

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

California Guest.
Miss Edna Sprung of Oakland, Cal. is the guest of Miss Helen Neil at her summer camp Bide-a-Wee on the Valley River. Miss Sprung was formerly a resident of Monongalia County but has resided in the West for several years and is principal of the High School at Oakland. Miss Sprung has a leave of absence and will teach this year. She came here from Man-nington where she had been visit- ing her sister, Mrs. George Cochran and had also visited with Mrs. Eleanor Eddy Knutti at Morgan- town.

To Staunton.
Mrs. Allen E. Russell and daugh- ter Miss Charlotte are leaving Mon- day for Staunton, Va., where the latter will enter Stuart Hall School for the year. Mrs. Russell will re- turn here the latter part of the week.

Food Demonstration.
Following the meeting of the Presbyterian Legion to be held to- morrow evening at the social rooms of the church a food demonstration will be given by the Heinz Co. of Pittsburgh. The food demonst- rated will be served with other re- freshments.

Club Met.
Complimentary to Mrs. Elizabeth Davis Landen, of Washington, who is visiting friends in this city, a reunion of the "Donut Club" was held last evening at the suburban home of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Sandy at Pine Grove. All the club mem- bers were present and a delight- ful evening was spent. The guests were Mrs. Landen, Mrs. Carl Springer, Mrs. J. S. Lynch, Mrs. W. E. Buckley, Mrs. James E. Ste- ven, Mrs. E. E. Simonds and the Misses Hazel and Madge Holt and Millie Lee.

Kentucky Guest.
Mrs. John Gordon Smyth of Jenkins, Ky., is in the city, the guest of her sisters Mrs. F. E. Nichols and Mrs. R. C. Jones. Mrs. Smyth will spend a week here. Mrs. Nichols will spend the winter in Jenkins with Mrs. Smith.

Returned Home.
Mrs. James T. Eastman and son James and Gladys Richardson of this city have returned from a visit to Flint, Mich. They motor- ed home with Osney Minor who had spent a week there. Miss Richardson had spent the past five weeks with her parents at Flint and had also visited at Grand Rapids, Saginaw and Alma, Mich. Mrs. Eastman and son joined her there two weeks ago and accom- panied her home.

Returned From Abroad.
Miss Jennie M. Fleming and Miss Eva L. Brand returned this morning from an eleven weeks' tour abroad. In company with Miss Kathleen Tierney of Weston and Mrs. Howard N. Ogden of Chicago, and Fairmont, and Miss Frances Riggs of Raleigh County, they left New York, early in July, for a tour abroad and landed in this city this morning. Mrs. Ogden and Miss Tierney stopped in New York for a few days and Miss Riggs went on to Charleston. The itinerary included visits to France, Switzerland, Italy, Holland, Bel- gium, England and Scotland and they also witnessed the Passion Play and visited the Ypres and Dixmude battle fields arising from Brussels to these points. They landed on Monday at Montreal, Canada and proceeded at once to New York. The tour was a de- lightful one and the party all en- joyed excellent health during their stay abroad and on the ocean.

To Baltimore.
Mrs. Myrtle Powell and daugh- ter Miss Carol Powell, have re- turned from Wheeling, where they had motored several days ago to visit friends. Miss Powell is leav- ing Saturday for Baltimore, where she is supervisor of music in a Baltimore school. She will be ac- companied to Baltimore by Miss Louise Boehm, who will spend a short time there and will then go to New York for a visit with friends. Miss Powell and Miss Boehm will motor to Baltimore.

To Meet.
The Ladies Aid Society of Grace Lutheran Church will meet tomor- row evening at 7:30 at the home of Mrs. Victor Gwynn on Maryland avenue.

Club Will Meet.
The Needleworkers Club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. Cecil Jenkins on Dearborn street.

Delegates To Attend.
At a recent meeting of the Mor- gantown Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, held at the home of Mrs. Ray- mond E. Kerr in Morgantown the following delegates were named to attend the state convention to be held in this city September 26 to

26. Mrs. Daise Wood Beall, Mrs. J. W. Willes and Mrs. R. E. Kerr. Mrs. Benjamin Oppen- heimer and Mrs. M. L. O'Neill were made alternates. Officers were named as follows:
President, Mrs. Raymond E. Kerr; first vice president Mrs. George Rogers; second vice presi- dent, Mrs. E. M. Turner; regis- trar, Mrs. Benjamin Oppenhe- imer; historian, Mrs. S. Fuller Glascock; recording secretary, Miss Sarah Helmick; treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Malampay; corres- ponding secretary, Mrs. J. W. Willes.

Named Officers.
Mrs. Allen E. Russell was made president and the following other officers were named at a meeting of the Robert E. Lee Chapter of the United Daughters of the Con- federacy held last evening at the home of Mrs. W. H. Billingslea on Fourth street:
Mrs. O. E. McMillan, first vice president; Mrs. Edwin Robinson, second vice president; Mrs. R. M. Hite, recording secretary; Mrs. A. F. Peddicord, corresponding sec- retary; Mrs. Sydney Reynolds, trea- surer; Mrs. J. E. Smith, registrar; Mrs. John Henshaw, historian.

Celebrated Golden Wedding.
The golden wedding anniver- sary of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse G. Floyd was celebrated yesterday at their home at Grant Town, when they held open house and receiv- ed a large number of their rela- tives and friends during the re- ceiving hours. The house was prettily decorated in garden flow- ers and golden rods, a color scheme of yellow and white having been effectively carried out. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd, both of whom are enjoying excellent health in spite of their advanced years, received their guests and were the recipi- ents of a number of pretty and use- ful gifts, among the gifts being a number of pieces of gold money. Honor guests on the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. James Mich- ael of Grant Town, who were guests at the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd fifty years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd have no children, but two nephews, Fred and Jay Lemley, who were reared in their home were present and helped to dispense the hospitality of the day. Out of town guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lemley and daughter, Loretta of Zanes- ville, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lemley and daughter, Edna of Wheeling; and Mrs. Olive Arnett of this city.

TERRE HAUTE FIRE CAUSES GREAT LOSS.
TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 13.—Damage estimated at nearly $3,000,000 is believed to have been caused by fire which early to- day practically destroyed the plant of the American Hosiery Co. here, said to be one of the larg- est of its kind in the world. It was at first reported that two men had lost their lives in the fire, but a check of employes showed this report to be erroneous. Eleven men employes of the concern were injured by walls falling; none seri- ously, however.

Social Calendar

Wednesday
The congregation of Grace Lutheran Church will hold a cov- ered dish supper and social at the church beginning at 6:30.

Friday
The Fair Mar Club will hold a dance at 9 at the Masonic Temple. Mrs. George A. Hough and Miss Mary Hartley Greer will entertain

Choose a Fur Coat for Comfort

Women who have spent a comfy winter in a Fur Coat would never go back to any other kind. A great collar that turns up to her eyes, sleeves that make a muff when held together, a certain snugly feeling that deep furs always have—is it any wonder that college girls love them?

Coats---Regal Fur Wraps

- | | |
|-----------------|-------------|
| Marmot | Hudson Seal |
| Coney | Raccoon |
| Natural Muskrat | Squirrel |
| Laska Seal | Mink |
- Sports Models—Elegant Wrap Styles,
Prices Begin at $55.00

Beginning Thursday, September 14

HARTLEY'S SALE OF FURS

Offering the accepted 1922-1923 Fur Modes at August Prices--- prices representing Great Savings

A Fur Sale that is consistent with the merchandising policy of Hartley's, the result of months of planning, and buying when fur prices were at their lowest; a sale offered at a time when stocks are new and at the top notch of completeness; a sale planned for the purpose of enabling you to make your selections early and saving money on them.

The soft luxuriousness of beautiful furs—what woman doesn't love to wrap up in them, a bit of choker about her throat or a coat drawn close about her. And what woman need deny herself this joy now that the Hartley Sale presents such attractive opportunities. The styles are authentic peltry—equisite and workmanship distinctive. Best representative styles from the East and Northwest.

The Small Furs That Women Adore

The variety of furs and the range of garments is such that you are sure to be captivated by at least one piece in the display. It may be a bushy Fox scarf, a Stone Marten or Hudson Seal Choker to soften your severe tailleur. And there are many others too.

- | | |
|--|--------------------------|
| Fox Scarfs $19.50 | Stone Marten, Hudson |
| Kit Fox in brown and gray colorings. | Bay Sable Chokers |
| | $39.50 to $89.50 |
| American Fox Scarfs $35.00 to $59.50 | Squirrel Chokers $13.50 |

A Companion to the Fur Sale
Sale of Coats and Wraps
Presenting Real Values at an Accommodating Range of Prices

Notwithstanding the many women who have had no thought of purchasing Coats and Wraps just now this is the opportune time to buy. All the best Fall and Winter styles—all the new fabrics—all the new colors await you here now. Every garment possesses distinctive style points, instantly recognized by smart dressers. But, best of all, our prices for their lowness are hardly in keeping with the quality and style of the garments. This will be a tremendous Coat season and we cannot hope to duplicate our early purchases, neither in variety or price. We give you this hint for your own protection.

The style changes are radical and pleasing—you'll admire the Hartley display—and you're as welcome to look as to buy.

Every Woman Appreciates the Serviceability of the UTILITY COAT

These coats come in fabrics, thick, soft and light in weight and some are as warm as fur. In mannish, swag- ger and severely plain styles in more than a dozen colors, including two tone shades. Many of them have fur col- lars.

Wraps Enhanced by Furs

And it is not only their luxurious fur trimmings of rac- coon, Fox, Squirrel, Wolf, Beaver, Mole and Lynx that makes these wraps so handsome either. The new pile fabrics; Marvella, Gerona, Fashona, Wondora, etc., are exquisite textures and their rich colorings are added love- liness.

- | | |
|--|---------|
| Scotch Tweed, Polaire, and Plaid | |
| Black Utility Coats | $17.75 |
| Scotch Tweed, Polaire, Plaid Back, Bolivia, Normandy and Velour Utility and Wrappy Coats | $25.00 |
| Polo and Shagmore Utility Coats—Bolivia, Velour, Nor- mandy, Raritan Bolivia Wraps and Coats | |
| Many of these with fur collars | $35.00 |
| Fur trimmed Sports Coats, luxurious Panvelaine, Marvella, Veldyne, Norette Coats and Wraps | |
| conservative straight line styles | $59.50 |
| Styles in rich fabrics ranging by easy stages from $59.50 to $135.00. | |

Perfect Blue White Stones

There certainly is a great difference in Diamonds—That's why the name "Fanus & Company" on the box means so much to our patrons. It is their guarantee that the stone within the box is the best that the money will buy, regardless of the price you pay.

Let us show you the largest stock of PERFECT BLUE WHITE STONES ever shown in any Fairmont Store.

"WHERE QUALITY COMES FIRST"

Fanus & Co. JEWELERS
Opp. Court House