CLARKSBURG DIRECTORY

- J. M. Hagan... Judge
H. Raymond... Clerk Circuit Court
P. Long... Clerk County Court

Circuit Court convenes on the second days of January, May, and September.

County Court convenes in March, June, September and December of each year.

Federal Court holds two sessions annually in Clarksburg, convening in April and again in October.

As we go to press the announcement is received that Chairman Wilson has actually gone so far as to place iron ore and wool on his free list.

The time has again come, thanks to Republican patriotism and to the sagacity and foresight of President Harrison and Secretary of the Navy Tracy, when the American people can take a just pride in the warships that guard the coasts and defend the honor of the Republic.

GEN. JEREMIAH RUSK, ex-Secretary of Agriculture, died Nov. 21st at his home in Viroqua, Wis. In the death of Mr. Rusk the country loses a level headed and sturdy American.

THE TELEGRAM publishes, free, brief death notices and marriage reports but long articles upon such subjects must be paid for. Usually $1.50 will pay for an obituary or a wedding report of ordinary length and several copies of the paper containing same are sent to the interested parties without extra charge.

Our many friends who were so thoughtful as to come in and attend to their subscriptions during the past week will please accept our heartfelt thanks. Are there no others? Bring your printing to the TELEGRAM office where you get good work at reasonable rates.

We want to add to our already large subscription list 5,000 new names by January 1st, 1894. The TELEGRAM is the best family newspaper in Central West Virginia. Try it, only $1.50 per year.

For fine artistic job work of the latest design try this office. All work guaranteed.

The illegal naturalization of aliens has become a grave evil. This menace to American citizenship is nowhere so great as in New York and Brooklyn. Tammany and McLaughlin Ring have for years made it their business to evade the intent and purpose of existing laws by manufacturing "citizens" by wholesale just before every election.

THE New Orleans Picayune comes up to applaud the Republican party for what it has done for the sugar industry of the South. It is a rank Democratic organ but it klick when the sugar problem is touched by Mr. Wilson. It says: The whole theory of the bounty is that its allowance by the Government will enable the people to build up a domestic sugar industry which will in time supply the wants of American consumers.

Why should any workingman, merely because of party obligation, vote to destroy the protection that has built up the factory which gives him work, and that makes his wages higher than the wages of the same class of workmen abroad? Why should the business man make a political question of the tariff, when by so doing he votes against his material interests? Why should a farmer ask for a free market here for the farm products of Canada in competition with his own produce, simply because his party platform says he must? Let the American people discuss the tariff question not from the standpoint of politics, but of business and patriotism.

1. Let every society in Harrison, Doddridge, Lewis, Upshur, Braxton and Webster counties send a delegation. And churches having no society send their pastor if they want to study the workings of Christian Endeavor.

And of all vain theories, the vainest is that of free trade. EVERY day we see some new evidence of the disaster that the American people invited when they turned this country over to Clevelandism.

A number of large iron mills in the West have resumed work; many woolen mills in New England started up again. Republican victories have encouraged industries. Many of the manufacturers think the people are unwilling to destroy this country's prosperity and they have started the factories, assured that we cannot have a very long siege of Clevelandism.
