LITERARY CHATTER.

LADY GORDON in her search through English libraries for books written by women has discovered a pamphlet on rights of women, published in 1696 by Mary Assell. Its title is "Advice to La-dies."

Ir is stated that Mr. Gladstone has intimated definitely his intention to appoint a poet laureate in succession to Lord Tennyson. The difficulty in making the selection has, however, not yet been overcome.

THE novel called "An Exquisite Fool," which has attracted considerable attention, turns out to be by Miss Paynter, the author of "My Little Lady," The publishers thought so highly of it that they resolved on the experiment of issuing it anonymously.

A DISCUSSION CONCERNING the longest words used in the English language has recalled to one of the participants that "diseatablishmentarianism" was used by many English and Irish newspapers at the time of the diseatablishment of the Irish church, about 1871, and found the Irish church, about 1871, and found its way into the house of commons.

MEN OF MANY LANDS.

CECIL WOLFE, private secretary to Lord Randolph Churchill, is bankrupt, owing $85,000 and having no assets. THE ameer of Bokhara, it is reported, has arranged to surrender his dominions to the czar of Russia—which exercises a protectorate over them—for $2,500,000 and a pension of $50,000 a year.

Count Leo Tolsroi, who spent his time and fortune a year ago in alleviat-ing the sufferings of the starving Rus-sians, now asserts that drunkenness
