WILL HE ANSWER IT?

An Offer to the Democratic Congressional Candidate

WHICH HE WILL HAVE TO TAKE

UP OR CONFESS HE MADE A MISSTATEMENT IN HIS SPEECH AT THE OPERA HOUSE ON WEDNESDAY NIGHT—HORKHEIMER BROTHERS WILL PAY MR. BLAIR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A POUND FOR EVERY POUND OF WASHED WOOL IN HIS COUNTY.

In his speech in the Opera House Wednesday night, Candidate Blair made a misstatement, possibly under a misunderstanding, but nevertheless a misstatement, that showed a woeful ignorance of matters about which the nominees of the Democratic party in the First congressional district ought to be posted thoroughly.

The Intelligencer is pleased to show conclusively that Mr. Blair did not tell the truth when he said Wednesday night that wool has not been so low since the panic of 1893 as it is now.

His own organ, the Register, quoted him as follows: "The speaker found by consulting Dun's report, that wool had not been so low since the financial panic of 1893."

In its report of the meeting, the Intelligencer said: "Mr. Blair had the nerve to speak of the price of wool, and made the preposterous statement that wool is lower now than it has been since 1893. This is a bare-faced misstatement, and Mr. Blair is indeed a backslider, if he doesn't know it. He said the farmers are now getting 15 cents a pound for wool. In rebuttal of this it is only necessary to quote Tuesday's wool quotations."

At that time the Intelligencer did not have the opportunity to present figures more in detail. Yesterday an Intelligencer man called upon Messrs. Horkheimer Brothers, of Main street, and secured from Mr. Louis Horkheimer the following figures, which show the average price of wools, washed and unwashed, from 1893 to 1898:

Table with 3 columns: Year, Fine Washed, Medium Unwashed. Rows for years 1893-1898.

This stamps as false Mr. Blair's statement as quoted in his own party organ. ON THE CONTRARY WOOL IS NOW HIGHER THAN IT HAS BEEN SINCE THE FINANCIAL PANIC OF 1893.

Messrs. Horkheimer added that they WOULD PAY MR. BLAIR TWENTY-FIVE CENTS A POUND FOR ALL THE WASHED WOOL HE COULD RAKE UP IN HIS OWN COUNTY OF DODDRIDGE, from which comes much of the wool bought by the firm.

The musicale and conversation for the benefit of the King's Daughters of St. Matthews P. E. church, given at the McLure last evening, called out a representative audience and was an interesting affair from every point of view. This organization, of which Mrs. George B. Caldwell is the leader, is to be congratulated upon the successful outcome of every thing undertaken by it. The young people who contributed the artistic enjoyment all merit the highest approval. They were Mrs. Fred Frazier, Mrs. Leon Klee, Miss Margaret Harvey, Miss Sue Caldwell, Miss Gertrude Reister, Miss Virginia Harrison, Miss Harriet Daisell, Mr. A. A. Taylor, Mr. Jasper Baum, singers; Miss Emily Pollock, Miss Eli's Brice and Miss Martha D. Caldwell, pianists, and Miss Ella Chew, elocutionist, who made a most attractive programme ensemble. Mrs. Ricardo Ricci, Miss Annie V. Sage, Miss Lulu Hicks, Mr. Robert Gilchrist, and Mr. Melan Vance, beautifully supported the vocal work.

Speaking of the Blair break, Mr. Morris Horkheimer said that the Democratic candidate possibly meant unwashed wool, but even then his statement is untrue, for unwashed wool, like washed, is higher now than it has been since 1893. It will be noticed that all wools went up decidedly upon the enactment of the Dingley tariff act, which protects American wool from the inroads of Australian and other foreign wools. Continuing, Mr. Horkheimer said that washed wool is standard in this section, the larger part of the purchases of his firm from Western Pennsylvania, East and West Virginia being of the washed grades, so in speaking of the prices of wool, Mr. Blair could not take the unwashed grades and cite their prices as the ruling price for wool in this section.

A FLORAL PALACE

Is the New Establishment of L. A. Smith on Twelfth Street.

A floral palace is the new establishment to be opened to-morrow morning by L. A. Smith, the Island florist, at 66 Twelfth street. Mr. Smith cordially invites his friends and patrons to call at his new place of business on Twelfth street and inspect his large, varied and beautiful stock of plants and cut flowers. It is well worth a visit to his salesrooms to see what can be done in the scientific culture of flowers.

Mr. Smith will make a specialty of flowers for funerals, as well as for weddings and other social functions. His facilities are excellent for the prompt filling of any order, however large it may be.

Don't Procrastinate.

When you are sick and have tried everything to get back health and you are told that you can have the advice of the greatest and most skilled specialist of the age, free of expense, you are very foolish if you do not hasten to take advantage of it. Dr. Greene, 35 West Fourteenth Street, New York City, the most famous specialist and most successful in curing disease, will give you advice by letter free. The debilitated, those who have lost their vigor and vitality, should seize this chance. Don't be miserable but write to Dr. Greene to-day and you will thank us for telling you.

How to Look Good.

Good looks are really more than skin deep, depending entirely on a healthy condition of all the vital organs. If the liver be inactive, you have a bilious look; if your stomach be disordered, you have a sallow look; if your kidneys be affected, you have a pinched look. Secure good health, and you will surely have good looks. "Electric Bitters" is a good Alternative and Tonic. Acts directly on the stomach, liver and kidneys. Purifies the blood, cures pimples, blotches and boils, and gives a good complexion. Every bottle guaranteed. Sold at Logan Drug Co.'s Drug Store, 50 cents per bottle.

RED CROSS SOCIETY.

The Reports the Recording Secretary, Mrs. John B. Garden, and of the Treasurer, Mrs. Jennie P. Sisson.

The Red Cross Auxiliary No. 77 was organized July 12, 1898, and elected the following officers:

President—Mrs. William F. Butler. Vice-Presidents—Mesdames O. J. Rawling, John Wagner, M. E. Daisell, M. Someborn, J. D. McFadden, W. B. Lewis, Catherine Meyer, W. P. Hubbard and Miss Jennie Bailey.

Treasurer—Mrs. J. P. Sisson. Corresponding Secretary—Mrs. Julius Pollock. Recording Secretary—Mrs. John B. Garden.

The first meetings were held in the Carroll Club Auditorium, which was kindly donated by the management. The use of the Hearne Tabernacle as headquarters for the Auxiliary was generously tendered by Mr. William H. Hearne, and was gratefully accepted.

During the time intervening between the date of organization and the present, the members of the Auxiliary have worked faithfully and well, but to the ladies comprising the various committees special credit is due. The executive committee has been efficient, and has faithfully attended to all the details of the work of the society.

The committee on ways and means has become especially active in devising plans for raising funds for the work. The Donation Day and the boxes placed in public places were due to this committee, and to them the society is indebted for a large part of the money collected.

The cutting committee was kept busy as the record of their work shows. They report having cut 650 garments. They report the membership committee as faithful in its work as evidenced by the long list of names of active and honorary members on their books. Some of these, however, were secured by other workers in the society.

The committee on distributing and packing reports having sent seven boxes, containing altogether 1,097 articles. Much credit is due this committee, as well as the committee on cutting, for their faithfulness in being present at the headquarters of the society every day. Much good has been done, and many of our wounded and suffering soldiers and sailors have been helped for which the Auxiliary deserves credit.

The society is indebted to Messrs. George E. Stifel & Co. and Mr. R. H. List for packing boxes; to the Singer and Standard Sewing Machine Companies, for the loan of sewing machines; to Mr. M. R. Wolf, for the free use of a telephone; to the Wheeling and City Hospitals, for their offers to take soldiers; to Mr. W. H. Frank, for services of his employees for one day's work; to Mr. George L. Durst, for use of his store rooms to receive dividends; to the press for their assistance; to Mr. Zevay for donation of stencils, and to all who have in any way contributed to the success of the Auxiliary.

Our Clothing

Must Be "Just So."

and that "just so" must mean just right or it cannot bear a Kraus Bros.' Label. The same applies to our prices, as much married individuality as our clothing possesses, just equally as much do our prices show.

The former touches the top notch of perfection, the latter the lowest notch, consistent with fair worth.

Our 10 and 12 Dollar Suits in Mixed Cassimeres and Cheviots, also Plain Weaves, are Different from the ordinary 10 and 12 Dollar Suits. Every garment is faultlessly made and finished, and of course a perfect fit. The same applies to OVERCOATS. We're showing exceedingly nobby coats at 10 and 12 Dollars, unusual values. Probably you will say that all our values are unusual. You've guessed right. If they were usual we wouldn't be different from other stores, that's it in a nutshell.
