A SHAM BATTLE has been fought at Bull Run between soldiers in our standing army. Just why this spot was selected, or why there is any sham battle at all is past explanation, except that there is a whole lot of money to be used up, and certain "Big Ikes" in the army want to see something that looks like fighting and desire to show off the brilliance of their uniform. These military and naval maneuvers are a fad of some governments which have never yet demonstrated any use for sending men with blank cartridges to capture forts without cannon. It is all very much like chasing an anise bag and think you are hunting a fox — Wheeling Telegraph.

REPORTS from Virginia are to the effect that there is a great indifference in the State about the Presidential campaign. It is said that the people just keep going about their business and pay no attention to politics. Even Senator Daniel says he is "tired of being everlastingly in the minority." Virginia takes it for granted that President Roosevelt will be elected. And so does the rest of the world.

The statement in the Republican platform that "A Democratic tariff has always been followed by business adversity, and a Republican tariff by business prosperity" is true to the very letter. Not only has a Democratic tariff always brought business adversity but even tariff agitation with a doubt that protection might be followed by free trade, has brought bankruptcy and hard times and a panic in every instance.

A REPUBLICAN vote, larger than usual, may be expected in the South, owing to the fact that there will be a large cotton crop, with high prices and prosperity as a result. The war in the East and the deficiency of wheat in Europe, will make large demands on this country for those staples. Altogether the future outlook, from a business point of view is cheering, and the South will behold the vision with the same satisfaction as the rest of the nation.

JUDGING from Republican gains in Vermont and Democratic losses in Arkansas Roosevelt will be elected by a large majority.

A MOVEMENT is on foot to erect a monument to the memory of the author of "Dixie," Daniel Decatur Emmett, at Mt. Vernon, Ohio.

HON. W. W. WHITE, of McDowell county, was nominated by acclamation for State Senator, by the Republicans at Williamsport the 5th inst. He will be elected by a large majority.

HON. JOHN H. SNODGRASS, President of the West Virginia Republican League, is now manager of that interesting and progressive paper—the Wheeling Telegraph. Mr. Snodgrass is a first-class newspaper man.

YES, Bro. Brown, of the West Virginia Argus, the CEREDO ADVANCE, as long as it is controlled by the present editor, will stand up for Wayne county and its people—regardless of politics or anything else.

SENATOR FAIRBANKS has been touring the west. He comes back refreshed and encouraged. He says he thinks he has seen evidences in Missouri that people of that State have determined to put a magnificent Republican in the governor's office.

SAM MATHEWS, of the Auditor's office, has returned from a trip to Wayne county and reports everything all right in that section of the State.—Charleston Mail.

Of course everything is all right in Wayne county; why shouldn't it be? Don't you know the CEREDO ADVANCE is published in Wayne?

Not until the 20th inst. will the Republican campaign open in Maryland, with a mass meeting in Baltimore, the chief speaker at which will be Senator Fairbanks. As a matter of course he will advert to the general prosperity which prevails in that State, and will congratulate the citizens of Baltimore upon their splendid recovery from the effects of the great fire, which at one time portended a national calamity. The Maryland campaign is to be short, sharp and decisive.

THE Republican State Executive Committee has made a wise selection in the appointment of Roy B. Naylor for manager of the press bureau. Mr. Naylor's long identification with the press of Wheeling and his knowledge of State politics makes him a valuable man to any party.—Wheeling Telegraph.

Mr. Naylor is all right and will prove a valuable acquisition to the party workers at State headquarters. It seems that those in charge of the State Campaign see the need of the co-operation of the Republican press in this campaign and are appealing to it for assistance, although the State convention failed to recognize it.

THE ADVANCE has for almost twenty years aided the Republican party in a campaign, in every way possible, and is now ready to do its full share of the work in the present campaign.

Opening of Campaign.

Next Saturday, the 17th inst., the Republicans will formally open their campaign in this State.

The speakers on this occasion will be: Hon. Charles W. Fairbanks, candidate for Vice President; Senator Stephen B. Elkins, Senator N. B. Scott, Hon. W. M. O. Dawson, candidate for Governor; and all other candidates for State offices; Hon. A. B. White, present Governor; the five Congressmen of this State; Hon. B. B. Davenport, Hon. A. G. Dayton, Hon. Joseph H. Gaines, Hon. Harry C. Woodyard and Hon. Jas. A. Hughes; Ex-Governor G. W. Atkinson, Hon. Charles F. Teter, and others. The speaking will take place during the day.

A rate of $1.50 for the round trip from Kenova has been secured on the B. & O. for that day and a special train will leave Parkersburg after the meeting to bring excursionists home.

It is dead easy for a millionaire to pose as a reformer.

WHEN one remembers the long, fierce opposition which the Democrats made during the last session of Congress to the ratification of the Panama treaty, it is at least noticeable that the whole question of the canal has been dropped in the present campaign. Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte, writing from Baltimore, says: "Our adversaries condemn the means whereby our opportunity to build the canal was acquired as robbery and a national disgrace; but they show no disposition whatever to undo the wrong they denounce; they declare the goods stolen, but they propose to keep and use as their own these stolen goods."

It is rumored that Governor White will appoint C. E. Haddox, Warden of the Penitentiary, Tax Commissioner. The salary attached is $4,000 a year and expenses. It is the best office in point of salary within the gift of the Governor and Haddox will be a lucky fellow if he secures it.

HON. C. D. MERRICK, of Parkersburg, the candidate on the Prohibition ticket for Attorney General, is one of the ablest lawyers in the State. Although he never touches, taste nor handles intoxicants, and would make an admirable State official, his chances for election are rather slim.

The Palace Hotel, Sixth and Vine Streets, Cincinnati, is a gem in the way of service at rates, $2.00 and $2.50, or $3.00 with bath, per day on the American plan, $2.00 upwards, European plan.
