A BIG SUCCESS

Was Saturday's Celebration of Labor day in Wheeling

BY THE TRADES ASSEMBLY.

THE PROGRAMME OF SPORTS WAS CARRIED OUT WITHOUT A HITCH IN THE PRESENCE OF MORE THAN 6,000 PEOPLE—THE ROAD RACE WAS HOTLY CONTESTED, ADAMS WINNING—THE TRACK EVENTS WERE VERY INTERESTING.

"Labor Day" was favored with excellent weather, and the celebration of the day by the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly at the state fair grounds was an unqualified success. During the afternoon and evening there were over 6,000 admissions. The afternoon crowd was over 5,000, and of these 1,200 saw the fine programme of sports from the grand stand.

The absence of the street demonstration did not prove a handicap in any way. The crowd was larger than last year's and the locals that usually hire bands for the parade spent the money in buying tickets for their members.

The first event of the day was the bicycle road race, which started from the corner of Tenth and Main streets at 1:54 p. m. Of the twenty-seven riders entered, all but six started, and fourteen finished. The limit man, "Messenger Boy" Pearlman, held his own until his wheel was punctured. He was mounted on a strange wheel, but it was too large for him, and when the turning point was reached he was the last man to score. The winner proved to be Clarence Adams, a three-minute man, whose closest opponent was Percy Harris, who started from the same mark. At the turn, foot of the St. Clairsville hill, Adams led Harris a few seconds. On the return it was a scrap between the two, and at Bridgeport Harris was leading Adams by a hundred yards. Coming across the Island, Adams cut down some of the lead. At the entrance to the state fair grounds, Harris still led, but before the track was entered, Adams had passed his opponent and finished a winner on the track about fifty yards ahead of Harris. The summary:

Table with columns: Pos. Rider, Hdcp. Start, Finish, Time. Includes names like C. Adams, P. Harris, T. Cox, W. Modar, H. Vance, H. H. Friedrich, C. McGeehan, W. Lindsey, W. Whitbeck, W. Frabel, J. W. King, F. Cox, O. H. Scott.

The time prize was won by Friedrichs from the one minute mark. The distance, thirteen miles, was made in thirty-seven minutes flat. The second best time performance was by the winner of the race, Adams, in 37:50.

The match foot race at 100 yards, was won by Butler, of Benwood, over Henry, of Bridgeport. The latter stumbled five yards from the finish and fell. Time, 11 seconds.

The basket ball game between the Crescents and Turners was won by the latter, 4 to 0.

The half mile foot race was won by Henry, of Bridgeport. The one mile open bicycle race went to Dodd, of Wellsburg. In the creditable time of 2:32. His was an excellent performance, the track being very heavy. Berry, of Bridgeport, was second; Goodhue, of Clarington, third; Lanam, of Alliance, fourth, and Stewart, of Steubenville, fifth.

In the five mile handicap bicycle race, the winner was Lanam, of Alliance, whose long distance work has always been his long suit. Dodd, of Wellsburg, was considered a likely winner, but he fell from his wheel and was out of it. Clyde Young, of Enon Valley, Pa., was second and gave Lanam a scrap for the race. Tommy Garden, of Wheeling, made most of the pace and finished third. Friedrichs was fourth and Berry got fifth position. The time was 13:10, the result of Garden's willingness to go out and make a rattling pace for the field.

The concluding attraction on the track was the horse racing. There were five events, which resulted as follows:

- First race, four and one-half furlongs. Sister Ida, 103 (Higgins), 5 to 1. Seedy, 112 (Flynn), 3 to 2. Dr. Warden, 105 (Rigby), 3 to 1. Time, 0:58. Ensign, Fluellen, Hope and Viola Albers also ran. Second race, six furlongs. Crown, 108 (Cannon), 4 to 1. Gov. Grigg, 114 (Burkholder), 2 to 5. Young Grigg, 100 (Bender), 10 to 1. Time, 1:16. Arian and Silver Brook also ran. Third race, four and one-half furlongs. Corn Cob, 115 (Donnelly) even money. Frank R. Harr, 112 (Flynn), 2 to 1. Lillipute, 115 (Champ), 6 to 1. Time, 0:57. Fullspeed and Junk also ran. Fourth race, four and one-half furlongs. A. B. Dade, 115 (Futton), 3 to 5. Pinwater, 112 (Flynn), 2 to 1. The Mantana, 110 (Donnelly), 4 to 1. Time, 0:57. Humorest also ran. Fifth race, one and one-sixteenth miles, hurdle race. 120 (Rigby), even money. Torstenston, 120 (Meredith), 2 to 1. Tampa, 140 (Baker), 3 to 2. Time, 1:09. The amusements committee takes this opportunity of thanking the many wheelmen who so generously donated their services as officials and assisted in making the bicycle racing the most attractive feature of the celebration of Labor Day. Among these were the following: Handicapper and Referee Will R. Stevenson, Starter E. J. State, Judges H. V. Arkle, Jason C. Stamp and Allan B. Smith, Timer W. J. Lukens, Checkers A. L. Sawtelle, T. T. Wetzel, Edward Vase and Frank Wheat; also to Mr. Hennig, of the Bicycle Cleaning company, for the use of his storeroom as a dressing apartment, and to others. Their services are second only to those of the racing men themselves, who, for modest prizes, risk life and limb in their devotion to the cycling sport—the purest American can boast of.

TRADES ASSEMBLY MEETS

And in a Short Session Transacts Routine Business.

The Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly met yesterday afternoon in regular session with President Riley in the chair. There was a large attendance of delegates. The session was very short. The arbitration committee reported having met twice to act on the complaint of Local Union No. 689, expressmen and drivers, regarding the cutting of prices by a member of the union. The committee believed that prices would be restored. The committee's report was received. Mr. Williams, one of the Amalgamated Association delegates, requested the use of the assembly hall on the evening of October 3, for a general meeting of the Amalgamated labor of Wheeling and neighboring towns, when the national officers of the association are to be here and address the local iron, steel and tin workers. The assembly adjourned at 3 o'clock.

LABOR DAY COMMITTEE.

A Session of the Committee Held on Sunday Afternoon.

There was a meeting of the general committee on Labor Day after the meeting of the assembly.

The sub-committees that had charge of the various features of the celebration made partial reports. Bills from several of the committees were presented and ordered paid, but a number are yet outstanding, and until all the bills are paid the profits of the celebration will not be known.

It was reported that the attendance was over 6,000, and over 1,200 paid for admission to the grand stand. Last year's attendance was not so large, and never before has there been so large a grand stand patronage. This is a vindication of the wisdom of the amusement committee in providing such an attractive programme of sports.

The following numbers of grand stand tickets draw prizes, which can be had of John Donahue at 182 Seventeenth street:

- No. 1—Barrel of flour. No. 100—Chair. No. 500—Stand. No. 1,000—Box of cigars. No. 1,500—Water set. No. 2,000—Lamp. No. 10—Pickles jar. The committee adjourned to meet again next Sunday afternoon.

THE STATE FAIR AND WOMAN.

She is not Neglected—Where her Work will be Seen.

Some may think the handiwork of the busy housewife and of the woman who is expert in the arts that properly are her own, have no recognized position among the departmental exhibits of the state fair association. There is no more interesting line of exhibits to be seen at the exposition than that made up of articles classed under the head of "Ladies' textile and art department." Here may be found this year all sorts of fancy needle work, hundreds of samples of household fabrics and scores on scores of dainty little articles that make the home attractive and clear dark corners of their dullness.

The textile and art department is under the skillful direction of Miss Annie Keyman and a committee of well known ladies. Entries for the department close September 3. They open September 1, and the superintendent will be on the grounds, Thursday, Friday and Saturday to receive the goods sent for exhibition. There is one inexorable rule that will prevent much misapprehension. No article that has taken premiums at previous fairs will be entered, and in the textile department all articles intended as exhibits must have been made within the previous year. All imported articles are barred. In the department will be hundreds of exhibits of lace, needle work, household ornaments, paper work, crocheted work and in fact everything that can possibly be made by the busy fingers of the careful needlewoman. The department will enjoy many new features this year.

AMUSEMENTS.

The Broadway Burlesquers, direct from New York City, will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House, three nights and Saturday matinee, commencing next Thursday evening. The show is first class in every respect and has many well known and popular vaudeville and burlesque artists and it has the vim and humor about it that means success. The New York World says:

The Meeker-Baker trio opened the show, and they combined fun and agility very pleasantly. Following them the Mitchell Sisters gave a pleasing act. Mathews & Harris next unfolded the skit, "Caught Napping," and then John Kernell, talking to the audience in his well known style, created roars of laughter. As Lottie Gilson, who came next, stepped on the stage, the house at once broke into a roar of applause. She gave her most cordial greeting, and her singing was thoroughly appreciated. Finally, Lewis closed the olio and the people seemed to agree that they were certainly "Two Hot Tomatoes." The Burlesque, "A Trip to Wicked Monte Carlo," finished the performance with a pleasing and bewildering mixture of beauty and color. The female contingent includes Marie Richmond, Tillie Cohen, Helen York, Florence Gardner, Floeste Madison, May Powers, Marie St. Clair, Mamie Howe, Nina Howard, Lizzie Harvey, Amy Lancaster and others.
