Home Study Necessary For Successful High School Work
For successful work in four subjects in the high school, from two to three hours of regular and systematic home study are necessary.

Parents should see to it that definite hours for home study are provided and that these hours are strictly adhered to by the pupils. The habit of having definite times for this study in the homes will do much toward making the work successful in the high school.

Too much money given to boys or girls of high school age for spending is unwise. Boys and girls who are lavish in their unnecessary expenditures set a bad example for others in the high school.

A very satisfactory launch can be secured at the high school lunch room for fifteen or twenty cents.

Camp Fire Ceremonial
After a year of successful work the Monongahela Camp Fire Girls met on Friday the ninth of the Cris Moon in the High school auditorium.

by the Cheesman, the Chief guardian, the following circles responding: Elizabeth, Neenan, Wagoneta and Wood Spirits. A new circle of girls called Musava (lovers of music and nature) was then taken into the comradeship of the council.

The stunts which formed the latter part of the program were very unique and represented the eight crafts of Camp Fire honors. One of the most appropriate of these was one presenting patriotism and it showed that the Camp Fire Girls are truly patriotic for when the opening chords of the National Anthem were played every one present arose.
