The closing exercises of the fifth annual session of Mrs. Hart's school for girls, took place yesterday morning.

The poem, abridged and adapted, was then given by the following young ladies: Nellie Hazlett, Emma Williams, Margaret Cummins, Inna Kraft, Jeannette Kraft, Herietta Harrison, Juliet Campbell, Stella Hubbard, Rosa Heller, Ruth Kittle, Helen Smith, Louise Lamb, Bessie Snyder, Edith Gibbs, Annie Cummins, Adolphia Young, Bessie Morris, Grace Nichols, Iola Elliot, Edna Ewing, Mary Hazlett, Emma Gatch, Beulah Hubbard, Virginia Rider, Ada Smith, Blanche Kraus, Elizabeth McLaughlin, Bessie Harrison.

The distribution of annual reports for scholarship was followed by certificates to the young ladies who had completed the following studies: American history; English history; Ray's higher arithmetic; higher algebra; rhetoric; Greek history; Miss Alice Mady and Miss Jessie Wheat having completed four books of Caesar, received certificates.

Seventeen were presented to Miss Alice Mady and Miss Jessie Wheat for scholarship and application during the past five years; to Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin for prompt and punctual attendance; to Miss Ruth Kittle for elocution; and to Miss Stella Hubbard for the best prize story; to Miss Louise Lamb, first prize, for an herbarium; to Bessie Morris, second prize. These specimens gave evidence of the careful study and delicate taste of the two young ladies.

In a most entertaining manner, the Rev. Mr. Speer addressed the school, paying a deserved compliment to both pupils and teacher.

Rev. Morgan Rider offered a closing prayer and pronounced a benediction upon this popular and successful school, where the young girls of this community are furnished superior opportunities for the higher, as well as the most practical education.

While the "good-byes" were being spoken, the visitors examined the beautifully colored maps, drawn by a number of the pupils. The art studio, conducted by Miss Eva Hubbard, was another attraction. Water colors, pencil and charcoal sketches, the work of the pupils, were exhibited. Altogether, the occasion was thoroughly enjoyed by pupils, teachers and friends, among whom were many of the "old girls," who, having passed on to the school of real life, came in to encourage by their presence the "new girls," and to live over again, for a few hours, the old school days.

The law passed by the Ohio legislature prohibiting ladies from wearing hats in the opera houses is being rigidly enforced by the managers of the Martin's Ferry opera house, and the ladies generally have obeyed it from the start.

Nervous Wash Goods.

People find just the help they so much need, in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It furnishes the desired strength by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood, and thus builds up the nerves, tones the stomach and regulates the whole system. Read this: "I want to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health ran down, and I had the grip. After that, my heart and nervous system were badly affected, so that I could not do my own work. Our physician gave me some help, but did not cure. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon I could do all my own housework. I have taken Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and they have done me much good. I will not be without them. I have taken 13 bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and through the blessing of God, it has cured me. I worked as hard as ever the past summer, and I am thankful to say I am well. Hood's Pills when taken with Hood's Sarsaparilla help very much." Mrs. M. M. MESSINGER, Freehold, Penn. This and many other cures prove that
