BREVITIES. Condensed News Items, For Hasty Readers.

THINGS A GIRL SHOULD LEARN. SHE should learn how to make a pretty bow. SHE should learn to handle a goblet by its stem, and not by its bowl. SHE should learn that it is the worst of bad taste to appear thoughtful or absent-minded in company. SHE should learn—as she learned her alphabet—that a gentleman should always be presented to a lady, never a lady to a gentleman.

Y. P. S. C. E.

First Presbyterian church Sunday Jan. 29, at 6 p. m. Baptist church Friday Feb. 2, at 7 p. m. We give below the lesson that will be discussed by the Baptist and Presbyterian societies.

1. Man's attitude toward the day of small things (Zech. iv, 10). Zerubbabel was rebuilding the temple at Jerusalem. The beginning was very small in comparison to the great work that must be done.

2. "God's attitude toward the day of small things" (Zech. iv, 10). God never despises small beginnings. He blesses them, and they become great.

TO MEASURE DISTANCES AT SEA. Rules by Which Very Correct Inferences May Be Made. Suppose that the eye of the observer is 18 feet above the level of the ocean.

Working for Christ. As a fit climax this is an evangelistic movement. It is primarily an effort of the young to save the young. These Endeavorers take charge of the smallest little ones in the Junior society and train them to work for Christ.

How Women Should Walk.

As a rule women stride, shuffle, hobble or amble along in any way, regardless of how long they stay that way.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE.

1893. Greatest of Republican Newspapers. National in its aims and devoted to the welfare of the masses of the American people. The New York Tribune concedes the election of Grover Cleveland, but promises to defend the Republican policy on Finance and Protection, with all the ability it can command.

A page a week will be devoted during 1893, to war stories and news of interest to Union veterans. Old soldiers, who have some experiences to tell, which have not yet been printed, are asked to send the story to the Tribune for publication.

Farming has now become such an enormous interest in the United States, that there is an imperative necessity for making more of a specialty of the business interests of the Farmers of the country.

The Semi-Weekly is particularly commended to the attention of general readers. It gives more of the keen incisive editorials, book reviews, foreign letters and other valuable features of the Tribune.

To all who subscribe during 1892 for the balance of this year. Sample copies free. Weekly, $1.00; Semi-Weekly, $2. Friends of Agriculture, Industry and the Republican party, are invited to make up clubs for this paper in their localities.
