Traffic Was Delayed.

Will Commence To-Day.

Owing to the inability of Humane Officer Echols to get his dog catching apparatus in shape the work of corralling all unlicensed dogs found at large will not be started until this morning. Two dog pounds have been secured, one in the East End and the other on the South Side. One will operate north of the creek and the other on the South Side.

Legs Cut Off.

Yesterday afternoon shortly before 1 o'clock a man named Harry Fredewah was run over by a Baltimore & Ohio train at McMechen, and had both of his lower limbs taken off. He was removed to the Glendale hospital, where everything possible was done for him. He was resting easily at a late hour last night, and it is thought he will recover.

Business Was Suspended.

Yesterday being Labor Day—a national holiday—the postoffice observed holiday hours; the city and county building offices were closed; banks had their shutters up; factories were closed down, and the opening of the Wheeling public schools was postponed one day. The day was quietly observed, many going to the state fair grounds, where the Labor Day outing, under the auspices of the Trades Assembly, was the main feature of the day. The ball games were not played, owing to the non-appearance of the Anderson team.

Bernard Bero's Great Work.

Bernard Bero, of the South Side, a son of Joseph Bero, has just completed a plaster of paris plaque bust of President McKinley, that has been admired by all who have seen it. One of the first made from the original, is on display at the Intelligencer, counting rooms to-day. The bust of the President is surrounded by a beautifully designed border. These plaques will be put on the market shortly and doubtless will meet with a ready sale. It is undoubtedly as good a likeness of President McKinley as can be produced.

Funeral of Herman Bremer.

The funeral of Herman Bremer took place from his late home on South Eoff street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock and were attended by a large concourse of sorrowing friends and relatives, who called to pay a last tribute to one whom the Almighty, in his infinite wisdom, took from their midst at the very beginning of a life full of promise. The Rev. H. H. Haas delivered a sermon in German and the Rev. F. C. H. Peschau followed in English, both paying eloquent tribute to the many good and noble qualities of the deceased. There were many and beautiful floral offerings, among them a broken wheel from his graduating class, a harp from St. Paul's choir, of which he was a member, and a music lyre from the Ideal Mandolin and Guitar club. Interment took place at the Peninsular cemetery. The pall-bearers were Fred Hoffmeister, Gus Hartong, Gus Rockabrand, Ed. Ellig, George Nicholas and Charles Norteman.

MANY CASES ARE UP FOR GRAND JURY.

September Term of the Ohio County Criminal Court Opens This Morning, and the

THE GAINES ABORTION CASE

Is Among Those That Will Be Investigated by the Grand Jury. List of Presentments.

This morning the September term of the Ohio county criminal court, Judge Hugus on the bench, opens, and Prosecuting Attorney W. C. Meyer states that there is an unusually heavy batch of criminal business for the grand jury to investigate. Most important of the matters that will come before the grand jury this morning, of course, will be the Della Gaines abortion case, the responsibility for which was recently fixed upon "Madame" Smaltzer and J. N. Lowry, by the coroner's jury. Although the coroner's jury arrived at this conclusion, it is a vastly different matter to work up the case against the persons implicated in a court of justice, and it is intimated that difficulties are being encountered by the authorities. The following presentments will be made to the grand jury by Prosecuting Attorney Meyer:

State vs. Robert Richardson; false pretense.

State vs. James Hardy and Richard Francis, burglary.

State vs. John Anderson; felony, two indictments for blackmailing.

State vs. Charles Blomler; misdemeanor; carrying concealed weapons.

State vs. Murphy; felony, embezzlement.

State vs. C. E. Clark and J. S. Brubaker; misdemeanor; illegally practicing dentistry.

State vs. John Madden; misdemeanor; assault and battery.

State vs. Henry Ganuszasky; felony; malicious cutting.

State vs. A. J. Schultz; misdemeanor; assault and battery.

State vs. Wilse Clark and Jack Clark; felony; burglary.

State vs. Jack Connors; misdemeanor; theft.

State vs. Padge O'Neill and Elsie Gray; misdemeanor; assault and battery.

State vs. James Davener; misdemeanor; jumping board bill.

State vs. Charles Burkett; misdemeanor; petit larceny.

State vs. Thomas Cassady; misdemeanor; theft.

State vs. William Blinco and George Day; misdemeanor; theft.

State vs. William Bartlett; felony; grand larceny.

THE BANDA ROSSA

Concerts This Afternoon and Evening at Wheeling Park.

The famous Banda Rossa, of Italy, gives two concerts this afternoon and evening at the Wheeling Park Casino and large audiences are assured for both performances. Splendid programmes especially selected have been prepared for both occasions and they cannot fail to please all tastes. Last season when the band played here it was a revelation to music lovers. Nothing like it had ever been heard before. These Italians are masters of the art and they play with a spirit and a dash which fairly carries one away and not infrequently have the audiences been moved to tears by the grandeur and beauty of the melody. The park management is to be congratulated on securing such a fine attraction. It is safe to predict record breaking audiences at both performances. Special motors will run to the park Casino gates, afternoon and evening.

that wins the parents. We're solid on both sides. Boys are not the least bit particular. You must have SOLID WORK in school clothes or they'll soon come to grief. We stand on the shoulders of our achi events of last year, and reached for all the improvements that had been made. You won't have to come up after them—WE'VE BROUGHT THEM DOWN TO THE SAME OLD PRICES—that's how we progress. It's the quality that gets ahead—the cost stands still.
