LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City. The Grand this evening—"Lost in New York." In Clerk Hook's office the only business done was the admission to record of five deeds of trust. Yesterday's police court docket consisted of two plain drunks. One was sent to the hill in default of his fine, and the other's sentence was suspended.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad. W. P. Heiskell and wife have returned from a visit to New York. Joseph Higgins, a prominent Littleton citizen, was in Wheeling last evening. John H. Gillespie, of Wood Bros' planing mill, is dangerously ill at his home on Fourteenth street.

In the Circuit Court.

The damage suit of Hugh Rogers, of Bethesda, O., vs. the city of Wheeling was continued in Judge Campbell's court yesterday. The evidence was finished, and then the court adjourned till to-day, when the argument will be made. When the court adjourned for the noon recess, Mr. C. Zulauf, a juror, stated that he was to sing in a quartette at the funeral of Mr. A. J. Ceell, and Judge Campbell excused him for that reason. Court reassembled at about 4:30 p. m.

Funeral of A. J. Ceell.

The funeral of the late A. J. Ceell took place yesterday afternoon, and the services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Swope, assisted by Rev. Jacob Brittingham. The services were very solemn and impressive. The interment was at Greenwood cemetery and the pallbearers were: Messrs. William Young, T. M. Carr, J. R. McCourtney, William List, L. Hope, M. L. Ott, N. E. Whitaker and George H. Parks.

No Tidings Yet Received.

No intelligence was received yesterday from Mr. Howard P. Wilkinson, who disappeared last Friday. Every effort to find him has been made (but anybody could suggest, and the mystery of his going away is just as deep as it was the day after he left. A number of rumors were afloat yesterday, as usual, but when run down they all proved to have nothing in them.

In Olden Times.

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, Logan & Co., Wheeling, W. Va., B. F. Peabody, Benwood, and Bowie & Co., Bridgeport, O.

THE GRAND LODGE

Meeting of the Ancient Order of United Workmen Adjourned.

NEW OFFICERS WERE ELECTED

For the ensuing term of one year—Mr. McCluskey, of Wellsburg, succeeds Mr. McCluskey as Grand Master Workman. The Foreman Case Tabled Without Action—The New Officers Installed Last Evening—Other Business Transacted.

Yesterday was the third and concluding day of the second annual meeting of the grand lodge of West Virginia, Ancient Order of United Workmen, in this city. The main features of the day were the consideration of the well known Foreman case and the election of officers.

Most of the morning session was consumed in consideration of the Foreman matter. It will be remembered that Alex. Foreman, of Grafton, was elected grand recorder at the grand lodge meeting last year. After his installation in office he failed, according to the report on this matter, by Grand Master Workman McCluskey, to furnish the required bond, and in addition was inefficient. For these reasons he was removed from office by the grand master workman and S. M. Hathaway, of Welcome lodge, Wheeling, was appointed to the vacancy. Mr. Foreman did not acquiesce in the decision of the higher official and carried the matter to the membership at large through a circular letter. At the present meeting of the grand lodge he claims payment of salary for the past year. His case was handled by Mr. J. H. Holt, of Grafton. At the conclusion of the morning session a motion to lay the matter on the table was carried on a close vote and it was believed it would stay there, thus settling the unpleasantness.

The election of officers occurred in the afternoon. The new members at once installed into office. They are as follows: Past Grand Master Workman—W. O. McCluskey, Welcome lodge, Wheeling. Grand Master Workman—G. W. McCluskey, of Wellsburg. Grand Foreman—Sam R. Nuzum, of Fairmont.

Grand Overseer—George Bryson, of Mount Pleasant. Grand Recorder—S. M. Hathaway, Welcome lodge, Wheeling. Grand Receiver—C. E. Baab, of Weston. Grand Medical Examiner—Dr. G. A. Aschman, of Wheeling lodge, Wheeling. (Re-elected.) Grand Guide—Francis Flood, La Belle lodge, Wheeling.

Grand Inside Watchman—A. C. Stoetzer, Wellsburg. Grand Outside Watchman—Conrad Wellesman, Herman lodge, Wheeling.

Representatives to the supreme lodge—J. H. Holt, of Grafton; George I. Garrison and Frank Gruse, of Wheeling.

The result of the election of officers was received with general favor, the distribution of the "plums" geographically being equitable. The new grand master workman, Mr. McCluskey, of Wellsburg, is one of the most ardent and vigorous workers in the order and will ably maintain the standard established under Mr. McCluskey's leadership during the first year of the separate jurisdiction.

The work of installing officers was the concluding feature of the grand lodge meeting, which adjourned early in the evening. The visiting delegates left for their homes on the several night trains.

A CHARMING MUSICAL

Rendered by Beginners at Mt. de Chantal Last Night.

At Mt. de Chantal the entire programme of the musicale last evening was rendered by beginners. It was as follows:

Recitation, "Punctuation," by the little children; "First Violin," Rohde, Miss Pearl Robinson; "Farewell to Forest Green," Esser, Miss Elsie Gundling; "I'd Like to Know," Miss Margaret Burns; "Sonatina," Beethoven, Miss Josephine Waterhouse; "Morning Serenade," Millard, Miss Etta Thayer; "Air de Ballet," Jadssohn, Miss Nellie Schmidt.

"Be Careful What You Say," Miss Martha Haas; "Album Leaf," Greig, Miss Georgia Dent; "Longer," Ruth; Gounod, Miss Robinson; "Le gin Moure la Lauterie Magique Floriau," Miss Emma Reymann; "The Rivolet," D. Edwards, Miss Magdalene Anderson; chorus, "Lullaby," Brohuets, Schubert Choristers.

Punctuation, was a very pretty selection, very entertainingly given by the little Misses May Robinson, Stella Font, Pearl Robinson, Lena Hansen, Clara Hook and Leoretta Hansen.

The First Violin was very neatly played by Miss Pearl Robinson. This little lady has decided talent.

Miss Elsie Gundling sang with taste and sweetness and showed a marked improvement.

Little Miss Margaret Burns told of what she'd like to know in a graphic style; we hope she may recover some of her numerous losses.

Berthorius Sonatina was played very correctly, and with good phrasing, by Miss Josephine Waterhouse.

Miss Etta Thayer sang the beautiful song of Millard's with much sweetness and feeling.

Evidently little Miss Nellie Schmidt was badly frightened. We saw, however, that her fingering was correct, and we hope she may improve rapidly.

"Be careful what you say," was delivered by Miss Martha Haas with clearness.

Miss Georgia Dent pleased us with her pretty playing of Greig's Lovely Album Leaf.

Song of Ruth, was carefully sung by Miss Robinson.

Miss Emma Reymann gave a humorous little recitation in French with an evident appreciation of her subject.

The Rivolet, was played with much spirit by Miss Magdalene Anderson.

We congratulate the "Schubert Choristers" on their charming rendition of Brahms' Lullaby.

ONE PRESENT.

EDWARDS & BOSTON'S decorating department will be open about Feb. 1.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS. .. NOW WE .. Cut the Upper Crust.

We have altogether too many Overcoats, very finest Overcoats that can be made, very choicest garments in the house, richest values and most exclusive styles, and with not a single exception, not a solitary reservation, but all, every one, will be offered for your choice THIS MORNING at prices that are an utter disregard of even the actual cost, at prices that are most unprecedented and extravagant sacrifices. CLEAR, COLD CASH CONCESSIONS.

- $25 Overcoats or Ulsters go at - $18
- $20 Overcoats or Ulsters go at - $15
- $18 and $15 Overcoats and Ulsters go at $12
- $12 and $10 Overcoats and Ulsters go at $9
- $8.50 Overcoats and Ulsters go at - $6
- $6.00 Overcoats and Ulsters go at $4.98

All Boys' and Children's Overcoats and Reefers go at proportionate prices.

THE MAKING.

We don't care who tries, no better garments can be created than these Overcoats and Ulsters we're offering. They're fine from beginning to end. Every stitch shows the expert's hand. Every point about them denotes high character of fabric and finish. There's a mint of money locked up in these Coats, and it's to liberate that to prevent the possibility of having any left to be carried over into next season, that we make this most astonishing reduction. There are none in Wheeling to match it.

The price bars are down, help yourselves!

UNUSUAL—BAER'S CLOTHING HOUSE.

Unusual!

"Great Reductions!" "Half Price Sales!" and "Goods at Cost!" usually means undesirable things that must be fairly kicked out if they are to go over.

Here are two brilliant exceptions: Suits and Overcoats that we've been getting twenty-two, twenty and eighteen dollars for are now FIFTEEN DOLLARS, and five dollar Trousers go at THREE-FIFTY.
