No Need for Delay.
Johnny was invited to a party, but could not go, because he had to go with his mother to the depot to meet his uncle. Upon the uncle's arrival he said to Johnny: "If you are a good boy while I am here I will buy you a baseball," whereupon Johnny replied: "You don't need to wait. You can buy it right away. Just think how good I was—I stayed away from a party to meet you."

Holland's Great Dikes.
One of the great dikes of Holland is 40 miles long, starting far up in the country, near the Yssel river, and continuing across the Hook of Holland to the sea. It was built in sections, and for seven centuries has held back the waters from the low-lying fields. It is 40 feet broad at the base, 35 feet broad at the top, and its height varies from 25 to 35 feet.

Once Was Enough.
"What do you think of the burly brute who would go away, on a bitter cold morning, and leave his wife to build a fire in the furnace?" asked Mrs. Lerret. "That is something I've never told anybody but my husband," laughed Mrs. Yaddiloh. "And I had to tell him only once."—Puck.

What Makes a Man Rich.
No man can tell whether he is rich or poor by turning to his ledger. It is the soul that makes a man rich. He is rich or poor according to what he is, not according to what he has.—Henry Ward Beecher.
