick require to cure them. The fact that it cured him is positive proof that it will cure others. It is purely vegetable and harmless.

It has the largest sale of any remedy at druggists, everybody buying it, doubtless because they know it will cure, and because physicians prescribe and recommend it generally. What gives the people absolute confidence in it is the fact that it is the discovery and prescription of a well known physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th street, New York, the most successful specialist in curing nervous and chronic diseases. The doctor can be consulted without charge in any and all cases, personally or by letter.
