

IN THE FRONT ROW

HEADLINERS TONIGHT. Musical Comedy. Hippodrome ... Follies of a Day Photoplays.

THE Superba Theatre, Los Angeles, the "home of Bluebird photoplays," was packed to the door one night recently, the announcement having been made that Miss Dorothy Phillips would appear in person in connection with her picture, "The Rescue," and sing a new song.

The words were written by F. B. Silverwood, one of the leading men of the Southland, who is affectionately known as "Daddy" because of his many philanthropic acts which have earned for him a national reputation.

Miss Phillips said she had not heard her own voice for such a long time in a place of amusement that it "really almost frightened" her.

New Program at Hippodrome. "Follies of a Day" is a delightful musical concoction to be served by the American Girl Company to Hippodrome patrons for two days, beginning today.

Sarah Bernhardt in Dixie Feature. The dominant note in "Mothers of France," which is at the Dixie today, is its utter sincerity.

The final personal touch in this most personal drama is the appearance of Mme. Bernhardt in the leading role. Perhaps no living actress has so identified herself with her nation as she had with France and it is the last touch of poetical justice that gives her the role of mother to the soldiers of her country.

While the play was being shown at the Rialto, in New York, the enthusiasm of the audience suggested more the Rue de la Paix than Broadway.

"The Slacker" Draws Big Crowds. The showing of "The Slacker" at the Princess yesterday was the magnet for drawing unusual crowds, and those who witnessed this appealing war time drama were enthusiastic in their approval.

Nelson Has Good Variety. "The Pot of Gold" is given a top position on today's Nelson program. It is one of those exciting American Girl plays starring Marin Sals and furnishes an abundance of thrills.

another one of the few women now directing pictures. Miss Wilson's first release will soon be shown with Little Zoo as the star, the feature to be entitled "Hidden Treasures."

—The Paramount and Fox features are splendid additions to the Nelson's list of high-class photoplays.

—Eddie Lyons and Lee Moran are at work on a Universal Nestor in two reels, called by the working title of "The Shame of a Chaperone."

—Miss Mary Elizabeth Black, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Black, of Millcrest, left today for Mt. Vernon, O., to visit relatives.

—Mrs. George DeBolt and Mrs. Glenn F. Barns entertained a number of friends at an automobile picnic supper at Smithtown last evening.

—Miss Hazel Brookover, of Morgantown, is the guest of Miss Ruby Hees.

—Miss Elizabeth Hunsaker, who had spent the last several weeks in Jenkins, Ky., with relatives, came here today to visit her mother, Mrs. Isaac Hunsaker and her sister, Mrs. A. D. Palmer.

—The Misses Nell Blosser and May Wilson, who had been the guests of friends here, have returned to Morgantown.

—Miss Sabine Hill went to Morgantown yesterday to attend the West Virginia Conference of the M. P. church.

—Mr. and Mrs. Guy Waltz and children and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. James Weber and children, of Pittsburgh, went to Bordman, W. Va., today to visit relatives.

—Mrs. Josephine Haymond Concert Pianist, Vocalist, Teaches Choir and Chorus.

—Elsie Jane Wilson has lately been added to Bluebird's staff of producers, to compete with Ida May Park.
