THE "SWEETHEART MAIL" ARRIVES

Officers like to get letters from home as well as the rookies. This picture shows a scene at the postoffice at Camp Lewis, American Lake, Wash., crowded all day long with shifts of 1,500 officers in camp. They are as eager as schoolboys for the treasured missive from home.

It is one of the little things for you to do that will prove a big means in chasing away homesickness during the first weeks.

RIGHT ABOUT STREET BUT WRONG ON TOWN

Chief Harr Restores Two Lost Children After Some Little Difficulty.

Losing their way after they had made a purchase with a few cents that had been given to them, Virginia, aged 5 years and Lillian aged 2 1/2 years daughters of Clarence Ferby, McMechen, Marshall county, while on a visit with their mother to Fairmont caused much concern among their relatives and neighbors when they strolled away on Tuesday afternoon. The children were well on their way home when they decided to visit a store and make their little purchase. After this was done they became confused and could not find the streets they wanted. In the meantime their mother, who had been visiting her sister Mrs. M. C. Coughlin of No. 507 Maryland avenue, missed the children and a hunt was instituted for them. The children were found by Fred S. Harr, the chief of police, walking along Merchant street. They told that official they lived on Lincoln street and he proceeded at once to take them home. The eldest child was aware of the fact that the surroundings were not familiar to her and so she informed the chief. Later it developed that the children lived on Lincoln street, McMechen. They were restored to their mother when the mistake was straightened out.

THINGS WOMEN WEAR

Opens at 8:00 A. M. Closes at 5:00 P. M.

Unusual Variety

IS THE SEASON'S CHIEF FEATURE IN EVERY SECTION OF WOMEN'S APPAREL

THE NEW SUITS, COATS AND DRESSES ARE ALL "WEARABLE"—Another has set in—one that will be generally appreciated—for there is absence of EXTREME STYLES.

Because of this great variety—which is comprehensively and interestingly represented in COURTNEY'S assortments—no attempt will be made in the direction of Detailed Style Descriptions.

WITH SUCH WIDE LATITUDE IN CHOICE there is bound to result a condition of unusual satisfaction, arising from the fact that a really becoming model can be found for every individual.

IN Waists, Neckwear, Gloves, Hosiery, Corsets and other dress accessories—there is a very gratifying variety—Your Inspection will be appreciated.

CONCERNING THE MANY NEW, CHARMING Styles in Millinery

Millinery Styles for Fall and Winter are exceedingly simple and wearable. Another noteworthy feature is the absolute lack of style restriction, which is resulting in the sale of an unusually wide variety of types.

EDUCATORS DINE SUPT. TOOTHMAN

Head of County School System Will Leave Tomorrow for Camp Lee

Honoring Homer C. Toothman, county superintendent of schools of Marion county, an elegant dinner was served last evening at the Fairmont by prominent school men of the city. Mr. Toothman leaves with the local contingent of drafted men for Camp Lee at Petersburg, Va., on Thursday evening and the dinner was planned as a sort of farewell for Mr. Toothman who is popular among the local teaching fraternity, having done much for the cause of education throughout the county. Those who were present at the dinner were:

City Superintendent O. G. Wilson, President Joseph Bessier of the Fairmont State Normal school; W. E. Buckley, principal of the Butcher school; G. H. Colebank, principal of the Fairmont high school; H. L. Smith, county agricultural agent; Walter Barnes, head of the English department of the Fairmont Normal school; T. C. Moore, teacher of mathematics in the Fairmont high school; W. C. Michael, principal of the Rivesville high school; William M. Kennedy, former county superintendent; G. Ward, principal of Rivesville schools; W. A. Husted, superintendent of schools of Union independent district and the honor guest Homer C. Toothman.

MONONGAH

"The About Face."

Several local people have heard from P. H. McDonnell, the local boy who holds the honor of being the first Marion county man in the new National army in training at Petersburg. On a card recently received by C. A. Honaker McDonnell writes: "I am sure getting the 'about face.' Best regards to all my friends."

New Management.

Many local friends are sorry to hear of the departure of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Colvin and family who have recently moved to Owens, W. Va. Mr. Colvin is filling a responsible position as outside foreman at the Owens mine. Previous to his departure he was manager of the J. R. Lake general store. Mr. Lake who has been a traveling salesman is now in charge of his own store.

Child Dead.

Little Francis Daugherty aged about twelve years died yesterday evening at the home of T. G. Shackelford after an illness of about two weeks as a result of typhoid fever. The little girl was well known in and about Monongah and her death was a great shock to a host of friends.

gining September 23, the tenth annual session of the Laymen's Association of the same denomination will take place at the same place, the sessions to be held in the First Presbyterian church there.

Bishop Franklin Hamilton will address the session on Friday night and Saturday night and the session which will last through Friday and Saturday will be presided over by C. W. Flesher, of Gassaway, the president of the Yawmen's association.

Odd Fellows Grand Lodge Session Soon

Odd Fellows of Marion county are greatly interested in the session of the Grand Lodge, which will be held in Huntington, W. Va., on October 9, 10 and 11. The delegates from Marion county are: Walter H. Watson from Marion Lodge, No. 11, and J. A. Hess, from Palatine Lodge, No. 84. At the same time the Daughters of Rebekah, the women's branch, will meet in Huntington. Mrs. Joseph Wright will represent the local Rebecca Lodge.

Some of the high lights of the Grand Lodge meeting will be the report of the committee appointed to look into the advisability of locating an Odd Fellows temple in some part of the State; a revision of the constitution and by-laws of the Grand Lodge and action in regard to paying the dues of the young men who are called to the front.

DIZZY SPELLS

Relieved After Taking Two Bottles Of Cardui, Says Tennessee Lady.

Whitwell, Tenn.—Mrs. G. P. Cartwright, of this place, writes: "About four years ago the dizzy spells got so bad that when I would start to walk I would just pretty near fall. I wasn't past doing my work, but was very much run-down. I told my husband I thought Cardui would help me, as a lady who lived next door to me had taken a great deal, and told me to try it. This was when we were living in Kentucky. My husband got me a bottle and I took it according to directions. It helped me so much that he went back and got me another bottle. I got a whole lot better and just quit taking it. I got over the dizzy spells. I took no other medicine at that time for since for this trouble. No, I've never regretted taking Cardui. I felt just fine when I finished the second bottle. Purely vegetable, mild and gentle in its action, Cardui, the woman's tonic, may be the very medicine you need. If you suffer from symptoms of female troubles, give Cardui a trial. All druggists. NC-129"
