Notes of Sport.

Will White is getting together a frisky crowd of youngsters for Dallas.

"Dummy" Ryn, the mute first baseman of last season's Twin Cities aggregation, was here yesterday.

"Tim" McGuirk, who was at first for Kenton last season, may manage Lima if the club is organized there.

The movement for a ball club in Fort Wayne is well backed and that city is sure to be in the new league.

Sammy Nichols will be in Kansas City's left garden again this season.

He is one of the best outfielders in the Western league.

The H. C. Richards bowling team will play six games next Monday evening.

Three with Nameless and three with Independent. They should win four at least.

The national board of base ball leagues meets in Washington next Monday.

The cases of several players who have agreed to play with too many clubs this season will be decided.

The suggestion that "Jack" Darahe be secured to manage Wheeling has been received with general favor.

The "brunch" aggressive tactics would be appreciated were he in a Wheeling uniform.

Lima wants to come in the new league but favors a $500 salary limit.

This would be too small for Dayton, Toledo, Fort Wayne, Wheeling and other higher-class towns that are to be in the league.

A PROTECTIVE TARIFF

And Reciprocity for National Prosperity. The Manufacturers' Convention Adjourns.

CHICAGO, Jan. 23.—This was the third and last day's session of the meeting of the American Manufacturers' Association.

Mr. Pliny Jewell, chairman of the nominating committee, announced that the committee had nominated Mr. Theodore C. Search, of Philadelphia, for president.

Mr. Dolan having declined a renomination on account of sickness, Mr. Search was then elected president unanimously.

Mr. Search, in accepting, said: "An association of American manufacturers organized for the patriotic purpose of widening the markets of our people and protecting our industrial interests is one which most appeals to the patriotism of every man engaged in industrial enterprises.

At this time there are no objects that appeal to the American people with more force than these—tariff for protection to American industries; an abundance of revenue for maintaining our national credit; reciprocity with other nations to market our surplus and the Nicaragua canal to make us masters of American continental waterways."

He claimed our years of prosperity were identified with high tariff, and said: "The lessons of our people under the low tariff need not soon be repeated. We have all been attending school. An abundance of revenue to-day is the one thing most needed by our market; without it we are drifting toward the straight road to bankruptcy, national and individual. Restore it and progress will immediately reassert itself and we shall once more take up the march for national power and industrial enterprise."

He also advocated reciprocity and strongly recommended the building of the Nicaragua canal, the control of which, he said, should rest solely with the United States.

Robert L. Howe and E. P. Wilson, both of Cincinnati, were re-elected treasurer and secretary respectively.

Philadelphia was selected as the next place of meeting, the date to be fixed by the executive committee.

From a Foreign Point of View.

LONDON, Jan. 24.—A dispatch to the Times from Washington, with reference to the so-called Jingo argument that Venezuelans will never consent to the repeal of the statute which forbids the reopening of negotiations with Great Britain, said:

There is no public opinion in Venezuela which will survive the first plain notice from the United States that the republic must choose between accepting her advice and arranging as best she can unaided with Great Britain.

It will never be necessary to put it so bluntly as that. The advice has been given in all that is necessary, be reported and pressed. America's will will prevail or Venezuela must seek a champion elsewhere.

I am not speaking from conjecture or hearsay as to the presence of that determination in Washington. The Caracas statute will be seen to shiver into nothing."

A Possible Dark Horse.

CINCINNATI, O., Jan. 23.—The Commercial Gazette will tomorrow print in its series of presidential possibilities a work in support of ex-United States senator Manderson, of Nebraska.

This article is a special from Omaha. It states in the outset that Senator Manderson and Senator Thurston are warm personal friends and that the Nebraska delegation will go to St. Louis for McKinley, but in case of a dark horse coming upon the scene they would make Manderson the dark horse.

DEMOCRATIC METHODS

At Central City—A Council that Out-herded Herod.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Jan. 23.—There is much comment in Central City now over the action of the outgoing council, all the members of which are Democrats.

Ever since the town was set apart as a separate municipality, the outgoing body to fix the salaries for the council the coming year. The members of the new council are all Republicans and the city clerk is a Democrat.

The last act of the old body was to cut the salary of the mayor for next term down to $25 per year, and entirely wipe out the salary of all councilmen. The city marshal's salary was reduced from $75 to $35 per month and the salary of the clerk, the only Democrat in the body, was allowed to remain the same.

The diabolical act is the leading talk of the city now and Democrats as well as Republicans are condemning the members in the bitterest terms. The marshal is required to give a bond of $3,000, and it is thought it will be hard to find any one who will serve for the pitiful sum of $25 per month.

PARKERSBURG NOTES.

An Attempted Suicide—Wedding in High Life—Injunctions Granted.

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE INTELLIGENCER. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., Jan. 23.—Theodore Mars, employe at the Sentinel office, attempted suicide last night by taking laudanum. He was unsuccessful. Financial embarrassment was the cause.

United States Judge Jackson granted injunctions to-day in the case of E. W. Clark against Dameron and others, also in the case of R. H. Pritchard, et al., vs. the West county court.

The first of the two cases is a suit for cutting timber off plaintiff's land. The second enjoined the Wayne county officers from collecting $3,000 taxes erroneously assessed against Pritchard.

A wedding in high society will occur here next Wednesday. Hugh O'Connor, of Cuydon, Ind., who has just returned from Ireland, where he came into a great fortune by the death of an uncle, an Irish lord, will wed Miss Florence Shattuck, daughter of C. H. Shattuck, one of the city's wealthiest citizens.

W. N. Miller, attorney for Oberlin college, and J. R. Severance, treasurer of the college, were before Judge Goetz, of the county court to-day. It was alleged against them that they used C. S. Fewsmith, receiver for lands in which the college was interested, in Doddridge county, without the consent of the federal court. The case was hotly contested. The judge took the matter under advisement.

WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS.

The Opening Session of the National Convention—The Woman's Bible Denounced.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 23.—The twenty-eighth annual convention of the National American Woman Suffrage Association began here to-day. Three hundred delegates are present. The meeting will last six days.

The session this morning was mainly preliminary, Miss Susan B. Anthony presiding.

Rev. Anna H. Shaw, of Philadelphia, vice president at large, in her review of the year, related the interest in the west evinced at the meetings held at Salt Lake City, St. Louis, Cheyenne, Denver and other cities.

Miss Isabella Howland, of New York, in delivering the report of the corresponding secretary, Mrs. Rachel Foster Avery, of Philadelphia, said that the work had been hindered by a general misunderstanding of the relation of the so-called "woman's bible" to the association. As an organization the body had been held responsible for the action of an individual in issuing a volume with a pretentious title, covering a jumble of comment without literary value and set forth in a spirit neither relevant nor inquiring.

She urged that the association, by resolution, disavow responsibility for the publication. A number of personal colloquies resulted and the report finally was tabled by a vote of 53 to 16. In the course of the report Mrs. Avery urged that the success of the cause in Utah clearly demonstrated the advisability of securing the aid of political parties through plank in their respective platforms.

"We now have," she said, "six senators and representatives from three states on the floor of Congress, all of whom stand there with an ever present sense that an important part of their constituents are of the female sex."

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

John Rock, a youth of perhaps 18, who was sent to the penitentiary for this city last year, wrote a letter to Mayor Dubois yesterday in which he says he is a changed boy and regrets he did not heed the advice given him by the mayor before he landed in the pen.

The mayor will be out in July and he wants the mayor and other good citizens to help secure him a place to make an honorable living. He is a bright boy and if turned in the right direction would make a good citizen.

In the case of Tiegebach as administrator against the Pittsburgh and Wheeling Coal Company, a case brought because the son of the plaintiff had been killed in the mine, for $10,000 damages, claimed by the plaintiff through planks in their respective platforms.

The Bellaire Athletic club has elected the following officers: President, David McClain; first vice president, P. J. Riley; second vice president, Moses Elikan; secretary, Frank O'Toole; treasurer, John McKelvey; trustees H. W. Bahra, William Cauley and Joseph McNabb.

W. D. Jones, formerly manager of the lantern globe works in this city, left Wheeling last night for Charleston, Pa., where he has secured the place of factory manager for Macbeth & Co. He had no permanent place since the globe works here burned down.

The electric cranes in the new plate mill department at the steel works were tested yesterday and worked like a charm. The advance made in the matter of handling the product of this mill is simply wonderful. It does away with many laborers, too.

The county commissioners held a short session yesterday to hear the report of Mr. Wise, who was at Columbus in the interest of special legislation to allow an increase in the tax levy of this county.

There is little prospect of starting up the old lantern globe works at this time, but a company to operate it could readily be organized if proper inducements were made to meet competition in that line.

Robert Westlake, manager of the Bellaire Athletic club, has signed Michael Davis, of this city, as right fielder for this season. Davis has never been out, but is a crack amateur player.

The last grand jury in this county was composed principally of business men and it was commended by Judge Driggs and the people generally for its prompt work, doing it all in three days.

The number of Republican candidates for mayor grows beautifully as the time approaches. Some of the aspirants will have better jobs, and that is what they are all looking for.

Mrs. Anna Thompson, president of the Woman's Relief Corps, was agreeably surprised at her home by the members of the corps calling in a body on the occasion of her birthday.

"Ras" Wilson, the "Quiet Observer" of the Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette, will be one of the lecturers at the farmers' institute at St. Clairsville next week.

$11,000 is the amount paid into the county treasury each year by the saloons of this county under the Dow tax law.

The suit of John W. Hammond vs. Eva Hammond for divorce will be heard in common pleas court to-day.

Ex-Congressman Pearson and Hon. J. P. Sprigge, of Woodfield, were in town yesterday.

Sebastopol was Not Impregnable.

For it was taken by assault, but a physique built up, a constitution fortified by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may bid defiance to the assaults of malarious disease even in localities where it is most prevalent and malignant.

Emigrants to the sugar-breding sections of the West should bear this in mind, and start with a supply. The Bitters promptly subdues dyspepsia, pneumonia and kidney complaints, nervousness, constipation and biliousness.
