

INTERNATIONAL Sunday School Lesson

(By E. O. SELLERS, Acting Director of the Sunday School Course in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.)

LESSON FOR APRIL 8

JESUS RAISED LAZARUS FROM THE DEAD—EASTER LESSON.

LESSON TEXT—John 11:17-27, 48, 44. (Read 17 to 44.)

This lesson occurred about two months before the crucifixion, Jesus being in Bethabara at the time of this call.

The Lesson of Unbelief. Bethany, the home of Lazarus, is on the southeastern slope of Mt. Olivet, two miles from Jerusalem.

The Lesson of Pain. The suffering of these sisters produced sacrifice and self-devotion. Suffering brings blessing to others.

The Lesson of Love. Love always manifests itself in deeds. Martha secretly and quickly arose and left the wailing friends to go and meet the waiting Master.

The Lesson of Power. Jesus had let natural causes work to their fullest extent. Coming to the tomb, Jesus said (v. 39), "Take ye away the stone."

The effect of the miracle was twofold. Many who were present believed on Jesus, others did not.

Some went to the Pharisees to relate what they had seen, only to meet with rebuff.

The resurrection of Lazarus proves that our earthly existence is only temporary, that our real existence is eternal.

BITS OF STATE NEWS

Two fine Poland China sows were shipped this way by rail last Thursday, says the Weston Free Press.

Speaking of hogs, Squire C. W. Talbot sold a brood-sow at the W. W. Wetzel sale the first of last week.

Despite the higher prices offered under contracts, a large number of the coal operators in the Clarksburg mining region, according to the Clarksburg Telegram, have decided not to make contracts for their output the coming year.

The following is from the Weston Free Press of this week: Today friends of Levi Bond, Harrison county's "grand old man," are assembled to celebrate his 100th birthday anniversary at the Odd Fellows' Hall in the little town of Lost Creek where he has lived out a full century.

Browning has given us a wonderfully imaginative picture of his reawakened life on earth:

As if he saw again and heard again his sage that bade him rise, and he did rise. The effect of the miracle was twofold. Many who were present believed on Jesus, others did not.

pected to be paid for, the purpose being to raise $100 as a birthday present for the venerable centenarian.

"What's your opinion about votes for women?" "It's a great proposition," replied Mr. Meekton. "It has smashed all the arguments Henrietta used to give me about the precious hours I spent talking politics."
