Everybody Likes It

EMPIRE COLONIAL

The design of this bedroom suite is taken from an antique piece now in Boston and shows the rich effect which is obtained from the use of graceful curves in the shape of the scrolls combined with the straight line. This period originated in Napoleon's time and was very popular in this country in the days of Washington, but is more in demand today. It will always be popular, not only because of its beauty, but because all carving and dust catchers have been eliminated.

We have a beautiful new line in Circassian Walnut, Golden Oak, Bird's Eye Maple and Mahogany. Call and see our stock at once.
