CANT GET GAMES FOR CONSOL. TEAM

Manager McAteer Will Take on a County Team If He Can.

After untiring efforts in this section of the state, in Maryland and in Pennsylvania, Manager McAteer of the Consolidation Coal Company baseball club has been unable to secure a game for his team.

Because of the team Park being quarantined, the team cannot schedule any games at home. Manager McAteer has just returned from a trip in Pennsylvania and Maryland trying to arrange a trip but has been unsuccessful. He states that he could secure all the games he wanted at home but because of financial difficulties could not arrange any out of town games.

The management is now trying to schedule with some of the county teams for a game Sunday but has not as yet reached any agreement.

Good Game Tonight On East Park Ground

Hopewell and the First M. P. team will clash on the East Park diamond at 6:15 this evening, and although the game is between the league leaders and the rear guard the latter have strengthened their team considerably since their last game and this contest is expected to prove interesting. Hopewell has been going strong while the First M. P. team has been strengthened recently and is prepared now to "come back."

WHAT'S A MISSING LEG OR TWO? CRIPPLED SWIMMERS DON'T WORRY ABOUT MISFORTUNE

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Aug. 3.—Sheer grit and love of life is nowhere more apparent than in those who overcome physical impediment and gain the pleasures which the more physically fortunate enjoy.

Three of the best swimmers and divers on the Pacific coast lack, among them, four legs. Two of these young men have but one leg; the third has both legs amputated above the ankles. They are Lincoln Johnson, of the San Francisco Olympic club; Arthur Kidder, of the University of California, and C. Roper, who lost both legs in a railroad accident. Johnson is known wherever swimmers congregate.

His trapeze diving is remarkable. Kidder recently represented the University in competition against the Los Angeles Athletic club. He made a fine showing. Roper, who sells papers for a living, possesses a remarkably fine physique and is a familiar figure at San Francisco Bay water resorts.

SPORT CHATTER

Detroit police commissioner stopped betting on the Grand Circuit races. He probably had never heard this was considered the "sport of kings" or else he didn't care a whoop what the kings said about it.

Contrary to general opinion Benny Leonard holds two titles. He's champion lightweight and champion alliber when it comes to telling why he doesn't enlist.

They don't take half-way measures in St. Louis. While every city on the National league circuit has been bombarding Empire Lord Byron with epithets, St. Louis used pop bottles.

We would like to have Jeff Willard as a bodyguard to strafe all the guys who ask, "Is it hot enough for you?"

Swimming has become more popular in Chicago than ever before. That's because they allow them to wear Annette Kellerman there.

BITS OF STATE NEWS

A deal in oil property in the lower part of the state of great magnitude is in negotiation, says the Parkersburg News, and it is quite likely that the deal will be concluded within a short time. The negotiations are between the South Penn Oil company, a subsidiary of the Standard Oil company, and the Big Creek Development company which has extensive oil and gas holdings in Lincoln and adjacent counties. It is claimed that the deal which has been practically closed will result in the early taking over of the property of the Big Creek Development company by the South Penn at a figure which is said to be close to $3,000,000. The field has been under development by the Big Creek Development company for about twelve years, having produced tremendously in the past, and is said to be still very rich. The remaining total is estimated at from four to five hundred producing oil wells, besides a number of producing gas wells, although the company has not turned its attention to the development of the gas territory included in its holdings.

Dr. Frank B. Trotter, president of the West Virginia University, has just recently returned from Fort Benjamin Harrison where he attended "Governor's Day" at the camp last Monday. President Trotter, says the Morgantown Post Chronicle, was especially well pleased with the showing made by the university men who are taking training there. At the luncheon given by General Glenn, commandant of the fort, the general took occasion to say that the West Virginia boys are making good, that the university boys are an exceptionally good lot of men and that the state and university should be proud of them. Dr. Trotter says that five or six university men have been made second lieutenants in the regular army.

A mysterious communication written on a postal card and signed "Yours truly, Black Cross," was received by the editor of the Parkersburg State Journal recently. The writer requested that the communication be published as it would be of invaluable assistance to him and, although it is customary to refuse to publish all anonymous articles, an exception was made in this case and the following message was published:

WARNING.
"My mission will be to right wrongs in this city.
"My methods will be legal and physical force in protecting the young womanhood and young manhood of this city. I will not apply the White-chapel method, but the reverse. My disguise will be that of a Lady, a Citizen, a Soldier. My principal task to wipe out streetwalkers. My identity will not be known."

According to the West Virginia Department of Agriculture Bulletin, the census of the peach crop for this year shows a crop of the popular fruit in this state that in size, color and richness of flavor is second to none in the United States. The apple crop is good also, especially in the Eastern Panhandle, where Berkeley county boasted a $1,000,000 crop last year, and the other fruit crops are good. Letters were sent recently by the National Agricultural department at Washington to all of the editors of the state, and about twenty-three other states where excessive crops have been reported, asking their co-operation in promoting the campaign for the preservation of fruit and other food stuffs and their response to this appeal has helped considerably. To prevent loss to the growers through inability to find a market for their products an arrangement has been made whereby it is possible for purchasers to get f. o. b. shipments by communicating with W. H. Somers, Special Agent of the Department of Agriculture, Berkeley Springs, W. Va.

When the board of Equalization and Review of Wheeling, completed the changing of the assessment books, about fifty acres had been added to the holdings of the Elm Grove Coal company as recorded in the book. Some of the property ordered cut off the assessors' books in 1867 was replaced after back taxes from that date had been paid by the company, with interest at the rate of six per cent.

LARGEST, FINEST SWIMMING POOL IN THE OHIO VALLEY

This is one of a series of reasons why UNITED WOOLEN CLOTHES are the best clothes tailored in America at the price.

REASON NO. 5

The modern method of teamwork is employed in our shops.

Each tailor performs a small part in the production of the whole garment thereby attaining the highest degree of skill and efficiency in that part of the work.

When the garment is completed it shows the handiwork of a set of artists in contrast to the old method of "one man" tailoring.

In addition to the turning out of higher class garments the cost of production is materially reduced.

Another very strong reason why UNITED WOOLEN CLOTHES are the best clothes tailored in America at the price.
