

Town Talk

THE WEATHER.

West Virginia—Fair tonight and night. Sunday; colder to Local Readings. F. P. Hall, Ob. Temperature at 8 a. m. today, 36. Yesterday's weather, rain; temperature minimum, 26; precipitation, .80.

EVENTS TONIGHT.

Normal School Gym—Basketball, University vs. Fairmont Normal. Maccabee Hall—Meeting of United Commercial Travelers.

Today's Legal Transfers—George W. Ice, et al. to Dock L. Wilson lots 11 and 12, block 10 of the Ice Addition to Barrackville, consideration $500. G. W. Ice to Eliza Wilson lots 29 and 30 in the Ice Addition to Barrackville, consideration $500. George W. Ice to Eliza Wilson lots 7 and 8 in block 10 in Ice Addition to Barrackville, consideration $500. Eliza Wilson to Fairmont and Monongahela Coal Company, 149 acres on Moody's Run, Fairmont tract, $1 and other valuable considerations. H. L. Wilfong to South View Realty Company, lot on Cleveland avenue, consideration $1200.

Dr. Kelley Here—Dr. W. C. Kelley, a prominent physician of Morgantown, spent yesterday in this city in consultation with local health officials in regard to the infantile paralysis situation. Dr. Kelley attended the meeting last night was addressed by Dr. C. G. Bull of New York.

Lifting Quarantine—The quarantines placed upon residences of this city where a case of infantile paralysis existed or does exist are gradually being lifted by the city health authorities and a few days will see all restrictions removed. Several quarantines have been lifted from homes this week and several will be lifted the first of the week.

Programs Issued—The program for the 47th annual meeting of the West Virginia State Education association has been issued. The program contains the names of a number of prominent educators who will deliver addresses. The meeting will be held in Huntington June 13, 14 and 15.

Appendicitis Operation—Dr. Carter Fleming underwent an operation for appendicitis this morning at Cook hospital. Dr. J. W. Donald, C. W. Waddell and E. P. Smith were the operating physicians. His condition this afternoon was reported as satisfactory. Dr. Fleming has had several attacks of appendicitis and last night suffered another.

Last Call For Raymond Tickets—Monday noon has been set as the time limit for reservations to the supper to be served by the Business Men's Association and the talk of Frank Jewel Raymond, the Billy Sunday of business. The talk, with the supper thrown in, will be 75 cents. The other evening in the Chamber of Commerce at Harrisburg, Pa., 1,200 men heard his talk and hundreds were turned away.

Back to Morgantown—Mary Goodwin, 14-year-old girl who wanted to come to Fairmont because it was a faster place than Morgantown, was taken home by her mother this morning after police had captured the runaway yesterday evening. Mary has been staying with friends here for the past few days but was identified by local officers from a telephone description.

New Store Opened—The Peoples Clothing company opened their store at 325 Madison street this morning, a complete line of men's and women's clothing being placed on exhibition. The store is a branch of the Kaufman stores of New York.

Will Endorse Health Authorities—On next Sunday morning Dr. Mitchell of the Central Christian church will present to his congregation a resolution commending our health officers, School Board, Board of City Commissioners, daily papers, Senator Clarence Watson and Dr. Bull for their faithful interest in guarding the health of our children and their timely solicitude for the communities' welfare. In the evening Dr. Mitchell will speak on the high cost of living and how to reduce it.

Captain Bryant Recovering—Victor Bryant, captain of the Salvation Army, who was operated on yesterday at Cook hospital, is getting along nicely with good prospects of an early recovery.

Station Discontinued—Application has been made to the Public Service Commission by the Baltimore and Ohio railroad for permission to discontinue Rivesville as a passenger stop.

Change at McCrory Store—H. G. Lambert, who for three years has been manager of the local five and ten cent store, will leave in a few days for New York city where he will accept a position as manager of a similar establishment owned by the same firm of McCrory & Co. Mr. Lambert will be succeeded in the management of the local store by J. E. Harris, of Ohio, who for several years has been engaged in this work.

Will Visit in Berkeley—County Agricultural Agent H. L. Smith will leave Sunday for a short visit with his family in Berkeley county. He goes to attend to some business matters but expects to combine business with pleasure. Mr. Smith will return Wednesday and will attend a farmers' club meeting to be held at the Flat Run school house in Mannington district Wednesday night.

Children's Work Resumed—With ban against the assembling of children in public places lifted, the work of the Junior and Intermediate classes at the "Y" has been resumed. All new members are urged to report at once in order that they may be assigned to their classes and get lined up with the work from the start. Those who cannot swim will be given private instruction in the art by Instructor G. W. Blickey.

Pleaded Guilty—Roy Moulton, who Thursday night became incensed and assaulted a traveling salesman because of stories the man was telling of the treatment of negroes in the south, appeared before Justice Conway last night, confessed, was fined $25 and sentenced to thirty days in jail, which was the heaviest penalty that could be imposed for the offense.

Boys Out on Bond—Pete Petroff, Steve Smith and Steve Tanovich, who were implicated in the theft of brass from the Traction company at Farmington, were given another hearing before Justice Conway last night. The parents of the lads gave bond for their reappearance next Wednesday and they were released. They stated at this hearing that Israel Snider, a junk dealer at Farmington, not only sent them for the goods but provided a wrench with which to secure the fixtures and it is probable that a warrant will be issued for Snyder today.

No Exams Here—Civil Service examinations for stenographers and typewriters were scheduled to be held at Grafton, Clarksburg and Fairmont today. However no applications were filed at the local postoffice and no examination was given here.

First Presbyterian Church—Dr. Chas. Edwin Bishop, of Morgantown, W. Va., will preach at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow morning and evening.

No Marriage Licenses—Cupid observed the National Holiday and no marriage licenses were issued by the County Clerk's office yesterday or today.

Returned From Honeymoon—Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Shroyer, new Newberger whose marriage was a recent event returned yesterday from a wedding journey which included visits to Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington. At Washington they were guests for a day of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Conaway formerly of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Shroyer have taken up their residence at Belview.

Helped Himself—Alonso Hicks, who was arrested on a warrant issued by the Squire Musgrave charging him with helping himself to tid-bits from the fruit stand of Charley Delgatti on Madison street arranged with Tony to pay the costs and was dismissed.

Charles H. Morin

of Pennsville, O.

Evangelist

Starts a Series of Meetings Saturday, Feb. 24, 1917, and continuing indefinitely at the CHURCH OF CHRIST Barrackville, W. Va. Everybody invited to come and bring your friends.

DROWNING AT CONNELLSVILLE

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Feb. 24.—Sarl Lloyd, 9, was drowned this afternoon when he fell into a water pit at the West Penn Power plant here while fleeing from the edge of the river trying to escape an ice gorge which had broken some distance above. A brother was drowned last July.

SAXON ROADSTER

One of the many features that proves Saxon Roadster to be the top-place low-priced car is its 3 speed transmission. Among the costly cars this is the only type of transmission used.

Saxon Roadster is $495 F. O. B. Detroit

Specifications: New style body, more room, two unit electric starting and lighting, demountable rims, 30x3 inch tires, new style top with Grecian rear bow electric horn, extra tire carrier, speedometer, new design of carburetor, L-head high-speed motor of unusual power, smoothness, quietness and flexibility, 3-speed sliding gear transmission Timken axles, Hyatt quiet bearings, vanadium steel cantilever springs, ventilating windshield and a score more of noteworthy refinements.

West Virginia Lexington Sales Co. CLARKSBURG, W. VA. DISTRIBUTORS

Bell 1780

Consol. 27

T O D A Y

Your Last Opportunity to Buy

UNDERSELLING

CLEAN SWEEP SALE

BARGAINS

ORIGINATORS AND LEADERS

FAIRMONT GRAFTON WESTON BLUMBERG BROS. CO. UNDERSELLING STORE OF LOW PRICES IN FAIRMONT

Uniform Rank W. O. W. Take Notice.

We are trying to get at least 16 men together once more. We have not had this number at a meeting since we went to Parkersburg. This is the last appeal from your captain. Be present Monday evening, February 26, 1917 in full uniform. There will be eats for your enjoyment, and lots doing. W. C. Daugherty, Captain.

NELSON Monday

THE MOTH AND THE FLAME.

Two part drama.

LUKE'S NEWSIE KNOCKABOUT

A Luke comedy.

HERE AND THERE IN SPAIN

Educational

HEARST PATHE NEWS

Scenic.

TONIGHT Is Marriage Sacred? Helen Gibson; Only a Rose.

Smith Hood, Pres. M. A. Fletcher, Treas. J. L. Leech, Sec'y.

Every Convenience for Our Patrons

We cordially invite our patrons and their friends to visit us in our new banking rooms directly across the street from our former location. They are centrally located, have spacious lobbies and afford a desirable place for you to meet your friends.

A cheerful, friendly atmosphere pervades the place, and you will enjoy transacting your business here. Competent and obliging bank clerks are at your service ready to offer any suggestion or advice that may be of benefit to you.

In short, every good feature that has contributed to the success of the Fairmont Trust Company in the past will be found in our new quarters in even greater measure.

We cordially solicit your patronage on the basis of Safety, Service and Satisfaction

Fairmont Trust Company

Board of Directors

Smith Hood, Pres.	J. Walter Barnes, Vice Pres.
Festus Downs, Vice Pres.	M. A. Fletcher, Treas.
J. A. Jamison, Vice Pres.	C. L. Shaver,
J. B. Crowl	Jno. F. Phillips	Lee Swisher
W. G. Ganoe	J. E. Dowden	M. E. Fetty
J. H. Beckman	T. L. Burchinal	J. E. Anderson
J. W. McDonald	G. M. Alexander	M. M. Neely
Geo. T. Watson	James O. Watson	Walton Miller
H. B. Meredith	C. S. Riggs	John Guy Prichard.
M. E. Ashcraft	Chas. G. Hood	C. D. Robinson

Nor will it be necessary for the Federal Government to probe into the cause for the advance

HERE IT IS

In a year or so, Fairmont will be the leading city in the state. Millions of dollars are being spent in building factories, and in the development of its natural resources. These industries must have men to manufacture their products, and there must be more young men and women to handle the business of these concerns. Payroll departments, bookkeeping departments, stenographic departments, shipping departments, all these will require young men and women of brains and training.

The Union Business College of Fairmont is Going to Furnish These Trained Men and Women

And in order to give Fairmont industries the best trained minds we have had to PREPARE. A complete new typewriter equipment consisting of the newest and latest machines on the market have been bought.

Desk equipment of the latest design is in transit. Much other equipment to enable us to teach more modern business is contemplated. Instructors of thorough experience and accomplishments are to be boasted of.

The tuition rates of the Union Business College of Fairmont are one fourth to one third lower than those of surrounding commercial schools. To make Union Business College of Fairmont better than the best and always maintain it better than the best, or 100 per cent efficient, it is necessary to advance our tuition rates 20 per cent.

There Are a Few Days Left in Which You May Enroll at the Old Rate

If it is not possible for you to attend the school for a few months, contract for a scholarship and a payment on it will entitle you to the old rate, and you may enter any time before July 1st.

Business is the Best Paying Business, and a Business Education is the Best Medium to a Successful Business Career. Remember, Only a Few More Days Left in Which to Enroll at the Cheaper Rate. ACT QUICKLY.

UNION BUSINESS COLLEGE

Jacobs Building

of Fairmont, W. Va.

Bell Phone 1091-R