High Art.

We are showing a fine line of Ladies' Cincinnati-made Shoes, at $1.25, which cannot be beat in the city.

Fortunes

are often made by a plucky adherence to a principle. The merchant wins who gives his customers a better shoe for $1.25 than does his competitors.

We have a shoe, a Cincinnati make, of fine Chromo Tanned Dongola, which has the style and quality required for this purpose.

Bragging Don't Hurt.

providing you have the stuff to back it up. Just compare our $1.75, $2.00, $2.25, $2.50 and $3.00 Men's Shoes. Made in all colors of Titan Calf, Zula Calf, Saxon Calf and Storm Calf. At this price this line has no equal.

Our Challenge To Any Competitor.

We hereby challenge any competitor of shoes to produce Men's Congress or Lace Shoes for $1.50 equal to ours in style, fit, finish and wearing qualities, as the Klondike Shoe Store.

Do not buy a $1.50 Shoe until you see our line.

Boys' and Youths' Box Calf and hundreds of other styles at a remarkably low price.

Misses' and Children's—Great assortment in all colors will be sold this week only at the Klondike Shoe Store at 60c on the dollar from its original value.

A big line of Men's and Boys' Boots will also be sold at the Klondike Shoe Store below market value.

Before you buy shoes always come to the Klondike, 1135 Market street.

Store open every evening until 9 o'clock.

THREE THOUSAND

People Thronged the Marshall County Fair Grounds and

ENJOYED THE FAIR HUGELY

YESTERDAY—AWARDS WERE MADE IN SOME OF THE DEPARTMENTS, AND THE OTHERS WILL BE ANNOUNCED IN TO-MORROW'S INTELLIGENCER. THREE GOOD HORSE RACES WERE ON THE PROGRAMME. TWO RACES THIS AFTERNOON.

Nearly three thousand people attended the fair at Moundsville yesterday. Many people were on the grounds early in the morning and by noon there were more people on the grounds than had ever been there before. In the afternoon the hack line, of six or eight hacks, could not carry the people wanting to go over from the city. When the races commenced at 1:30 the grand stand was nearly filled, but when the second heat in the first race started, the stand was filled and the fences on either side of the grand stand were filled with people half way round the track, intent upon seeing the races.

Nearly all the prizes were awarded yesterday, and the few remaining will be awarded the first thing this morning.

The exhibits in the different departments are first class and all the judges speak in the highest terms of praise of all the exhibits, and in some cases had no little difficulty in determining which is best. The prizes in the children's department and in the department of ornamental needlework have been awarded and are as follows:

CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT.

Pencil drawing, George Stultz; china painting, Tensi Ath; penmanship, Elsie Schwab; linen embroidery, Alice Lynch; lamp mat, Elise Oldham; most useful household article—hammer, Harry Stewart.

ORNAMENTAL NEEDLE WORK.

Carriage afghan, Mrs. Frank Blake; centre piece, Miss Carrie Cockayne and Mrs. C. C. Newman; Houston embroidery, Ella McFadden; table cover embroidery, Mrs. Hooton; handkerchief case, Mrs. Henry Gehring; pictures in outline, James Walton, (deceased); photo frame embroidered, Miss Halpin; sofa pillow embroidered, Mrs. W. M. Riggs; taste and skill in hand-work embroidery, Mrs. Mallory; table cloth, drawn work, Mrs. C. C. Newman; lunch cloth, drawn work, Mrs. Mallory; napkins, drawn work, Mrs. W. D. Dunn; sofa pillow, embroidered, Society Episcopal church; Roman or cut work, Mrs. Mallory; hemstitching, Dick Knox; point lace, Miss Dora Newman.

The other prizes wil be given in tomorrow's Intelligencer.

The Middlebourne brass band is furnishing the music and everyone on the ground was charmed with the sweet strains of melody produced by the musicians.

Yesterday was children's day, and all the school children in the town were on the ground. There was no school in the afternoon and the association admitted the children for ten cents, which made it possible for all to attend, and they thoroughly enjoyed themselves.

The usual number of fakirs are on the ground, and, as usual, there were people to be taken in. The association, however, excluded the most objectionable, and some have been working their games outside the grounds.

The weather so far being everything anybody could wish, the track has been in excellent condition and the races have been interesting. Three races came off yesterday, the 2:22 trot, purse $200; the 2:40 pace, purse $125, and the 2:40 trot, purse $125. Good time was made in each race, and if it hadn't been for the time lost in starting some of the heats and the accidents that occurred to Trixie W. in the first race, and Belle B. in the second, both causing some delay, the crowd would have had nothing about which to complain.

In the second heat of the 2:22 trot, Trixie W. caught her left front foot above the hoof with her hind shoe, completely severing the large tendon and badly injuring the other. The accident happened just as she was nearing the end of the first quarter of the second heat. She was immediately removed from the ground and a veterinary surgeon telephoned for at Wheeling. Experienced horsemen on the ground say she will never be able to go on the track again.

Belle B. was slightly lamed in the first heat of the 2:40 pace and was drawn from the race.

THE 2:22 TROT.

Five horses started in this race and four finished, Trixie W. being crippled and withdrawn in the second heat, as stated above. The race was between Billy G., Trixie W. and Wilquette in the lead and Cogent and Dan Wilkes making a tight race for fourth place. The first heat closed in the order named. Time, 2:25¼.

Second heat—A nice start and Billy G. took the lead, pushed hard by Trixie W. until the latter was crippled, when the race for first place was between Billy G. and Wilquette. The former proved the speedier and came under the wire first, followed close by Wilquette, with Cogent and Dan Wilkes taking third and fourth places. Time, 2:27½.

Third heat—Was between Billy G and Wilquette in the lead and Cogent and Dan Wilkes some distance in the rear, being driven hard for third place. Wilquette was pushed hard on the home stretch, but Billy G. was an easy winner of the heat and race in three straight heats. Time, 2:26¼.

Summary:

Cogent, br.s., by Rumor, Riverside Stock Farm, Weston, W. Va., (Conley)	4	3	4
Billy G., b.g., Ray & Waddle, Wheeling, (Waddle)	1	1	1
Wilquette, b.s., by Wilton, L. O. Kell, Ravenswood, W. Va., (Kell)	3	2	2
Dan Wilkes, b.g., by Belmont Wilkes, A. T. Sweeney, Wheeling (Sweeney)	2	4	3
Trixie W., ch.m., by Improve, W. C. Willis, Moundsville, (Willis)	3	dr.

Time, 2:25¼; 2:27½; 2:26¼.

THE 2:40 PACE.

Five horses entered the race and four finished, Belle B. laming in first heat and drawn. Belle B. and P. B. Conn were the most in evidence in this race, Elmer D. pushing very close and taking second place in the second heat. This was perhaps the most interesting race of the day. The hard driving for place and the evenness of the speed of the horses pleased the people. The race throughout was between the three horses named, Valid not being in it from the start. Billy Green got first money, P. B. Conn second, Elmer D. third, with Valid fourth in every heat.

Elmer D., b.g., G. W. Grimes	3	2	3
Valid, b.g., W. C. Dyre	4	4	4
Belle B., b.m., B. F. Ellason	5	dr.
Billy Green, jr., G. B. Griesinger	1	1	1
P. B. Conn, ch.s., C. B. Buchanon	2	3	2

Time, 2:29¼; 2:29½; 2:29½.

THE 2:40 TROT.

When this race was called it was late in the evening and many people left before it was over. Five horses entered the race. Improve took the lead soon after the start and kept it throughout the race, but not without an effort, for Elliott Stone was pushing close, followed at no great distance by Jack Cook, who was pushed past Elliott Stone in the third and last heat and took second place. The race throughout was closely contested and interesting.

Elliott Stone, s.g., L. O. Kell	2	2	2
Improve, ch.s., J. B. Wiseman	1	4	1
Lady Dudley, br. m.	4	4	4
Jack Cook, g.s., W. C. Dyer	3	3	3
Talcott, B. L. Hammond	5	5	5

Time, 2:25¼; 2:25¼; 2:24¼.

The Intelligencer's meagre story of the first day of the fair was through the failure of the reporter's manuscript to arrive in time for publication.

TO-DAY'S RACES.

To-day is the last day of the fair, and a large crowd is expected. Two good races are on the programme, with the following entries:

2:20 pace, purse $200—Miss Keene, b. m., Henry Bergerman, Salem, Ohio; King Hal, b. s., C. B. Wright, Canal Dover, Ohio; Joe Shafer, blk. g., Ray & Waddle, Wheeling; Laura D., br. m., W. C. Dyer, Roanoke, Va.; Col. Day, ch. g., J. C. Davisson, Clarksburg; Buffalo Bill, b. g., W. A. Grandstaff, Moundsville, Billy Green, Jr., b. g., B. Griesinger, Steubenville, Ohio; Josephine Preston, b. m., C. L. Skinner, Fairmont; Walter B., ch. g., J. R. Curry, Marietta, O.; Kilbuck Rose, spt. m., R. S. Rolan, Noles Run, Ohio.

2:30 trot, purse $150—Improve, c. s., J. B. Wiseman, Fairmont; Khalid, c. g., A. D. Parr, Clarksburg; Regy, b. m., Riverside Stock Farm, Weston, Mary D., b. m., George Dyer, Roanoke, Va.; Hilpa, blk. m., George Dyer, Roanoke, Va.; Brookliffe, b. s., Harry McConnor, Salem, Ohio; Queen Lil, b. m., Jerry Buckley, Marietta; Jim Spanker, br. g., W. W. Hayman, Ravenswood; Meddow Rue, blk. g., John M. McQuigg, Pomeroy, Ohio.

One half mile running race, purse $50.

AT WEST ALEXANDER

The First Day of the Fair Attracted a Large Attendance.

The West Alexander fair was given its initial opening yesterday. A large crowd of spectators was present and the display of exhibits was creditable to a more pretentious association. The fair closes to-day, and a very big crowd is certain to be on hand. The West Alexander fair starts out as a winner.

The space for exhibits is inadequate, and the rush is much greater than the directors figured on. In all departments the visitor is struck at the fine quality of the displays made. The sheep, cattle, etc., are all of a high grade, and Brooke, Ohio and Marshall counties are well represented, in addition to Washington county, Pa.

AMUSEMENTS.

There can be no mistake as to the success of Willie Collier in "The Man From Mexico," in compassing the chief end of farce to make laughter. Decidedly, "it is to laugh," at this adaption from the French of Gonginet and Bisson, which is announced for presentation in this city, at the Opera House tonight. When the farce was originally produced at Hoyt's Theatre, New York, where it ran for months, H. A. Du Souchet, its author, was congratulated on scoring another success on the heels of his "My Friend from India." If he cannot claim the same degree of originality, or if "The Man from Mexico" presents less ingenious and novel situations than the earlier one, it is no less undeniably a laughter compelling production. A hint at the funny complications the author involves his characters in, is given by the mere statement that the husband who cannot elude the law after a hilarious escapade, tells his wife that he is going to Mexico to cover his absence of thirty days from society which is the precise penalty of his outbreak. The second of the three acts is laid in the jail warden's office, where the convicted Fitzhugh is leading a ludicrously miserable existence, by retirement from his domestic comforts. It is managed that a number of friends shall discover his predicament to increase the fun at his expense. Finally to keep up his pretense to his wife, he returns at the expiration of his sentence, arrayed in a gorgeous Mexican native dress, and, fortified with a Spanish and English conversation book. Mr. Collier makes a good deal of the delinquent husband's part, and Louise Allen, who has achieved so much success in the role of the wife, dances prettily a Spanish fandango, which the husband does his best to show his familiarity in, to the delight of the spectators.

Cameron.

Speaking of Cameron and her excellent company, which appear at the Opera House, Friday, the Altoona (Pa.) Mirror of August 25, says: "Cameron," the great American soprano, and her strong supporting company, gave a rare musical entertainment at the Eleventh Avenue opera house last evening, which delighted all the music-loving people in attendance. Her voice is an exceptional one and its superior has never been heard in this city. Violinist Charles Higgins, was encored repeatedly, as was C. Herbert Kerr, the pianist; Daisy Kerr King, contralto, and Inez De Costa, accompanist. The company was undoubtedly one of the best musical organizations that has ever visited Altoona.

Washburn's Minstrels.

Of Washburn's Big Double Minstrels, which Manager Feinler has booked as the attraction at the Grand for two nights and a matinee, beginning to-morrow evening, the Ohio State Journal of recent date, says: "The company is an amalgamation of whites and blacks, the whole including nearly fifty people. It is one of the old organizations and has established a good reputation for variety and special features in this line of entertainment. Among the people are Lew Benedict, Horner, the Knox brothers, Joe Lewis, Weaver and Platt, George Tichner and others well known to the faithful."

A Musical Treat.

Manager Charles A. Feinler has booked the celebrated Knoll & McNeil musical novelty company as the attraction at the Grand the first half of next week. The following is taken from the Sun-Critic, of St. Louis: A. H. Knoll, the celebrated cornet virtuoso, is the equal if not the superior, of the great Levy. He handles his instrument with grace and perfect ease. He was recalled time and again, and responded to several encores every night. The lovers of music should not miss the opoprtunity to witness this great player. His execution of "A Night in Venice," (one of his own arrangements) and "Anine Laurie," was simply grand. He is as far superior to Liberati as the Arsenal Band is to the coon bands that parade the street occasionally.

DANGEROUS SURGERY.

Death Follows the Surgeon's Knife—Not the Surgeon's Fault, of Course, he Can't Help It—Ion Cas—Pyramid Pile Cure Cures Piles Quickly, Painlessly, Without Danger.

People go along for years suffering with piles. Then try this, and that and the other thing; from carrying a buckeye to getting treatment from a physician. They obtain temporary relief, maybe, but they are never quite cured. A little strain in lifting, excessive fatigue, a little constipation or a little diarrhoea, and the piles come back.

They don't seem to amount to much, but they banish sleep and appetite. No position is comfortable. There is intense local pain and that dreadful feeling of weight in the perineum.

Maybe in the early stages some of the many salves on sale will afford temporary relief. If the case is of long standing there is only one speedy and sure remedy. Even in light cases it is Pyramid Pile Cure. Even in light cases it is the safest thing to use. Other applications may cure and may not. Pyramid Cure is always certain, always reliable and always brings comfort at once. Its prompt use saves months of severe suffering. In extreme cases it will save surgical operations and their attendant dangers and discomforts.

It is better than the knife. Will cure easier, quicker and safer. Thousands have used it. Thousands have been cured by it.

The cost is trifling compared with what it does. The price is 50 cents. Most anybody would gladly pay ten dollars to be rid of piles.

Druggists sell Pyramid Pile Cure. If yours hasn't it he will get it from the Pyramid Pile Drug Co., of Marshall, Mich. (sole manufacturers).

HE'S PROBABLY INSANE.

Mr. Weintzel, living with his three daughters and one son, about seven miles west of Bridgeport, on Wheeling creek, has been acting strangely for some time, and Tuesday was arrested by the sheriff of Belmont county, and confined on a charge of lunacy. The father has frequently become violent recently, and drove his children from home. They would go to neighbors, and return when his mood had changed. But on the day mentioned he procured a sharp razor, and started to murder the family. Fortunately they all escaped. Seeing his condition was such as to warant it, they informed the sheriff, who arrested him. He will be taken before the proper authority, and no doubt be adjudged insane.

BOYS' CLOTHING—D. GUNDLING & CO.

Boys' Clothing Once More.

There are two ways to make Children's Clothes—one is to make them so's they'll wear, and the other is to make them so's they'll wear out. The kind that wear are made to bring a customer back again. The kind that wear out are made to make a big profit on the first time a customer comes, for fear he'll never come back again. You can judge the kind of clothes we sell for boys by the way your neighbors talk. Whenever you see a small boy hanging from a nail on a roof or from a limb of a tree by his coat or pants—his folks buy his clothes here. It takes a step-ladder or a step-mother to take down a boy who wears Clothes from "The Star."
