

NOW WE'RE POSTED

And Know that the Democrats have no Faith in the Ability of their Candidates

FOR CONGRESS—CHAIRMAN POST DECLINES TO ALLOW MR. BLAIR TO MEET CAPTAIN DOVENER IN JOINT DEBATE AT BENWOOD TO-MORROW NIGHT—IT'S A BACK-OWN THAT CANNOT BUT MAKE THE AVERAGE DEMOCRAT FEEL DISGUSTED.

The Democrats of Benwood who hoped their congressional chairman and candidate would accept the challenge fired at them for a joint debate on the issues of the campaign, between Captain Dovenor and Mr. Blair, on Saturday night, are doomed to disappointment. Their congressional chairman and candidate are afraid of the result of such a meeting. Their fears find expression in a declaration of the formal challenge issued yesterday by Chairman Smith, of the Republican congressional committee. And Mr. Post declines in the face of the evident fact that his action will place the Democratic party of Benwood and Marshall county—and, in fact, the party throughout the district—in a defensive attitude which is particularly not comfortable to Democrats of the kind nurtured in Benwood. But it was a choice between two evils; either a slaughter in a joint debate or the placing of his candidate and party at a disadvantage by declining the Republican proposition for a fair and open joint discussion.

It will be remembered the Intelligencer first suggested the joint discussion early in the week. This resulted in a challenge being sent by the chairman of the Benwood Republican committee to the Democratic chairman, Joe Mahood. The latter, it is said, wanted to accept, but of course had to turn the matter over to Congressional Chairman Post, who took the position that he had not been challenged regularly, and that he would not be bound to accept the challenge. Learning of this, Chairman S. G. Smith, of the Republican committee, yesterday sent the following challenge to Mr. Post:

DEAR SIR:—As your candidate, Mr. J. W. Blair, and Captain Dovenor are billed to speak at Benwood Saturday evening, the 29th inst., we have had many requests from the workers in the mills and the citizens of Benwood to extend to Mr. Blair, through you an invitation to jointly discuss with Captain Dovenor the issues of this campaign at that time. We have secured Colonel Mahood's hall for the purpose, and you have not succeeded in engaging a larger hall we will be glad to have you meet there with us. As it has been already stated that we were not asked in our former invitation to you to arrange for joint discussions, we wish to extend the present one, which we consider is made under such circumstances as will preclude the possibility of such a construction in this instance.

Will you kindly favor us with an early reply, that we may complete our arrangements. Yours truly, S. G. SMITH, Chairman Democratic Congressional Committee, First District, West Virginia.

The challenge was sent to Wellsburg, where Mr. Post had accompanied Mr. Blair. At 7 o'clock no answer had been received, and the Intelligencer sent the following telegram to Mr. Post:

Hon. M. D. Post, Wellsburg, W. Va. Will you kindly give quick your action on challenge sent by Chairman S. G. Smith to Benwood Saturday? INTELLIGENCER.

At 8 o'clock the following reply was received: WELLSBURG, Oct. 27, Intelligencer, Wheeling. "As old John Randolph used to reply, 'This is a question, and I never answer questions.'" MELVILLE D. POST.

This was a notable instance when it was inconvenient to answer a question, as will be seen from a perusal of the following reply, received by Chairman Smith from Chairman Post last night: WHEELING, W. Va., Oct. 27, 1898. Hon. S. G. Smith, Chairman. SIR:—Your note of this date received. The motives that prompt you in suggesting a joint discussion at Benwood are well understood. All arrangements for the Democratic meeting at the Benwood City Hotel are being made, and will not be changed. Yours truly, M. D. POST, Chairman.

Speaking of the matter, Chairman Smith said last night: "One of my motives, which Mr. Post desires to learn, was to hear Mr. Blair explain how it is that the mill men of Benwood worked one day a week and loafed five while the Wilson-Gorman tariff act was in operation; also to explain to the satisfaction of the Democrats of Benwood how it is that under the Dingley tariff act there are not enough men in Benwood to work the mills to the extent of keeping up with the demand for their product; also, to have a full, fair and free discussion of the issues of the present campaign; also, to show the entire falsity of the Democratic organ's claim that Captain Blair in joint debate. Is it not in order now, to inquire of Mr. Post his real reason for declining our offer?"

Is it surprising that Benwood Democrats in particular, and First district Democrats in general, are disgusted?

A FINE MEETING Held by Triadelphia District Republicans at Seibert's Garden last night—Mr. Curtis Arouned Kuchthausman.

One of the best meetings ever held in the pavilion at Seibert's Garden, was held by Triadelphia district Republicans last night. There was enthusiasm to burn, though the Register, as usual, will have "frost" in this morning's account of the rally. Speeches were made by Hon. H. W. Harmer, of Clarksburg; Mr. M. H. Willis, of Glenview; Hon. W. H. C. Curtis, of West Liberty; Messrs. Harry W. McLure and C. H. Henning, of this city, and Mr. John Arbens, Jr., of Pleasant Valley.

Seibert's pavilion is an ideal place for meetings, and it was decorated in great shape last night by Colonel "Charley" Seibert. The roaring fire in a large stove was quite inviting on a chilly night, and the meeting was a fine one in all respects. It was called to order by Mr. Fred C. Bado, Republican committeeman for Triadelphia district, and County Clerk Richard Robertson was voted to the chair.

The conduct of the war which appears to furnish a straw for the drowning Democrats to grasp at, was given due attention by all the speakers, and Republicans are only too willing to discuss it, for as Mr. Willis inquired, "Do Democrats intend to charge the Republicans with mismanagement of the war, and also give the Republicans the stories as well. But, the speakers insisted, the war was American, not Republican or Democratic."

Whitaker, and the entire Republican ticket, putting in some good ticks for John C. McCurdy, candidate for commissioner for Triadelphia district. The speech of the evening was made by Mr. Curtis, of Liberty district, and it was well received, indeed. Mr. Curtis said that the Democratic speakers at Wednesday night's meeting at the Opera House claimed there was but one issue—the war. They said it had been mismanaged and that the war might make America cut losses from past traditions. Mr. Curtis said that farmers and men of all vocations found a time when to work with implements or tools of a former period left them in the race, and America's time to depart some from old moorings had come and it was imperative, in view of the war, that she should.

But as to mismanagement of the war, Mr. Curtis said such a question should never have been raised for political capital, and speaking along this line he became particularly eloquent. His hearers were thrilled at his word-paintings of the glorious achievements at Manila and Santiago, and the pavilion rafters rang at intervals with enthusiastic applause. Those who bawl that the war was mismanaged, said the West Liberty orator, were not the who answered the call in the "sixties" or in the spring of '83. The howlers were not the soldiers who wore the blue or gray, nor were they the sons of the civil war veterans, who stood shoulder to shoulder in '88 cementing the ties broken by their sires when they left homes to march beneath the stars and stripes or follow the fortunes of the Confederacy. Grand old "Joe" Wheeler? Not Fitzhugh Lee? Nor any other soldier is it who blames the government for the hardships of the Spanish war—hardships less than were incurred in any struggle in the world's history when the glories were so great. Mr. Curtis was tendered an ovation when he concluded his magnificent address. He was followed by Circuit Court Clerk Henning, who urged the getting out of every vote in Triadelphia district on November 8. He made a good argument for the election of John C. McCurdy. Last night's meeting was productive of good for Republican success in the district.

THE ELKINS MEETING.

The Senator to Address the Big Meeting of the Campaign To-night at Pythian Castle—Mr. Joseph C. Brady has been Chosen to Preside.

What will possibly be the banner Republican meeting of the campaign in this county is to be held this evening in Pythian castle, South Side, and the principal speakers will be West Virginia's Republican United States senator, Hon. Stephen B. Elkins, and Hon. C. L. Weems, of Belmont county, Ohio. It was desired to hold this meeting up town, but as attractions were booked for both theatres, the county committee did the best thing possible by securing Pythian castle, a large and well heated hall, that will hold as large an audience as either of the theatres. Benwood is a place up town people right in front of the hall in five minutes.

The meeting will be called to order by County Chairman Will H. Hornish, who will introduce as chairman, Hon. Joseph C. Brady, of Triadelphia district. The following vice presidents will occupy seats on the stage:

- Vice Presidents: Wm. F. Elvbar, Louis Hockheimer, Frank Bowers, Chas. J. Rawlings, Jos. Fresse, James H. Lancaster, Fred Williams, Dr. D. B. Beet, C. W. Franzheim, Henry Schuchert, Frank G. Caldwell, Chas. M. Oliver, Albert Redman, Frank Starn, Chas. Dannenberg, Jos. Speidel, C. E. Rankin, Jos. C. Brady, Dr. S. L. Jepson, B. F. Caldwell, Capt. W. H. Travis, Chas. Danner, Wm. Stifel, H. W. Schrebe, Henry Schuchlach, Dr. A. Wingerter, Dr. B. H. Stillard, Dr. H. H. Harrison, Wm. Ashworth, G. I. Crum, Fred Meyers, Jr., John K. List, Wm. McK. Day, John W. Boy, Wm. Knoke, Frank Wright, Henry F. Jones, H. D. Hornish, Wm. Jones, Robt. J. McCulley, C. F. Ulrich, H. H. Huddle, George Bell, C. A. Robinson, A. C. Reed, Wm. Beck, J. G. Dudley, Rev. Wm. Eizler, Dr. Otto Lasko, David Gutman, Wm. Schwartz, Wm. Graham, H. W. McConnell, J. C. Adams, John E. Clator, Prof. H. Schockey.

Senator Elkins' speech will be largely devoted to a review of what has been accomplished by the administration of President McKinley, including tariff legislation, the conduct of the war, the improvement in the condition of industries and farmers, etc., and should not be missed.

THE BENWOOD MEETING

Will be Addressed by Congressman Dovenor and Governor Atkinson.

Indications point to a rousing meeting of Benwood Republicans, at the Marshall county mill town to-morrow night. The Democrats hold a meeting also, having flunked out of the joint debate proposition.

The speakers at the Republican meeting will be Congressman Dovenor and Governor Atkinson, and the meeting will be held at Dolan's hall. The Republican committee will probably engage a brass band for the occasion, and the hall will seat a large crowd. The back down "Jack" Blair made through his managers, and the James excused offered for it, have conspired to infuse added interest in the meeting. The meeting is called for 7:30.

The list of vice presidents selected yesterday is as follows: Josiah Sinclair, August Schuch, John P. James, John W. Manley, Paul Riedel, Wm. Whitman, Harry Stewart, Robert Coates, John W. Leach, J. L. McMechean, John Newton, Isaiah Stevens, Edw. Newton, Sr., Wm. A. Lacey, G. H. Chesberty, Wm. Hall, Thos. P. Garrett, John Lubic, Mayor Thos. Shep-O. P. Tarey, Wm. J. Riddle, Dr. M. A. Dowler, J. T. Roseberry, James Gibb, G. H. Seabright, Paul Riedel, Samuel Welch.

Mr. Baird's Reply. James Baird, one of the Democratic candidates for house of delegates, was the only legislative candidate in the county who did not reply to the questions sent out recently by the Ohio Valley Trades & Labor Assembly, as to their position on labor matters. The replies of the others were published Monday morning. Mr. Baird's reply was printed in Tuesday's Register. A copy was sent to this paper by Mr. Baird, but was not received until after its appearance in the Democratic organ, so it is not necessary to print it this morning.

CONSULTING A WOMAN.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Inspires Confidence and Hope.

Examination by a male physician is a hard trial to a delicately organized woman.

She puts it off as long as she dare, and is only driven to it by fear of cancer, polypus, or some dreadful ail.

Most frequently such a woman leaves a physician's office where she has undergone a critical examination with an impression, more or less, of discouragement.

This condition of the mind destroys the effect of advice; and she grows worse rather than better.

In consulting Mrs. Pinkham no hesitation need be felt, the story is told to a woman and is wholly confidential. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., she offers sick women her advice without charge.

Her intimate knowledge of women's troubles makes her letter of advice a wellspring of hope, and her wide experience and skill point the way to health.

"I suffered with ovarian trouble for seven years, and no doctor knew what was the matter with me. I had spells which would last for two days or more. I thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken seven bottles of it, and am entirely cured."—MRS. JOHN FOREMAN, 28 N. Woodberry Ave., Baltimore, Md.

The above letter from Mrs. Foreman is only one of thousands.

THIS IS INTERESTING.

Mr. McLaughlin Enters Suit Against a Fellow Democratic Worker who Assisted in Nominating Mr. Hissom for the Legislature.

In Wednesday's Intelligencer appeared a story giving an account of the excited conversation held on Chapline street by J. R. Hissom, one of the Democratic candidates for the house of delegates, and M. L. McLaughlin, a lawyer, who had interested himself in securing Hissom's nomination at the hands of the county Democratic convention. In Thursday's paper Mr. McLaughlin's denial of the truth of the story was given space.

Developments that came out yesterday show that the story as published in this paper was substantially correct. It is learned that Attorney J. E. W. McCulley, on behalf of M. L. McLaughlin, has instituted a civil suit in the court of Justice of the Peace Dunning, by which he seeks to recover from another Democratic worker the sum of $35.

which Mr. McCulley says McLaughlin alleges was loaned to the worker as an inducement for the latter to lend his support to the movement to nominate Mr. Hissom for the legislature.

This suit was instituted after the excited conversation held by Hissom and McLaughlin on Monday afternoon. In view of threatening to sue Hissom, it is now learned that McLaughlin told friends after the Intelligencer publication of Wednesday that he had said to Hissom that he would sue this other worker for the money loaned unless Hissom made it good. This Hissom refused to consider—consequently the suit. In the face of this statement to friends, McLaughlin had the nerve to call at the Intelligencer office and allege that the conversation reported in this paper was in relation to certain oil litigation that he was handling for Hissom. In fact, he told these friends that he would impose such a story upon the Intelligencer.

Mr. McLaughlin furnished the Register with a copy of his statement, and it appeared in that sheet yesterday morning, under the headline, "A Typical Falsehood," the headline, of course, referring to the Intelligencer's story, and not to Mr. McLaughlin's statement. Will the Register, in the light of yesterday's developments, reiterate that the story was false?

Supper was served at midnight by the Arion's caterer, after which the hall was cleared for dancing. The Newport march, a new feature, was nicely executed. It was led by Messrs. Aug. C. Schneider and Ed. H. Vaas, of the dancing committee. Other members of the committee were: Messrs. Jacques Front, Carl Lang, Harry Ritter, Louis Laue, Victor Weiss and Will Loeffler.

Throughout the evening there were games of chess, dominoes, etc., all of which were played with interest and the function in all details was very successful.

THE KING'S DAUGHTERS

Of the Fourth Street Church Will Give a Social This Evening.

This evening at the Fourth Street M. E. church, the King's Daughters circle of this church, will give a social and concert, between the hours of 7:30 and 10. SOCIETY.

The leading society event of the season in St. Clairsville, was the marriage yesterday of Dr. John W. Shaffer, of Sandusky, Ohio, and Miss Bertha E. Hunt, only daughter of Colonel and Mrs. W. A. Hunt. The wedding was a home affair and was witnessed by about 100 invited guests. Exactly at noon the strains of the wedding march announced the approach of the bridal party, and as the clock ceased striking the hour the ceremony was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Secust, of the M. E. church.

The attendants were Misses Lillian Lewis and Edna Judkins, of Barnesville, Ohio; Miss Ida Updegraff, of Wheeling; Misses Nellie Jepson, Bess Hewatson and Ina Tallman, of St. Clairsville, and Messrs. Harrison Troll, John P. Fraser, Clyde Darrah, Albert Kenyon and W. T. Hewatson, of St. Clairsville, and Van Dorn Sutton, of Wheeling.

After the ceremony the guests sat down to an elegant wedding breakfast. Dr. and Mrs. Shaffer left on the 2:40 train for their future home in Sandusky, Ohio.

Dr. and Mrs. Shaffer are both graduates of the Ohio Medical University, and it was there the attachment was formed that terminated to-day in marriage. The bride is widely known as one of St. Clairsville's fairest daughters.

The King's Daughters of the Second Presbyterian church will give a Halloween party, Monday evening, at the church, and it will prove enjoyable for all who attend.

Yesterday evening, at the home of the groom, on Front street, Island, occurred the wedding in which Mr. Henry M. Russell and Mrs. Annie Heiskell Burke were the principals. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. D. A. Cunningham, D. D., pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was witnessed by a small number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Russell. Both are well known people, and have the hearty congratulations of their many friends.

The Arion's opening of the season of 1898-'99 last night was exceptionally good from every view-point, and was attended by nearly the entire membership of the society and their family friends. The society's hall, at the corner of Twentieth and Main streets, has recently been painted and decorated throughout, and the effect was enhanced by profuse displays of flowers and brilliant illuminations.

The opening was marked by an excellent concert, followed by dancing. The concert programme contained selections by the Opera House orchestra and the Arion's singing section, under the direction of Prof. H. M. Schockey. The soloists were: Vocal, Mrs. Flora Williams and Mr. S. Emerson; instrumental, Misses Amanda and Ida Spell. The duet for soprano and tenor, "Em-

A GENUINE CAKE WALK

Last Night and This Morning That Amused Many People.

There was a cake walk of the genuine character at the Democratic hall, South Main street, last night. It was a "warm baby." Eight couples entered the contest "to' dat cake," and they really gave a splendid exhibition, and put in the shade many cake walkers in colored minstrel companies. There were many white people in the large audience and they enjoyed the affair hugely.

The cake walk was late in starting, it being after midnight when the master of ceremonies cried out: "Lead on Macduff." Then it was that the crowd on the benches, lining the four walls, held their breath. Out stepped the leader, came in hand, and his first evolution proved him a "peach." The leader was Sam Ramsey, who hustles unwashed linen for the Wheeling Laundry. Sam was the star attraction. He was graceful as a fawn, and he "cut the corners" in great style.

He led the couples out from the bunch one at a time, and when they had circled the room they were led to their original station, while the next in line proceeded to do the grand. After all had been given a whirl, the judges cut the number down to three couples, as follows: Frank Shank and Mrs. Roy; Sam Lanay and Miss Terry; Mr. Jackson and Miss Lucy Brown.

The trio were put through a difficult test, and the contest narrowed down to two couples—Mr. Shank and lady, and

WHEELING IN 1900.

The National Croatian Society to Meet in This City.

The Wheeling and Benwood delegates to the meeting of the National Croatian society, which met in Chicago from October 17th to the 25th, have returned home and are loud in their praises of the treatment they received. The delegates were: John Lubic, Joseph Lubic and Joseph Balirk, of Benwood, and Michael Agnic, of Wheeling.

A very successful meeting was held, and Wheeling was chosen as the meeting place in October, 1900. Mr. John Lubic was re-elected president for the fifth successive term, which is a tribute to his abilities. His son, Joseph Lubic, former financial secretary, was elected to serve on the finance committee. The society numbers 5,000 members, many of whom live in Pennsylvania, that state sending fifty of the 153 delegates. Among the business transacted was the

AMUSEMENTS.

This evening, at the Opera House, Mr. Creston Clarke and Miss Adelaide Prince, supported by an excellent company, will open a two days' engagement, and the advance sale indicates that they will be greeted by large audiences. That the engagement will be the occasion of three dramatic treats goes without saying. Mr. Clarke appeared here last season and made a decided hit. To-night's bill is "The Marble Heart," Saturday afternoon "Rus Elias" will be given, and on Saturday evening, "The Last of His Race."

"THE BURGLAR."

Large and well-pleased audiences continue to be the rule at the Grand, during the engagement of the Irene Myers Comedy Company. Last night and to-day's matinee, the bill will be the thrilling melodrama, "American Born." Those who admire the personality and action of little Irene, will gladly avail themselves of the opportunity to see her in the greatest character ever written for a child, that of "Edith" in "The Burglar," this evening.
