The Leader will soon be printing all the news that is news. Watch it grow.

Mrs. J. B. Williams and children, of Pembroke, Va., are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gibson Williams, on Bluefield avenue, this city.

Let it not be said that the city of Bluefield is still larded over by a political ring of bosses. Let our people remember that Charleston and Huntington have been redeemed. Protect the good name of your city by voting for good government and a clean administration of our municipal affairs.

Let every citizen who would have a clean conduct of municipal affairs in Bluefield come to the aid of their city in the present effort to do away with ring and boss rule. Now is the time to act.

Mr. W. H. Thomas, of the Huff, Andrews & Thomas Company, left last evening for Roanoke on business. He will visit Radford and other places of interest before he returns.

To insure correct insertion of your advertisement you should endeavor to hand it in not later than four o'clock on the evening before the day you wish it to appear.

The job department of the Daily Leader is employing none but the best workmen and the new management guarantees satisfaction in every instance to all who may favor this office with their patronage.

Miss Annie Rapenport, of Pocahontas, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Cohen, of Ramsey street, this city.

Mr. C. W. Duvall, of this city, has returned from Tazewell, where he has been on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. K. P. Buckingham, of Lotus, Va., are the guests of Rev. B. P. Moody and wife, of Jones street, this city.

Carpenters commenced this morning the tearing down of the old Baptist church, which is to be replaced by a magnificent structure of worship. This is a step toward a greater Bluefield.

Mr. J. L. Pendland, of this city, left this afternoon to attend the Presbytery at Radford, which convenes in that city today.

Mr. B. S. Higginbotham and wife, of this city, leave tonight for the Jamestown Exposition, where they will attend the opening. From that point they will make an extended tour of the United States. While absent Mr. Higginbotham has left his business in the care of competent agents who will care for same during his absence. We wish these good people a pleasant outing.

Messrs. J. E. Smith and A. J. Lester, capitalists of Martinsville, are in the city prospecting with a view of investing.

Mr. Harry G. Whitlow, of the firm of the M. G. Whitlow Hardware Company, has returned from Roanoke where he has been recreating.

Mr. E. Mitchell, bookkeeper for E. S. Pedigo, returned today from Princeton where he has been calling on friends.

Prof. C. W. Patterson, of the Ford Music Company, this city, left this to every man who cares for his personal appearance, who wants something new, something different, something better than the ordinary clothes stacked upon the tables of the ordinary clothing store.

You know that in the last year or two great changes have taken place in the clothing business. Are you keeping step with the changes, or are you buying and wearing the same old clothes, bought in the same old way? Have you ever been in the store that is conscientiously building up a Clothing Department and selecting every suit as carefully as a mason would choose his stone for a foundation of a great edifice? A Store's stock is no good to you. It is the individual suit that you've got to live with and depend on.

You May Have Been Guessing Wrong on This Whole Clothing Problem. To Know that You're Dressed as Well as the Finest is Gratifying; To feel that Your Clothes are Absolutely Right in Style, Fit and Material is Something You are Assured of if the New Suit Comes from Here.

Exceptional Suits at $12.50. THE VERY SMALLEST PART OF THE COST OF A SUIT IS THE CUTTING, AND THE CUTTING OF THE CLUTH OF A $30.00 SUIT IS LITTLE MORE THAN THAT OF ONE AT $12.50.

The Suffolk

A decidedly popular single-breasted sack suit; a very becoming style which will be much worn this season. Note the stylish lapels and the character thro' out. We have them in fancy worsteds and Cassimers, Club Checks, neat gray and brown effects, and also a large variety of plain and fancy blue serges. They range in price from $15 to $30.

The principal influence in the model of a garment is the pattern over which it is cut, and once having been designed, serves its purpose hundreds of times over, and may be used for a SUIT AT $12.50 as readily as for one several times that price. Thus our cheaper suits, coming from the makers pre-eminent for their designing, have all the character and style of our higher priced garments. The fabrics are thoroughly reliable, or they would not be here, for were they not, we would not guarantee them without serious loss, and we guarantee every garment we sell.

Won't you make an experiment at our risk and try one of these distinctive suits? If you be not entirely satisfied, we readily exchange back your money for the suit.

NOTICE OF SALE OF VALUABLE STOCK OF DRUGS AND FIXTURES.

Notice is hereby given that, as special Receiver in the chancery cause of J. N. Murdock & Company, a corporation, plaintiffs, vs. George C. Bennett, et al., defendants, now pending in the Circuit Court of will, on Monday, the 6th day of May, 1907, at the front door of the Bennett Drug Store, in the town of Bramwell, West Virginia, between the hours of 10 o'clock a. m., and 12 o'clock, m., offer for sale, at public auction to the highest bidder, all of the stock of drugs, merchandise, fixtures, etc., now in the said store building, known as the BENNETT DRUG STORE, in the town of Bramwell. The right is reserved to sell the stock and fixtures separately, if deemed to be the best interest of the defendants in said suit.

TERMS OF SALE: One-third cash upon the day of sale. Balance in three and six months, purchaser giving his notes for deferred payments, with security approved by me.

I will also receive private bids for said stock, fixtures, etc., until the time of sale; and in the event that no better bid is made therefor, at the public auction, will accept the private bid; provided the same, in my judgment, is an adequate price for said property.

R. M. GARRETT, Jr., Receiver.

Rev. Dr. Crapsey who was deposed from the Episcopal church, is reported as meeting remarkable success in organizing a brotherhood of men in Rochester, where he was formerly rector of St. Andrew's church. He spoke Sunday night to a large congregation in the Rochester Unitarian church, and it is said that his new society will soon be launched with an enrolment of fully 1000, while the necessary funds have been provided for at least one year. Meanwhile in contrast to the crowds that listen to Dr. Crapsey, the congregation of St. Andrew's is reported to have shrunk until it is only a skeleton of what it was before. Dr. Crapsey was deposed for heresy.

Found what? Why that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—Elder John T. Ongley, Rootville, Pa. For sale by all druggists.

Paint is to a Building

what clothing is to the body. It is just as important. You should take as much care in selecting the paint to clothe your property, as you do in selecting the material to clothe your person. Paint preserves the building. Paint gives beauty to the building. In painting the labor costs more than the paint. There will be a large waste if the right paint is not used.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS
