West Virginia Building at the World's Fair, St. Louis.

West Virginia Building.

The West Virginia building at the St. Louis World's Fair was selected by the West Virginia Commission after a spirited contest by twelve of the leading architects of the State. The Commission met in April and then in St. Louis in May. After carefully considering the plans submitted, they selected those submitted by M. F. Giesey and F. F. Faris of Wheeling.

The building will be Colonial with classical domes on the corners and large domes in the center, which will form an observatory from which the West Virginia visitors will get a good view of the buildings and grounds. The building will cover a space of 100x120 feet including the porches and terraces. There will be porches sixteen feet wide on the front and two sides of the building and ten feet wide in the rear. The building will be 76x76 feet.

THE STATE GAME LAWS.

Changes Made Keep Sportsmen Guessing.

There seems to be a great deal of misunderstanding among the sportsmen about the game laws.

The laws which effect hunting in West Virginia follow:

A non-resident's license is required in West Virginia obtainable from State Game Wardens; fee $15. The game laws read:

Game Birds, Squirrels, Hare, Rabbit—Section 11.—It shall be unlawful for any person to kill any ruffed grouse, pheasant, pinnated grouse, prairie chicken or wild turkey, between the 15th day of December and the 15th day of October following, or any quail or Virginia partridge between the 20th day of December and the first day of November following, nor shall any person kill more than twelve quails or partridges in any one day; or any blue winged teal, mallard or wood duck, or any other wild duck, wild goose or brant, at any time between the 1st day of April and the 1st day of October; or any snipe except between the 1st day of March and the first day of July, and the first day of November, inclusive; or any squirrel, rabbit or hare, between the 1st day of January and the 15th day of the September following:

Provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to prevent resident land-owners of this state from catching, killing, injuring or pursuing in the manner prescribed by law any such squirrel, rabbit or hare at any time upon their own lands. And it shall be unlawful for any person at any time to catch by seine, net or trap, any wild turkey, ruffed grouse, pheasant, quail or Virginia partridge, or to kill any wild turkey on bait. And it shall be unlawful for any person by the use of any swivel or pivot gun, or by the aid of any push boat or sneak boat used for carrying such guns to kill upon any of the waters, bogs, rivers marshes, mud flats, or to any cover to which wild fowl resort within this state, any wild duck, wild goose, or brant.

Deer: Game Export—Section 1: No person shall kill any deer from the 15th day of December until the 15th day of October, except tame deer owned by the person killing the same. Nor shall any person kill more than two deer in any one season. No person shall chase or hunt deer with dogs at any time. No person shall at any time kill any fawn when in its spotted coat or have the fresh skin of any such fawn in his possession. No person shall at any time kill or have in possession any deer, wild turkey, quail, pheasant or ruffed grouse, or any part of the same, with the intention of sending or transporting the same or having the same sent or transported beyond the limits of this State.

Grand Old Play to be Given a Big Revival.

F. R. Hallam's elaborate revival of "Damon and Pythias" will be presented at the Huntington Theatre on the night of October 17th under the auspices of Huntington Lodge, No. 33, Knights of Pythias.

The attitude of some of the papers to Governor White on the subject of taxing the railroads is unjust to the Governor. While it is true that he is a member of the Board of Public Works, he has no power to control that body. The truth is that Mr. White has incurred the enmity of the railroads by his official attitude. A majority of the Board of Public Works refused to accept his ideas in the matter. No reasonable person will attempt to hold him responsible for the action of his colleagues.—Parkersburg State Journal.

Dieting Invites Disease.

To cure Dyspepsia or indigestion it is no longer necessary to live on milk and toast. Starvation produces such weakness that the whole system becomes an easy prey to disease. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that one cares to eat, and is a never failing cure for indigestion, Dyspepsia and all stomach troubles. Kodol digests what you eat—makes the stomach sweet. Sold by W. M. Bloss, Ceredo; R. N. Williams, Kenova.

MR. LANG says that Athens was saved from intellectual perdition only by having no printing presses and no newspapers. He must have been thinking of the yellow journals.
