MISS DOWNEY Had Large Audiences at the Fourth Street Church AND AT THE Y. M. C. A. HALL.

The Meetings at the Fourth Street Church will be Kept Up by the Pastor After the W. C. T. U. Series Ends-An Eloquent Talk Yesterday Afternoon on the Conversion of Saul, which was Heard by a Large Number of Men.

Yesterday morning the Fourth street M. E. church was well filled with people drawn by the fame of Miss Anna Downey, who was announced to preach. She made an informal address, rather than a sermon, but it was full of feeling and very effective, and the large congregation was deeply impressed.

In the afternoon Miss Downey gave a Bible reading at the Y. M. C. A. hall at the usual meeting for men at 4 p. m. The attendance was very much above the average of the Sunday afternoon meetings.

Miss Downey chose for her scripture reading the ninth chapter of the Acts, concerning the persecution of the Christians by Saul, and his subsequent conversion. The theme of her talk, also, was the conversion of Saul. After also, was the conversion of Saul. After the meeting many young men waited and went forward to speak with Miss Downey, and most of them professed conversion.

Dr. Riker announces that when the present series of meetings under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. is ended, he will continue the revival services. Miss Downey has done a great work in the time she has been here, and has prepared the way for a still greater one. This afternoon at 2:30 there will be an evangelistic conference at the church. Miss Downey will give Bible readings Tuesday and Wednesday at half-past 4 o'clock and will lead evangelistic services on those two evenings.

ARCHBISHOP KAIN Nails a Falsehood a Dispatch from the New York World.

The following self-explanatory letter has been received by the Intelligencer from Archbishop Kain:

Sir:—Permit me to say that the article reproduced in your issue of Wednesday last, from the Sunday edition of the New York World, relative to affairs of our church in St. Louis, is a tissue of falsehoods, formulated by a roving Bohemian, whose scribbles no reputable paper in St. Louis would print.

JOHN J. KAIN, Archbishop of St. Louis.

The Scottish Reformation. The story of the "Scottish Reformation" will be told by Mrs. Monroe, of Philadelphia, aided by her fine selection of stereoscopic views and one hundred Wheeling ladies and gentlemen selected from the different churches. Mrs. Monroe delivered the lecture on the "Life of Luther, or the German Reformation," in Wheeling about one year ago.

This entertainment has been given in nearly every large city in New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Maryland, and everywhere without exception, has met with the highest praise. The entertainment consists of the lecture by Mrs. Monroe, illustrated by home talent, in allegorical processions, scenes between Puritans and students. The great trial of John Knox before Queen Mary and her court. The queen being led to execution is a touching sight.

Many leading young people in the processions helped in the "German Reformation" and are satisfied that this entertainment is equally instructive and pleasing. Mrs. Andrew H. Patterson will represent Queen Mary and Miss E. Grace Updegraff will be the lady to sing to "cheer the queen." No doubt she will please the audience.

Mrs. Monroe comes to Wheeling under the auspices of the Board of Managers of the "Home for the Friendless and Aged." The committee is sparing no pains to make this one of the best entertainments ever given in Wheeling.

The I. O. O. F. Club. The proposed Odd Fellows club is moving along toward completion in a very satisfactory manner. At a meeting held Friday evening steps were taken to secure three rooms on the second floor of the I. O. O. F. hall, and when fitted up they will present a very inviting appearance.
