DOVENER'S CLOSING SPEECH

Of the Campaign to the Citizens of Benwood and Wheeling Last Night was a

MOST MASTERFUL EXPOSITION

Of the Issues of the Campaign—Geo. A. Laughlin and Geo. B. Caldwell Make Speeches.

The Republican campaign was closed amid a blaze of glory at upper Benwood last night. The meeting was held at Holderman's hall and the room was taxed to its utmost capacity. Congressman Dovener, Colonel George B. Caldwell and George A. Laughlin were the speakers and they raised the enthusiasm of the crowd to the highest pitch. It was one of the largest and best meetings of the campaign in Marshall county. The Rough Rider companies of Ritchie district and Benwood escorted the speakers from Thirty-third street to the hall and were enthusiastically greeted. Charles Seabright called the meeting to order and introduced George A. Laughlin. The first address was by Hon. George A. Laughlin, followed by Colonel George B. Caldwell. Both made effective addresses and interested and impressed their audience.

Congressman Dovener.

Congressman Dovener was then introduced as the next Congressman and he was enthusiastically applauded as he walked to the front of the stage. He said he would talk on practical politics. He would only say those things that they would only have to consult their own recollections to see whether they were true or not. He referred to John O. Pendleton's speech of the previous night and said he would have to place him over his knee and spank him.

The Laboring Man.

We are ready to meet all issues when William Jennings Bryan advocates anything that is right, we are for him. Mr. Bryan told us he was in favor of the laboring man, but he did not tell how. We answered Mr. Bryan by saying, "So are we also for the laboring man," and we told him how we were for him. We believed that he should be paid an honest dollar for an honest day's wages. Mr. Dovener closed with an exposure of the Democratic claims regarding the tariff on sugar brought from Porto Rico. He proved conclusively that the trust paid the 15 per cent duty and explained how this money was used in helping the Porto Ricans from the condition they were in as a result of the ravages of the storm. Mr. Dovener closed amid thunderous applause, mingled with hurrahs for Dovener and cheers for McKinley.

AMUSEMENTS.

The King Dramatic Company.

There was a large audience at the Grand yesterday afternoon to witness a very elaborate production of "The Silver King" by the King Dramatic Company. The play was staged in an admirable manner, and the costumes were handsome and appropriate. The work of Mr. Kirk Brown in the title role, and of his support as well, was beyond criticism. This afternoon the company will repeat its production of "Faust," and to-night "The Sporting Duchess" will be presented.

"Finnigan's Ball."

"Just for fun," one of the advertised lines of Finnigan's Ball," seems to be particularly appropriate and fits the case exactly. Apparently Murray & Mack's comedians are just for fun, and the ball is a most appropriate vehicle for their merriment. The new piece, which means that all the old songs, dances, etc., have been laid upon the shelf, and their places filled by new, up-to-date and bright material, will be seen at the Grand the first half of next week. The company consists of fifteen people, headed by Bryant and Moran. The costumes are new as well as the dances, and the Ball for 1900-1901 shines like a new dollar. The election returns will be received over a special wire Tuesday night.

ANOTHER CONVERT

To Republicanism is Ex-County Commissioner Friend Cox, of Brooke County, a Veteran Democrat.

Mr. Friend Cox, ex-Democratic commissioner of the county court of Brooke county for six years, has come out for William McKinley. He is seventy-five years of age. He says he never saw such prosperity in this country as there has been for the past three years, and says Bryan will meet a Waterloo on the sixth of November. He says the next Congress will be largely Republican, and that West Virginia will roll up a tremendous majority for McKinley and prosperity. Mr. Cox is a prosperous farmer, and knows which side of his bread is buttered. He is also a far seeing man and the father of Dr. Cox, of Wheeling.

DECEIVED HUSBAND

But He Seems to Like It.

"We used to buy our coffee from an agent of a coffee house in —, who came once a month to take our order. When we would run out, we bought package coffee from a local grocer and 'hubby' would always raise more or less of a row until the coffee he was used to came along.

"One time I concluded to serve some Postum Food Coffee, without his knowing it. Hubby remarked that he was glad to know the regular coffee man had got along and he was very much pleased. He had not the slightest idea it was Postum and I let this run along for about two months, serving him Postum every day. A lady guest at our table remarked that she would like to know how I made coffee, as hers always had a bitter taste. I thought it was a good time to tell the truth and remarked that I always took four heaping teaspoonsful of Postum Food Coffee—'What?' yelled hubby, 'What's that?' 'Yes, I take four heaping teaspoons of Postum to the pint of water.' (Hubby was still staring.) 'Let it stand on the stove until it really boils and then allow the actual boiling to continue thereafter for fifteen minutes.' You can imagine how he stared. Finally he remarked: 'Well, if the coffee I have been drinking for two months, is Postum Food Coffee, that is the only kind we will have in the house hereafter.'

"I was brought to try Postum, for I had so much trouble with my heart for four or five years, with fainting spells and so many times a day was compelled to sit down to keep from falling, could not go up and down cellar on account of dizziness and a sick feeling at my stomach, could not eat anything greasy.
