American Spent Some Time Looking for Wreckage From the Submarine But None Came to the Surface—
Encounter Occurred on Perfect Day

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.—Details of a fight between an American destroyer in European waters and a German submarine in which the submarine was destroyed by depth bombs were announced by the Navy department today.

The name of the destroyer and the time and place of engagement are withheld in Navy department announcement.

The American destroyer first sighted the submarine in the early morning of a clear day, says Secretary Daniels' announcement, which was prepared from the complete reports received by the Navy department.

"The sea was entirely calm with hardly a ripple. The submarine was running submerged with only her periscope showing. A large number of merchant ships were in sight. The U boat was less than a mile off the port beam of the destroyer and following a parallel course in the opposite direction when the periscope was discovered.

"It was throwing up a column of water several feet in height so like a nearby spent torpedo that the officer on the deck thought for a moment this was what it was.

"The next instance the destroyer changed its course sharply to the left and headed for the U-boat at full speed. At the same time the forward gun opened fire on the periscope. The com-

COMISKY PARK, October 6—Chicago White Sox, pennant winners of the National League, did battle today in the first phase of that blue ribbon event of our national pastime—the world baseball series.

Some thirty odd thousand persons saw the Giants go over the top and assail the pale hosed warriors of the American leagues position in their home lot on the South Side.

The White Sox depended on Cicotte with his shine ball to camouflage the New York staff, while Manager McGraw tried out his bomb throwers, Schupp, Sallee and Perritt in the battery warm up.

Three Diphtheria Cases in Fairmont

At present there are three cases of diphtheria in Fairmont. They are all quarantined and everything possible is being done to prevent any spread. A little Fear child residing on Mt. Vernon avenue had diphtheria for some time, but the quarantine has now been lifted.

Gertrude Merrifield residing on Bellview avenue is one of the three present cases. She is getting along finely and the quarantine will be lifted in a few days. Another girl by the name of Satterfield and residing on Pleasant street is quarantined. The third case is under the charge of Dr. C. W. Waddell and is on High street.

RIVESVILLE PAVING AGAIN IN COURT

More trouble is brewing over the laying of the concrete walks in the town of Rivesville, Paw Paw district, and this morning evidence was heard in the civil suit of C. B. Frum, of Montona Mines vs. the Town of Rivesville, at the office of Justice Musgrove in the court house, Justice Price, of Monongah, sitting. The suit is brought to recover $300 for certain work which Frum has done in the way of completing some of the sidewalks in Rivesville.

The mix-up in the building of the sidewalks dates back about two and a half years ago when Contractor Patterson took the contract and a man named Barker went on his bond to complete the work. Patterson claims that the city was to furnish the materials, but it is alleged that in the contract it was provided they were to be charged against Patterson. The result was that Patterson quit the work.

At this juncture it is claimed by Frum that he was engaged by the town council to lay the sidewalk. After doing some work Frum went after the town to secure money to pay his men and the town took the position that Frum was doing the work for either Patterson or Barker.

After hearing the evidence Justice Price reserved his decision until Monday. Attorney L. C. Musgrave represents Frum and R. Lee Fleming the town of Rivesville.

To date there have been almost a half dozen suits between various persons concerned in the laying of the sidewalk and it has proven to be rather a knotty matter to decide.

Boys Sent Away to Reform School

Judge Vincent held a session of juvenile court this morning. Junior Freeman and Karl Freeman were sent to the Reform school at Pruntytown. They were taken there today by Trust Officer R. Q. Musgrove. They were brought into court for stealing several fountain pens at the store of The Fairmont News company.

WOMAN'S CLUB WILL SUPPORT FRENCH RELIEF

Miss Sue Watson to Get All
All Club Revenues Beyond Expenses.

Miss Sue Kearsley Watson who will go at once to France to take up French civilian relief work addressed the Woman's club yesterday at the Annual reunion and so interested the members with her work that a unanimous vote of the club provided that the funds of the club over the amount of the year's expenditures will be given to this work, the amount to pass directly through Miss Watson's hands. A committee will be appointed by the chair to go over the budget to ascertain as nearly as possible what that amount will be so that the funds can be at once available.

Miss Watson told of the need of the work there, how the devastated villages so long under German control now being liberated by the steadily advancing line of the British and French, were populated almost solely by old men and old women and little children, the young men all being in the army and the young women having been taken into captivity by the Germans. The villages are entirely destroyed, only the staunchest foundations of homes having remained, but so great is the love of these French people for their home that many of them have returned and are living in the cellars of their once comfortable homes. The French relief is working among these people rebuilding and refurbishing and in every way trying to instill courage and hopes in their hearts. The unit with which Miss Watson will work is located in the Alsace section.

The Autumn reunion yesterday marked the opening of the official year of the Women's Club. The event was held in the new club quarters in the Masonic Temple and was attended by a large number of the members and a number of guests.

Mrs. James A. Meredith presided at the meeting opening the program with a brief address. Mrs. Meredith spoke of the new and unusual conditions which made this autumn reunion so different from previous ones, of the ever widening field for women's activities and of her belief in the capabilities of the women of today to execute the demands laid on them. She emphasized the fact that the social life of the club would be maintained, that the condition made this a necessity yet as a combination of business and pleasure she suggested that members take their needlework to the Depart-

DENTAL SOCIETY AT SHINNSTON

Officers Will be Elected at This Evening's Sessions.

Officers will be elected at the bi-monthly meeting of the Monongahela Valley Dental Society, which will be held this evening at the office of Dr. L. A. Stark at Shinnston. Members of the society from Marion, Harrison, Monongalia, Taylor and Doddridge counties will attend. This is the first session held since June.

Dr. W. J. Boydston, of Fairmont, will read a paper on "Local Infection," and Dr. L. J. Walker, of Grafton, will read a paper on "The Business Side of Dentistry."

The Fairmont dentists who will attend are Drs. C. H. Neill, W. J. Boydston, H. L. Satterfield, Basil Herron and Richard E. McCray.

Auto Collision Not His Fault

R. L. Laughlin was before Mayor Bowen this morning charged with reckless driving. Yesterday evening when Ed Daugherty stopped his automobile to keep from passing a stand, Laughlin drove up behind him, striking the gasoline tank on the rear end of Daugherty's car and spilling gasoline all over the streets.

At court this morning Laughlin succeeded in proving his innocence and Mayor Bowen dismissed him.

B.&O. RENEWS ITS PROMISE TO MAKE UP CAR SHORTAGE

Cost of Production Committee Was Appointed at Yesterday's Gathering.

The largest session in the history of the Central West Virginia Coal Operators Association was held in the office rooms of the Fairmont Chamber of Commerce yesterday afternoon. The meeting of the members at Deer Park last August was larger but was held jointly with the Upper Potomac coal operators.

The chief subject of the discussion was the cost of coal production. A committee of five consisting of the following members were appointed to go over the various items on the cost sheet and report back to the general meeting. R. B. Isner, M. E. Ashcraft, D. Macleod, T. Frank Burk, and J. F. Cole.

A committee consisting of D. R. Lawson, C. H. Jenkins, C. D. Robinson and Daniel Howard were in Baltimore on Wednesday conferring with A. W. Thompson, J. M. Davis, both vice presidents of the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, H. B. Voorhees, successor to general superintendent of transportation, Mr. Kearney, Mr. C. Ryan and Mr. Foss, other representatives of the company with reference to the regional car shortage. C. D. Robinson, chairman of the committee and Mayor Bowen dismissed him.

TEN DAY JAIL LIMIT FOR WOMAN'S FINE

Prosecuting Attorney Declares He So Interprets the Law.

That a woman cannot be jailed for more than ten days for a fine is the stand which the prosecuting attorney's office will take in the future according to the statement of Prosecuting Attorney W. R. Haggerty. Future cases will be governed in accordance with this opinion.

The point against keeping a woman in jail for more than ten days for a fine was raised by Attorney L. C. Musgrave the other week in the habeas corpus proceedings instituted to release from jail Mrs. Alice Hicks. The prosecuting attorney directed that the woman be released before the habeas corpus proceedings were heard in the intermediate court before Judge Vincent.

LAFOLLETTE SAYS HE WILL KEEP ON

Congress Agress to Adjourn at 3 O'clock This Afternoon.

(By Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 6.—Congress entered the last hours of the session today with all attention turned to the Senate where Senator LaFollette took the floor at 10 o'clock to make a three-hour speech in answer to critics who have petitioned for his expulsion because of his course and public utterances toward the war.

The Senate at 12:25 p. m. adopted a resolution providing for adjournment of Congress at 3 p. m. today.

Nowhere in his remarks did Senator LaFollette refer to the much discussed St. Paul speech which resulted in a flood of petitions for his expulsion and which is to be investigated by order of the Senate.

This course somewhat threw awry the plans of Senators who were preparing speeches in reply. Characterizing attacks upon him as "A general campaign of villification and attempted intimidation," LaFollette defiantly shouted, "Neither the clamor of the mob nor the voice of power will ever turn me by the breadth of a hair from the course I mark out for myself guided by such knowledge as I can obtain and controlled and directed by my solemn conviction of right and duty."
