

PURELY PERSONAL.

Doddridge Deaths.

LOCAL LUNCHEONS.

At Home Again.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Program for The S. S. Picnic

The following is the program for the Duncan and Respect Sunday School picnic to be held at Duncan school house groves near Respect Sunday, Aug. 6, 1893.

AFTERNOON.

Music—By choir, "America." Address—By Rev. H. B. Duncan. Essays—By U. G. Duncan and L. E. Bennett.

Another Concert.

On next Monday evening, July 31, at 7:15 p. m., the music loving people of Clarksburg will have an opportunity of hearing the second grand open air concert.

PROGRAMME.

- March, "Beau Ideal".....Sousa
Reverie, "The Wayside Chapel".....Wilson
Medley Overture, "Blossoms of 1884".....Meyrelles

A young lady and, probably, her best gentleman friend were passing Swager's a few evenings ago when the merry laughter and joyous voices within indicated that a happy party were enjoying the usufruct of ice cream and cake.

HALF RATE EXCURSION TO THE WORLD'S FAIR.

The Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co. will run a series of special excursions to the World's Fair for which excursion tickets will be sold at the rate of one fare for the round trip from Baltimore and all stations west of there as far as the Ohio river.

Table with columns: LEAVE, RATE. Rows include Clarksburg, Wheeling, and West Union with corresponding times and prices.

Remember the dates: August 1st, 8th and 17th. 37-3t

LATE LOCALS.

What Prominent Business Men Are Doing

Names neatly engraved on watches, jewelry, rings &c., at Robinson's. Dr. George M. Holt, Dentist, will be in his Clarksburg office August 1st, and remain 30 days.

DR. DRUMMOND'S LIGHTNING Remedy for Rheumatism has received the unqualified endorsement of the medical faculty as being a safe and remarkably efficient preparation for the relief and speedy cure of Rheumatism.

To My Patrons. On account of some of my customers objecting to the use of creek ice, I at once proceeded to fill my ice house with manufactured ice and will deliver all orders promptly.

If you have prejudices don't let it govern you when you select a dentist. If you do it is cutting off your nose to spite your face.

Reader, if you want a first-class piano and one that will give satisfaction in every respect, get the Malcom Love Piano.

By reading the TELEGRAM you get the news of the State at large and under separate headings, there is a condensed summary of the doings of Fairmont, Morgantown, Grafton, West Union, Weston, Buckhannon, etc.

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost everything without benefit.

Read This. If you want to buy a small farm of 67 acres of good land with good houses and other improvements, in one of the best neighborhoods in the county and within 1/4 of a mile of church, school house and post office.

Table titled 'Clarksburg Markets.' with columns for various goods like Butter, Eggs, Potatoes, etc., and their prices.

Hon. Chas. Lynch, of Clarksburg, who is serving his second term as Prosecuting Attorney of Harrison, attended court here this week.

The good citizens of Cabin Run want a postoffice established over there. They certainly deserve it and ought to have it.

Mrs. Garner, who is confined in our jail for lunacy, is a very wild woman. She clashes and yells almost constantly day and night.

Miss Mollie Keys departed this life at her home on Flint Run last Thursday morning a victim of that dread disease consumption.

Frank P. Jones, of Clarksburg, was here Monday in the interest of his insurance business.

Hon. John Bassel, of Clarksburg, was in town a few hours Saturday. He was on his way to Mountain Lake Park where he will spend a portion of the heated season.

Miss Annie Ross, of Bridgeport, was called to town quite suddenly on Thursday to the bed side of her sister Mrs. Marion Newlon who is quite ill.

On last Thursday J.W. Griffith and two or three companions from Barbour county came to town to make some purchases.

On returning, Mr. Griffith near the residence of Patrick Moran, South Grafton, got separated from his companions who had traveled some distance before he was missed.

Dr. W. M. Late, of Bridgeport, is in Charleston this week attending the meeting of the State Board of Health.

Mrs. Jno. F. Kearns left for Springfield, Ohio, Sunday evening, where she will reside in the future.

Judge Maxwell, Hon. Chas. Lynch and Hon. Jno. Bassel, were attending court in Doddridge county this week.

Rev. F. J. Brooke, formerly of this place, but now located at Harrisburg, Va., held services here Sunday morning.

Miss Bessie Minnick has returned from Chicago, having visited that city while enroute home from Canada.

Miss Dora Ridenour is now visiting friends at La Fayette, Indiana, and expects to go to Chicago ere she returns.

Prof. J. H. Race, of Kingston, Pa., and wife are visiting his brother, Mr. L. G. Race, on Main street.

Mrs. J. A. Smith and her amiable daughter Miss Willie left Thursday morning for a visit among friends in Virginia.

Among those who have returned from the World's Fair this week are Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Sands, Misses Lily Hart, Ira Goff and Therese Patton.

LeRoy Philipps has been tendered his old position as principal of the Mt. Clare school. Miss Camdena Bartlett will be the assistant.

Mr. W. L. Camden, who graduated a few weeks ago from the Law Department of Yale College, was calling on friends in town Tuesday and Wednesday.

Corley Orr, who has had charge of the mechanical part of the Fountain, has resigned his position and returned to his home at Salem.

Hon. R. E. Fast, a prominent lawyer of this State and manager of the Morgantown Development Company, was in this city last Tuesday.

Misses Ida and Mamie Haymond, visited the great Columbian Exposition on their return from Montreal and arrived home last Saturday, delighted with their journey.

The two Miss Clevengers who have been the guests of that cultured young lady Miss Kate Ogden, of Shinnston, have returned to their home in Warren county, Ohio.

T. E. Maxwell, Esq., of Fresno, California, is the guest of his former colleague, Stuart Reed. Mr. Maxwell is now one of the successful business men of the Pacific coast, a former West Virginian and is a nephew of Judge Maxwell.

Things you have been wanting to know for a week.

Dr. Jarrett will be here on August 11th.

Prof. R. R. Powell has returned from Virginia.

Remember the dates of the Fair August 22-23 and 24.

Only thirteen dollars is the price of a round trip ticket from Clarksburg to the World's Fair. It may be still lower next month.

A very able sermon preached last Sunday by Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, is printed in full in the TELEGRAM this week.

A picnic at Gypsy Grove on Thursday was attended by different religious organizations and made a very delightful day.

Some of the low hanging limbs should be taken from many shade trees near the side walks of Main and Pike streets.

The work of tearing down the old Presbyterian church was begun this week. There will be a handsome brick structure built in its stead.

Mr. Porter Lovett, a merchant of Belington, and son of Rev. W. E. Lovett, of Bridgeport, was married to Miss Lizzie Phares of that place, last week.

Over seventy persons from Clarksburg attended the picnic at Gypsy grove last Tuesday night.

Rev. J. A. Hammond, who has been in Brooklyn for the past five weeks receiving medical treatment, has returned home and we hope he may be greatly benefited.

Miss Clara Deleuth Golden who died on the 1st day of the present month was loved and esteemed by many good people who lived near her in the vicinity of Craigmoor.

Except the duty of providing a pure and abundant water supply there is no function of the municipal government so intimately connected with the public health as the work of cleaning the streets.

Sarah Catherine Ash a bright and beloved daughter of Peter W. Ash, of near Sardis, died of diphtheria at the home of her father near Sardis on last Saturday. She was about nine years old.

It is a fact that Clarksburg now has a great many private improvements looming up and another year will show a great change on some streets.

The committee has authorized us to say that during the erection of a new house of worship the congregation and Sabbath school of the First Presbyterian church will occupy room No. 9 in the public school building.

We have a large quantity of blank paper tied up somewhere along the railroad and all efforts to get it here have proved fruitless.

The streets of Clarksburg were deserted. The pale flickerings of the nascent orb of night cast a gloomy halo over the spot.

Suddenly there was a gleam in the darkness. 'Twas like a blade of cold, flashing, murderous steel reflecting the star light.

It is reported that Maj. Rollyson, of Rollyson, has been appointed to a lucrative position on the World's Fair grounds at Chicago, and will leave this week to enter upon his duties.

A rather remarkable story is told on a young gentleman well known here. It is said that he had lost a five dollar bill, but fortunately it was found and returned, after several days, to him.

He wanted the man who had found it and kindly returned it to him to pay him interest for the time he had it.

The annual Sunday school convention of Elk district will be held at Liberty church, near Rockford, August, 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Davisson, of Clarksburg, are visiting in Lewis county.

Hon. Andrew Edmiston accompanied his mother to Webster Springs this week.

J. N. Camden, Jr. and wife, have joined the party of Parkersburgers at Camden-on-Gauley.

Mrs. Dr. N. B. Bland and daughter, Miss Hattie, are among the guests at Webster Springs.

Mayburry Harrison, clerk in the National Exchange Bank, left to-day for Parkersburg and Elizabeth.

Mrs. A. B. Thorn, of Clarksburg, accompanied by her grand son, Richard A. Farland, is here this week the guest of Mrs. Susan Arnold.

It is reported that Maj. Rollyson, of Rollyson, has been appointed to a lucrative position on the World's Fair grounds at Chicago, and will leave this week to enter upon his duties.

A rather remarkable story is told on a young gentleman well known here. It is said that he had lost a five dollar bill, but fortunately it was found and returned, after several days, to him.

He wanted the man who had found it and kindly returned it to him to pay him interest for the time he had it.