TEUTONS SUCCEED IN EAST DISTRICTS

Attacking along a Forty-Mile Front Central Powers Forces Make Good Progress.

Between the Ancre river and the Pozieres-Bapaume road on the Somme front in northern France, British troops after successfully checking an offensive movement by the forces of Crown Prince Rupprecht of Bavaria, attacked successfully and pushed forward from 300 to 500 yards on a front 5,000 yards.

The Germans also attacked strongly the French positions at Saillly-Saillies, on Bapaume-Peronne road, as well as positions between Baches and La Maisonette, near Peronne.

Striking hard against the Russian and Rumanian line in Dobruja, Field Marshal von Mackensen has renewed successfully his offensive toward the Constanza Tchernavada railroad.

On the Danube, the allied German, Bulgarian and Turkish troops have forced their way into the Entente positions south of Rachoza. Along the Black sea, on the other end of the line, Tula was captured and several heights further inland were conquered.

A German cruiser of the Kolberg class was torpedoed by a British submarine in the North sea last Thursday. The cruiser remained afloat although apparently damaged severely.

Count Karl Suerkch, premier of Austria, has been shot and killed, says a semi-official report from Berlin.

The first anniversary of the opening of the K. and H. barber shop on West Pike street was celebrated at midnight Saturday night with an oyster supper given by Austin Meyers, proprietor of the shop, to his employees.

A musical program was a feature of the entertainment with Arthur H. Sawyers taking the leading role.

Mr. Wood acted as toastmaster in his usual happy style, calling on each of those present for a short talk.

Mr. Myers, the host, discussed the political situation at length, concluding his talk by making the prediction that J. Frank Hanly, prohibition nominee for the presidency, would be sent to the White House by an overwhelming majority.

Replying to Mr. Myers' prediction, Joseph Luthringer, in a scathing arraignment of the two major political organizations, declared that he was supporting "Butch" Meloyitt, the Wilkes Barre millionaire-for-a-day, for president.

Those enjoying the affair were EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 21.—A report was received here by army officers here today that four American soldiers were under arrest on the Mexican side of the border near Juarez.

WALTON ARRESTED FOR A BIG ROBBERY

Confesses to Dallas Police That He Robbed Pay Car of the Burroughs Company.

DALLAS, Tex., Oct. 21.—Today Dallas police arrested a man who gave the name of James Walton, and his address as 311 Krause street, St. Louis, Mo., who the police say confessed to the $22,000 robbery of a pay car of the Burroughs Adding Machine Company in Detroit several weeks ago.

Walton said according to police statement that he believed that he fired one of the shots which wounded the pay car's guard, but only after his (Walton's) companion had been wounded.

The police made a search of Walton's rooms in a suburb and found hidden under a chiffonier $400 in bills, a large number of cartridges, some electrical instruments and a pistol.

Walton said according to police statement that he believed that he fired one of the shots which wounded the pay car's guard, but only after his (Walton's) companion had been wounded.

SAMPLES

Former Democratic Nominee for Prosecuting Attorney Joins Republican Party.

GRAFTON, Oct. 21.—Hon. W. P. Samples, a leading member of the local bar, prominent and active in Democratic party affairs in this county, and who four years ago was the nominee of his party for prosecuting attorney, has made public announcement of his allegiance to the Republican party.

In his statement to the local press, he says among other things, that "after careful study of political history covering a period of twenty years and a personal observation and study of local politics and conditions, county and state, I am forced to the conclusion that the Democratic party is not the party to trust the sacred rights of the people, and to subvert the best interests of the country."

Mr. Samples' change of party affiliation is the political sensation of the hour here. The local committee has invited Mr. Samples to go on the stump, and he will probably address several meetings in this county before the campaign closes.

HATFIELD'S TOUR OF PANHANDLE HELPS TICKET

Even in Home of Cornwell, Governor Gets a Most Enthusiastic Reception.

ROMNEY, Oct. 21.—Governor Henry D. Hatfield has just completed a most remarkable tour of Hampshire and Hardy and Grant counties, in which he delivered twelve speeches to audiences that were remarkable for their size, interest and enthusiasm.

Among the ones who stayed away were the editor of St. Cornwall's paper, the Hampshire Review, and W. B. Cornwell, a brother of the candidate.

The reception that the governor was given in the Democratic counties of Hampshire and Hardy threw such a scare into Cornwell's local managers that they sent out an SOS call at once, and C. W. Osenton, of Fayette county, was billed in after him, as "going to expose the rottenness of the Hatfield administration."

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The so-called transcontinental railroad rate case involving rates on a vast traffic in commodities between the Pacific coast and the East, was ordered reopened by the Interstate Commerce commission, it was announced late today.

WILL REDUCE MAJORITY

In Hampshire county the Republicans expect to reduce the Democratic majority by 200. There are many Democrats in this county who are not supporting Cornwell. Several of them, after the meeting at Romney, frankly informed Governor Hatfield that this year they were voting the straight Republican ticket.

BRITISH TROOPS NOW ADVANCING

HANLY In Fine Style While the Enemy Puts Up But a Small Show of Resistance.

LONDON, Oct. 21.—The following joint despatch dated this evening has been received from the British war correspondents' headquarters in France:

"The last two days of blue skies and hard cold winds has resulted in a general drying of the ground in the battle area, again permitting activity. The British troops have already taken advantage of the improvement.

"Shortly after noon today, following a hurried bombardment, an attack was delivered along a front of about 5,000 yards, extending from north of Mouquet farm in the direction of Le Sars. Our infantry advanced in fine style and the enemy, apparently surprised put up a comparatively small show of resistance. A trench, which the Germans had seemingly already found untenable, was occupied and various useful positions were secured. Our casualties are said to have been very light. About 200 prisoners have already passed through."

AUSTRIAN COUNT

(Continued from page 1, first section.) public works in the cabinet formed in 1909 at the retirement of which, in October, 1911, he was asked to form a new ministry.

Born at Graz. The count was born in 1859 at Graz, was educated at the University of Graz and entered the service of the state in 1881. He began his parliamentary career on March 12, 1891. He was elected to the Reichs Rath in 1894 he became a ministerial director in the department of which he afterward became the head. In the interval he was out of office for a time, resigning after the fall of the Winiarske-Graetz cabinet.

Telegraphing from Vienna a few days ago, a correspondent of the Vossische Zeitung of Berlin, said a ministerial crisis in Austria was considered unavoidable.

Political Strife. The despatch did not specify the reasons and little information has reached this country in regard to current Austrian political conditions. Although there have been many despatches in regard to political strife in Hungary, the Austrian parliament has not been in session since before the war.

One of the few occasions on which the count's name has figured in the American press during the war, was in August of last year, when he was interviewed by an American correspondent.

He was quoted as having said that although some of the Teutonic expansionists favored extreme terms he was sure the German government and influential citizens would hold to moderate demands, thus hastening the end of hostilities.
