

LOCAL SOCIAL EVENTS

Busy Week in Society.

This week's social calendar will be well filled and local club and society women will have very few full minutes if all the parties and entertainments scheduled are attended.

This evening the Quota Club will be entertained at a masquerade party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hanes on the Country Club road. On this evening also, the American Legion and the Women's Auxiliary will entertain with a Halloween party at the Legion headquarters on Cleveland avenue.

The Shrine Club will give a masquerade ball this evening at the Masonic Temple.

This morning the marriage of Miss Lucile Hart and Donald Clark, both of this city, took place.

The music department of the Woman's Club will have its first meeting of the club year at Highgate tomorrow. A Halloween party will also be staged by the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. at the "Y" building on Fairmont avenue tomorrow.

On Wednesday evening the marriage of Miss Louise Hall and Deane Robinson will take place.

The Louise Homer Concert will be held at the First M. E. Church under the direction of the music department of the Woman's Club Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. R. B. Burt and Mrs. E. F. Henderson will entertain at bridge at the Elks rooms in the Devony building on Thursday.

The Woman's Club and the Business and Professional Women's Club will hold a joint meeting at the Billingsley Memorial M. E. Church, South, at 8 o'clock Friday evening, with Miss Nellie M. Scarborough of New England as the speaker and Mrs. Leo S. Benedict as the soloist.

Beside these affairs, lodges, fraternities and clubs will give Halloween parties, card parties and dances, while the younger society set will entertain at their homes with Halloween parties galore.

Invitations Issued.

Dr. and Mrs. Simon Kenton Owens of Montgomery, W. Va., have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Miss Margaret Elizabeth Owens, and Harold Herbert Hutchinson, which will be solemnized at 9:30 Thursday evening at the Presbyterian Church at Montgomery. Mr. Hutchinson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson of Sonnet, Croft, this city. The engagement of Miss Owens and Mr. Hutchinson was announced recently. A number of local people will attend the marriage, among the number being Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Hutchinson of this city.

Return Home.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hough have returned from a visit of two weeks with friends and relatives in Buckhannon and Clarksburg. In Buckhannon, they were guests of Judge and Mrs. Roy Waugh. In Clarksburg they visited the Mr.'s brothers, Kelley and Clarence Berry.

Attend Game.

Among local people who were in Morgantown for the W. V. U. Rutgers game Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Gaston, the Misses Virginia and Rose Gaskill, Mr. and Mrs. Guy B. Hartley, Dr. and Mrs. J. O. McNeely and family, L. A. Cather, Dr. C. Broomfield and C. M. Peters.

Clark-Hart.

The marriage of Miss Lucille Hart, daughter of Mrs. Hart and the late John P. Hart of this city, and William Donald Clark, also of this city, was solemnized at 9 o'clock this morning at St. Peter's Catholic Church in the presence of a number of relatives and friends.

Nuptial mass was celebrated with Father P. H. Gillesen as the celebrant, and Father Gillesen also performed the marriage ceremony.

The church was tastefully decorated with autumn leaves and ferns with large baskets of chrysanthemums guarding the altar rail, while quantities of these flowers were placed about the altar with a basket of red roses centering the altar.

To the strains of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin, played by Miss Grace McDonnell, the bridal party entered the church auditorium and proceeded down the center aisle to the altar. First came the little flower girls, the bridesmaids and the bride, the Misses Katherine and Ruth Hart, who strewed rose petals in the path of the bride. They were followed by Master John Hart, the small brother of the bride, who carried the ring. Miss Mary, her sister, maid of honor, came next and was followed by the bride, who entered with her brother, Ralph P. J. Hart, who gave her in marriage.

They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, his brother, John A. Clark of Sidney, N. Y., who is located at this time in Clarksburg. Preceding the wedding Frank Jordan sang "I Love You Truly," and during the celebration of the nuptial mass, he sang "Ave Marie."

As the ceremony was concluded to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, the bridal party left the church in the reverse order in which they had entered and were driven to the Hart home on Fairmont avenue where a wedding breakfast was served to the bridal party and attendants.

The bride was beautifully crowned in a French model of black panne velvet, fashioned long waisted, with bodice of sapphire blue, embroidered in black, and with long skirt panels lined with the blue. She wore a large picture hat in black satin, embroidered to match her costume, and black satin colonial pumps. She carried a handsome shower bouquet of bride's roses, orchids and valley lilies.

Her maid-of-honor wore black panne velvet dress of beautiful design with motifs touched with pastel shades, long waisted, with long skirt panels, and a black picture hat and colonial slippers. She carried an arm bouquet of red roses.

The little flower girls were daintily crowned in velvet frocks. Miss Katherine Hart wore French blue velvet with a blue velvet hat, while Miss Ruth wore brown velvet with brown hat. John Hart, the ring bearer, was dressed in a suit of white linen.

Miss Hart is the daughter of Mrs. Hart and the late John P. Hart of this city, the latter during his life time a prominent resident of Fairmont and prosperous wholesale fruit merchant. She was born and reared in this city and is a young woman of charming personality. She attended Seton Hall College at Greensburg, Pa.

Mr. Clark is a son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Clark of Sidney, N. Y., the former being president of the A. Clark Co., manufacturers of building material. He came here three years ago with the Koppers Co., which built the plant of the Domestic Coke Corporation, and is now associated with the latter company as plant foreman of the by-products department. He is a graduate of Cornell University and is a member of the Elouisis fraternity.

Following the serving of a wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Clark left for an eastern wedding journey, and upon their return will reside temporarily with the latter's mother, Mrs. John P. Hart, on Fairmont avenue. The bride's going-away costume was a handsome three piece suit of black marlees with trimmings of grey squirrel.

Since the engagement of Mr. Clark and Miss Hart was announced recently, they had been honor guests at a number of social affairs.

For Miss Hart

The Misses Pauline Arkwright and Eileen Ahern were hostesses on Saturday at a luncheon of pretty appointments which honored Miss Lucile Hart, whose marriage to Donald Clark was celebrated this morning at St. Peter's Catholic Church. Covers were laid for twelve. The guests were seated at a large round table on the mezzanine floor, which was centered with a French basket of yellow mums, and a large mum marked each cover. Following the luncheon the bride was showered with a number of pretty gifts.

Howard Long and Gary Jackson entertained Friday evening at the former's summer camp on the Valley River to honor Mr. Clark and his bride to be. The guests numbered thirty and were served with dinner. Dancing was the diversion of the evening.

To Detroit

Mrs. Ora F. Lough left Friday for Detroit, Mich., where she will be the guest for a week of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wilcox, the latter formerly Miss Marguerite Arnett of this city.

To Have Party

The Pythian Sisters and their families will hold a Halloween party tomorrow evening at their hall in the American Building. The guests have been asked to wear masquerade costumes. The party will begin at 7:30 o'clock.

Horly-Quinn

A number of local people were in Clarksburg Saturday morning for the marriage of John Horly of this city and Miss Isabel Quinn, which was celebrated at 9 o'clock in the Church of the Immaculate Conception. In speaking of the wedding, the Clarksburg Exponent said:

"Beautiful in every detail" was the wedding of Miss Isabella Marea Quinn, daughter of Mrs. Eleanor Templeton Quinn of this city and John Frances Horly of Fairmont, formerly of Wilmington, Del., which was solemnized at the Church of the Immaculate Conception at 9 o'clock in the presence of a large assemblage of relatives and friends. The nuptial mass was sung by the choir of the church.

The Rev. P. H. McDermott was the celebrant and Masters James and John Clifford served the mass. The ushers, James Horly, brother of the bridegroom, J. Ray Quinn, brother of the bride; Thomas P. Keenan and Leo P. Caulfield, led the bridal procession down the center aisle. They were preceded by the bridesmaids, entering in pairs who were most charming in their attractive gowns of pastel shades of gossamer, wearing large picture hats of black lace and velvet and carrying large bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums tied with bows of yellow tulle. The bridesmaids were Misses Adelaide Eppler and Margaret Eppler of Washington, D. C., Agnes Horly, sister of the bridegroom, of Wilmington, Del., and Catherine Templeton of Cumberland, Md.

Miss Mary Claire Quinn, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, preceded the bride, Miss Quinn wore a charming gown of orchid shades of chiffon with a large picture hat of purple velvet and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums tied with yellow tulle. Then came the bride, on the arm of her brother, Daniel Templeton Quinn, who gave her in marriage. She was attired in a gown of loveliness of Elizabeth crepe, elaborately embroidered with pearls. The sleeves were of long flowing effect, caught in at the wrist with a band of pearls and the draped skirt was held in place by a large pearl cabochon with tassels of pearls. A long court train of pearl satin, lined with tulle, fell from her shoulders, and she wore a tulle veil with a coronet of duchess lace. She carried a shower bouquet of orchids and valley lilies, and her only ornament was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom.

"The bride was met at the church steps by the bridegroom and his best man, Frank J. Horly, of Wilmington, Del. While the bridal party was leaving the church, Miss Myrtle Kidd sang in her beautiful lyric voice, "Until," by Sanderson.

"Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served in the American dining room of the Waldo hotel, where 112 guests were seated at small tables throughout the large room.

"Saturday afternoon Mr. Horly and his bride left for an eastern honeymoon trip which will include New York City and the Bermudas. After November 15 they will be at home to their friends in Fairmont. The bride's gift to her attendants were platinum bar pins of sapphires and pearls. Mr. Horly presented each of his attendants with a gold penknife.

Mr. Horly is a son of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Horly of Wilmington, Del. He is at present a representative of the DuPont Powder company of Wilmington with headquarters in Fairmont.

"The out of town guests present at the wedding breakfast were: Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Horly, Miss May Horly, Miss Agnes Horly, Frank J. Horly, James Horly, Mr. and Mrs. James I. Ford, all of Wilmington, Del.; Miss Margaret Eppler, Miss Adelaide Eppler and Miss Mary Frances Eppler, Washington D. C.; Mrs. Niota Mullen, Miss Catherine Templeton, Miss Helen Kean and Miss Josephine Martz, Cumberland, Md.; Mr. and Mrs. James Hoover, Keyser; Mrs. William Frotsch and Miss Jean Killen, Wheeling; Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce, Salem; Mrs. William Moran, Grafton; Mr. and Mrs. B. H. McGinley, Mr. and Mrs. John Burchinal, Mrs. Arthur Lynch, Miss Sarah Deveny, Miss Ann Kenney and Mrs. J. J. Coughlin of Fairmont."

Returning From Honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McDowell, whose marriage was an event of the month in this city, are returning this week to their home at Somerset, Pa., after a honeymoon spent in Canada. Mrs. McDowell was before her marriage, Miss Callie Frey of this city. They are at this time guests of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shell at their home, "The Wilderness," near Somerset.

Attend Game. Mr. and Mrs. Harry B. Clark, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Murray Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Watson, Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Fleming, Jr. were in Morgantown Saturday for the W. V. U. Rutgers football game.

Mrs. Clinton Hostess. Honoring Mrs. Walter D. Barrington of New York who is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sheridan at their home on Benoni avenue, Mrs. James B. Clinton was hostess Saturday at the Fairmont Hotel at a 1 o'clock luncheon of charming appointments. The table was centered with yellow mums in blue and grey pottery, and covers were laid for eight, including intimate friends of the honor guest.

Leaving Tomorrow. Mr. and Mrs. Walter D. Barrington, who have spent the past ten days in this city as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Sheridan at their home on Benoni avenue, are leaving in the morning for their home in New York City. Mr. and Mrs. (Continued on page eleven)

Come to Fairmont Halloween Oct. 31st. Mammoth Parade and Jubilee.

Pansy Plants English Daisies Forget-Me-Not For Best Success Plant Now

Hauge's Flower & Plant House Ridgely off Locust Phone 641

Hear Mme. Louise Homer at First M. E. Church, Thursday, Nov. 2

Two more days hath October. Occasional wintry blasts remind us that colder weather will soon be here. And a natural consequence is that women will be hurrying to complete their winter wardrobes. For weeks we have been displaying the new things. Now the time of decision has come.

Of Clever Costumes We Would Tell

Our Dresses Our Fur Trimmed Coats Our Gowns

—Are made in all the supple and luxurious materials of the season and designed so as to add beauty to the figure. Not meager assortments with little preference but almost limitless choice which includes every fashion tendency of the moment, every wanted material and color combination in vogue. Paris sponsors velvet again this season, particularly because velvet makes such lovely frocks and because it uniquely emphasizes the latest feature of the mode. For afternoon Milady may be elaborately gowned at prices ranging from $25 to $75

Our Mannish Coats The Chesterfield The Collegian The Oxford The Country Club

Radium Silk Petticoats Here is a special value you will be delighted with—radium silk Petticoats scalloped and embroidered in brown, navy, henna and black. Only $5.00.

New Design Sweaters Newest of the New These sweaters in a combination of brushed wool and camel's hair in striped effect, colors are rich and pleasing. If you don't want one don't see them. $7.50

Classy That's the only word for the new Jacquette jackets. Paris and Fifth avenue have decreed shall be the vogue this fall.

180 Musicians, 1500 Sticks of Fire. Floats Galore. Hear the Scream. Count the Mounting Men.

Send it to the Laundry A Laundry Service for All WET WASH Semi-Finished Family Finished ROUGH DRY AMERICAN LAUNDRY CO. Phone 77

Hartley's

Hartley's