13-YEAR-OLD BOY SEEKING PARENTS

Lad Cared For by Red Cross After Walking Eighteen Miles Yesterday.

MANNINGTON, Dec. 5.—John Eshary, 13, arrived in Mannington yesterday afternoon after having walked from Archer, a distance of eighteen miles, and announced that he was looking for his father and mother.

The little fellow was taken in charge by the local chapter Red Cross, and his story brought out. It seems that his father and mother, whose home was formerly at Gypsy, separated, and the family of eight children were scattered among strangers. This little chap has been staying with a family at Archer, but heard in some way that his parents were in Mannington. He immediately started out to find them.

When he arrived here the young man was tired and soiled, but he was quite presentable again last evening and was made much of by some of the local women interested in his case. Miss Rhea Griffin, secretary of the Red Cross, and another woman were present at the home of Mrs. Belle Clelland, and he was cared for during the night. One woman gave him a suit of clothes last night, and several other women gave him small sums of money. He was a very intelligent little fellow and endeared himself to the hearts of those who talked with him here.

MANNINGTON SOCIETY

Missionary Meet.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. A. J. Hammel in Clayton addition, Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

The leaders for this meeting are Mrs. Edna Beatty and Mrs. E. C. Eshary. The funds for the occasion will be in charge of Mrs. Charles Hurd, Utah, or Mormonia, and Persia and Syria. It is the subject of the afternoon.

The members of this organization have just finished a mission study entitled, "In the Vanguard of the Races," which was very interesting.

The monthly mothers' meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held at the home of Mrs. B. R. Howard, 112 Dancer avenue, tonight at 7:30. The committee has prepared an excellent program, and dainty refreshments will be served.

Missionary Play.

A play entitled "Circle Three Sees a Vision" will be given by the Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church Friday evening at 8 o'clock. The play promises to be very interesting.

The cast includes almost the full membership of the society. The principals are Mrs. L. H. Boor, Mrs. C. Bassett, Mrs. Charles Drake, Mrs. E. C. McCarnes, Mrs. M. F. Hamilton, Mrs. A. J. Hammel, Mrs. M. H. Hess, Mrs. Charles Hurd, Mrs. Thomas Leonard, Mrs. A. I. Richard, Mrs. James Phillips, Mrs. Harry Sybert, Mrs. E. W. Marr, Mrs. Frank Magee, Mrs. C. J. McNeely, Mrs. Clara McQuire, Mrs. R. Kneass, and Miss Maria Burr.

Exceptional talent is shown by many members of the cast, and it is in earnest hope today that the public will take advantage of the opportunity to see the entertainment. The silver offering will be taken at the end of the program.

Meet Wednesday.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the M. E. Church will hold its regular meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30.

A surprise is being arranged for members fortunate enough to be at this session. It is stated, and each member is requested to bring their Christmas offering.

Edison Tone Test.

Music lovers of Mannington will be given a treat tonight when Joseph Phillips and the Fleming Sisters Trio give a recital in the high school auditorium in the nature of a tone-test for the new Edison phonograph.

Mrs. Phillips is a baritone singer of fame, and the three Fleming sisters assure the program of interest and beauty. Each of these singers has marked musical ability, it is said.

New Organization.

The business and professional women of Mannington will meet this evening at the home of Dr. C. H. Moore for the purpose of organizing a Business and Professional Women's Club. The meeting will begin at 7 o'clock. Dr. Moore said this morning that a general invitation is extended to all local business and profes-

Pithy Paragraphs From Mannington

Deacon Slappapple came edging into the office this morning and handed a paper across the desk. This is what it said:

"The line-up of Jimmy Thomas' All-American drug store football team has been made to include the following players:

Name	Position
Jay Aiba	Left Tackle
Ed Smedgras	Left Guard
Dick Clagnon	Center
Lawrence Huffman	Right Guard
Win Smith	Right Tackle
"Shit" Huey	Right End
"Tip" Mead	Quarterback
"Doc" Burt (Capt)	Left Halfback
Ed Holland	Right Halfback
Fred Beaty	Fullback
"Bob" Burt	Coach

sional women, and expressed the hope that they will attend tonight at the Clarkburg.

Miss Dorothy Parsons has returned to Clarkburg after spending the Thanksgiving vacation with her parents here. Miss Parsons is teaching in Clarkburg this year.

Recovering.

Mrs. Ed. Hamilton is recovering nicely from an operation which she recently underwent at the Ohio Valley General Hospital, in Wheeling.

Baby Girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Stewart are the proud parents of a baby girl born last week. She has been named Mary Isabel.

CHAPEL EXERCISES HELD THIS MORNING

MANNINGTON, Dec. 5.—Next Tuesday morning the last chapel exercise before the Christmas holidays will be held in the high school auditorium. On Friday afternoon, December 22, a special program will be presented by the students in the Central School. This program will be given during the last period, it was announced in chapel this morning.

Principal W. L. Sprouse drew attention to the annual exercise of the Redpath Lecture Course which will be given at the auditorium, next Monday night. On this evening Homer C. Boblitt will give an address on one of three subjects, "Duds and Doughnuts," "Smouldering Embers," or "Under the Northern Lights."

Mr. Boblitt is a man who has traveled through all parts of the world, and has gained the training and equipment which makes him a wonderfully interesting and powerful speaker.

Following the regular chapel exercises Superintendent D. C. Tabler spoke for a few minutes to the senior class regarding their work in arithmetic during the second semester.

General arithmetic, it was pointed out, will be required of all seniors during this period, except those who have had commercial arithmetic. However, Mr. Tabler stated, he would be glad to have all the seniors who had had commercial arithmetic would take general work if they feel they can do so.

"Not very many folks who pass through the high school have had enough arithmetic," he said, "and if I were to advise or make a suggestion, it would be that every senior take general arithmetic during the second semester."

WOMAN JAILED FOR BEATING HUSBAND

MANNINGTON, Dec. 5.—Katy Pecola of Downs was arrested Sunday evening by Officers Elaw and Hough and lodged in the city jail to await trial yesterday afternoon for assault and for being drunk and disorderly.

When brought before Justice J. M. Barrack yesterday Mrs. Pecola was held under $100 peace bond, and when she failed to give bail was sent to Fairmont to the county jail. The charge was preferred by her husband, Tom Pecola.

The woman, it is said, frequently takes too freely of bad moonshine and each time raises a commotion at home. This time she sold some clothing belonging to the children and used the money to buy liquor. When the officers from Mannington arrived they found Tom Pecola in the yard, barefooted, and the woman inside the house threatening him with a gun.

The woman offered little resistance when the officers brought her to Mannington and she was much quieter yesterday when the case came before the justice.

CHRISTMAS SEALS TO FIGHT DISEASE

MANNINGTON, Dec. 5.—During the recent summer months five free tubercular clinics were held in Mannington District, revealing the fact that there are many cases of positive tuberculosis in the community.

TEAMS READY TO BEGIN ROLL CALL

MANNINGTON, Dec. 5.—Final plans for the annual Red Cross roll call will be made this evening at a meeting to be held in the high school auditorium.

Ray Magee, C. G. Blake, and John Glover have been enlisted as team captains, and Mr. Blake made a request for the girls of the high school to assist in the work at chapel this morning. With a corps of live, enthusiastic school girls working for the Red Cross the success of the roll call in Mannington is assured, it is felt.

Memberships and subscriptions are already being received at local headquarters, some of them by mail. When the teams get to work on the house-to-house canvass as planned it is thought that Mannington will enroll 100 per cent heavier than last year.

WOMAN'S CLUB CENSORSHIP

Criticism and comment on the abstracts at the local theater representing in this column are furnished by the Mannington Censorship Committee of the Woman's Club of Fairmont. The West Virginia does not assume any responsibility for the opinions expressed. —The Editor.

The Blue Ridge

A treat for the eyes as well as the ears is the leading feature of the attraction at the Blue Ridge today, that appears last, but is by no means least on the program. It is a sextette of very attractive girls who are charmingly and modestly gowned, and having just enough pep to put their numbers over in a pleasing manner, and their entertainment is both refined and artistic throughout.

Al H. Wilson

Al H. Wilson would rank second on the program but could hardly be given secondary consideration, as he is an old time favorite who long ago won fame for his wit as an entertainer who will allow his audience to go to sleep.

North and South

North and South is a unique and very original act, presented in a spirited fashion by two young men. The fourth offering is a dancing couple by a young man and woman, Cooper and Lapey, as they are known.

Poka Negri

"The Eyes of the Mummy" plays a role of an Egyptian girl that is well suited to her type, and if you are interested in studying customs of foreign countries, you will find some very striking settings and backgrounds, but it is a weird story, and not one that will tend to make you happy. It is not a picture that children or morbid folk should see.

The Princess

Johnny Hines in "Sure Fire Flirt" is the attraction at the Princess today, in a comedy that is full of very amusing situations that fulfill the purpose for which they were intended just to provide mirth—and if you are wanting light entertainment that will not tax your mental faculties to any extent when you will find it in this picture. You will find it in this picture. You will find it in this picture. You will find it in this picture.

The Nelson

One motion picture critic classes "Manslaughter" with the best pictures of November, and he says that Cecil de Mille's illness of last winter must have done him as much good as a prison sentence did Lydia Thorne, as played by Leatrice Joy.

Well, whatever accounts for it, in our opinion he has given to the screen in this picture, one of the most forceful lessons that could be presented and in a manner that should have a lasting effect for good upon the minds and hearts of those who see it.

The Divis

With the scenes laid in England and America "The Wonderful Thing," appearing at the Dixie today offers a story that has value, both as entertainment and something to think about.

It is a filmization of the stage play of the same title, and while it presents no very unusual situation, the star, Norma Talmadge is as always, pleasing and sincere.

Buster Keaton

Buster Keaton provides the comedy of the program and there is also Pathe News.

SUBSIDY INCREASED

LONDON, Dec. 5.—The House of Commons early today passed a resolution authorizing amendment of the Rede Facilities Act to renew it for one year and to increase to 50,000,000 pounds sterling the maximum guarantee provided by the measure. The resolution was offered by Stanley Baldwin, chancellor of the exchequer.

NORTHWEST HIT BY WINTER TODAY

Temperature of 28 Degrees Below Zero Reported in Helena, Mont.

CHICAGO, Dec. 5.—Winter today made its first onslaught, spreading a trail of zero temperatures throughout the Northwest and plain states and causing a drop in temperature as far south as Texas in the South and Tennessee in the central area.

Helena, Mont., with a temperature of 23 degrees below zero, was the coldest place in the country. Sub-zero temperatures were recorded throughout Montana, North Dakota, and parts of Minnesota, with Havre, Mont., recording 14 below, Williston, N. D., 4 below; Grand Forks, N. D., 4 below, and Fargo, N. D., 8 below.

The Southern Rocky Mountain states were warned by forecasters to prepare for drops in temperature of from 15 to 20 degrees, attended by light flurries of snow.

Throughout the Upper Mississippi Valley states the breath of winter was manifest in a blinding wind that sent the mercury scurrying downward. Weather forecasts indicated the wave would spread into the lower lake region and the Atlantic and West Gulf states, with the exception of Florida peninsula by tonight or Wednesday.

PIERPONT AVENUE COUPLE CONVICTED IN POLICE COURT

Kinney said that Night Chief Shroyer, Policeman Downey and he went to the Mitchell home between two and three o'clock Sunday morning. When they tried the front door of the house it was unlocked and they entered. They also found another door leading off the hallway open and entered this room. A man was sleeping in this room, and when aroused told them Mrs. Mitchell was in the room across the hall.

Found Door Locked.
Night Chief Shroyer tried the door to the room designated and finding it locked, knocked on the door. In a minute the door was opened by Mr. Jones. The officers entered the room and told Jones that they had a warrant to search the place. McKinney said that Jones told them to go ahead and search. When the search led to the adjoining room in which Mrs. Mitchell was in bed, Jones demanded them to halt and show the warrant. As the warrant was directed to Mrs. Mitchell the officers entered the other room and Policeman McKinney read the warrant to Mrs. Mitchell. The search for liquor was then continued. (The officer was not allowed to testify as to his finding in regard to the search for liquor, but it is known that no intoxicating liquor was found.)

After the search for liquor was concluded, Night Chief Shroyer who had been making an examination of the two rooms, placed the couple under arrest on the charge upon which they were tried today. When asked what information they had for suspecting the couple of being guilty of the charge placed against them, Policeman McKinney they found Mrs. Mitchell's shoes and stockings under Jones' bed, that the double bed in which Jones had been sleeping showed every indication it had been occupied by two persons prior to the entrance of the officers into the rooms and that furthermore that the door between the room in which Jones had been sleeping and the room where Mrs. Mitchell was found on a leather couch in the combination kitchen and dining room was wide open when the officers entered the rooms.

Night Chief Shroyer and Policeman Downey corroborated the principal parts of Policeman McKinney's testimony, and the city rested its case.

Mrs. Mitchell was the first witness introduced by the defense. She told the following story in a clear cool voice and in a convincing manner. Last February she purchased the house on Pierpont avenue when she thought that her father and mother were going to make their home with her. Later her father, who was in failing health got better and decided not to break up his home.

Tells Her Story
After buying the house, Mrs. Mitchell testified that she had to make as much money as possible to make her payments on the house. She rented out the top floor to one family, the second floor to another family and occupied the lower floor herself. She had three rooms in her apartment. One of these she rented to Gay Ash and another to Mr. Jones. The last room she used as a kitchen, dining room and sleeping quarters. This room opened into Mr. Jones' room. Mrs. Mitchell said that Mr. Jones was agreeable and that she and various other tenants of the house used Mr. Jones' room for a sitting room. On the night when the raid was made, she said that she finished her work at a Main street store at 9 o'clock and that she and Mr. Jones went to the house. When she reached home her feet were tired and hurting and from being on them all day and until 9 o'clock at night. "Mr. Jones went to the kitchen to get a lunch, and sitting in front of the fire in his room I pulled off my shoes and stockings," she testified.

"When he returned from the kitchen I got up and went to the kitchen and prepared for bed. Before retiring I closed the door between the two rooms."

Mr. Jones corroborated the story told by Mrs. Mitchell. The next witness for the defense was Mrs. Martha Jane Huff who occupies the second floor apartment. She told how all the tenants of the house used Mr. Jones' room for a sitting room and that it was not uncommon for some of them when leaving the room at night to leave some part of their wearing apparel in the room. Gay Ash, the last defense witness, corroborated Mrs. Huff's story about all the tenants using Mr. Jones' room for a lounging room.

The attorneys for the defense wanted to argue the case, so City Attorney Kern opened the argument. In closing his argument, Attorney Kern read a recent decision from the supreme court which said that all that was necessary for the city to prove in the case was that the couple had had the opportunity and inclination to commit the act for which they were charged.

Attorney Rose opened the argument for the defense and Attorney Branden closed. The defense attorneys tried to show that the city's witnesses had not made a case against their clients. In closing, City Attorney Kern made a few remarks in regard to points brought out by the defense attorneys. The case was then given to Mayor Conaway who had his decision ready, finding the couple guilty and imposing fines of $50 and costs on each. The case was appealed to the Marion County Criminal Court.

JACK DAW IN HOOPLAND

Drawings by Leslie Elton. Story by Hal Cochran. Chapter 6

Jack expected to get an awful bumping when the big hoop landed, but he was badly mistaken. The hoop seemed to strike the ground like a bit of cotton. Then it bounded along for a time and finally sent Jack and Flip sprawling. The hoop made sure they were not hurt, and then started to laugh.

"You are very much different than we are," said the hoop. "You can't roll around, can you?" "No," replied Jack. Then he heard a loud commotion and, looking up, saw a great many more hoops coming down a hill. "They won't hurt you," said the friendly hoop. "They just want to meet you."

So Jack was introduced to the merry band of Happy Hoops. "We call ourselves the Happy Hoops," explained one of the round little fellows, "because we always see the cheerful side of things." In the meantime Jack was noticing that everything around him was made of hoops. (Continued.)

FUNERAL OF MRS. E. E. RITCHIE HELD

High Tribute Paid to Pioneer Resident by Dr. Stoetzer at Services Today.

A large concourse of relatives and friends attended the funeral services of Mrs. Emma E. Ritchie, pioneer resident of this city, which were held at 3 o'clock this afternoon from the residence on Locust avenue.

The services were conducted by the Rev. H. G. Stoetzer, pastor of the Presbyterian Church, with which the deceased had been affiliated for many years, and he paid a high tribute of respect to the memory of Mrs. Ritchie, who had spent almost her entire life in this community. Doctor Stoetzer was assisted in the services by the Rev. R. T. Brown, pastor of the Billingsale Memorial M. E. Church, South.

The Presbyterian quartet accompanied by Mrs. E. E. Church, sang effectively "Crossing the Bar," "Lead Kindly Light" and "Jesus, Lover of My Soul." The floral offerings which surrounded the casket were numerous and beautiful.

Following the services the body was conveyed to Woodlawn cemetery where it was buried by R. C. Jones. The pall bearers were Harry F. Smith, Anthony Bowen, Frank C. Ewan, Frank H. Fleming, Lynn E. Yoder and George F. Jaynes.

Out-of-town people here for the funeral were D. S. Ritchie and Mrs. Mary Post of Uniontown, Pa., brother and sister of the late John Ritchie, husband of the deceased; Miss Cordella Lawhead and Mrs. H. L. Dobson; nieces of the deceased, also from Uniontown, and Miss Hattie Pride of Morgantown, also a niece.

FIRST MEETING OF IRISH PARLIAMENT TO BE TOMORROW

Anglo-Irish Treaty Expires— Formal Assent of King Only Required.

LONDON, Dec. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—Antonomous government for Ireland today lacked only the formal assent of King George to the Irish Constitution Bill.

The Anglo-Irish Treaty expires tomorrow when the provisional government will cease to function and the Free State government will officially take charge. The first meeting of the Dail Eireann as the Lower House of the Oireachtas or Irish Parliament, has been fixed for 5 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Meanwhile, the Dail will sit privately to choose thirty members of the Seanad Eireann, or Senate.

The choice will be made from about 150 candidates and the selection will be announced tomorrow.

The Daily Mail's Dublin correspondent says that the appointees of William Cosgrave, president of the Dail, include the well known writers, William Butler Yeats and George Russell; also the Earl of Wicklow, Lord Glenavy and possibly Lord Deechies, the husband of Helen Gould.

Timothy Healey, who yesterday confirmed in an interview his acceptance of the governor-generalship of the Irish Free State, returned to Dublin on the night boat after consultation at the colonial office which are understood to have been satisfactory to both parties.

Arrangements for the evacuation of all British troops remaining in Free State territory are going forward, and it is understood that the last of the military will have left by December 13.

Although the appointment of the new governor general of Ulster has not been announced, the report that the Duke of Abercorn would be the choice seems likely to prove accurate.

Constitution Approved

LONDON, Dec. 5.—(By the Associated Press.)—King George this evening gave royal sanction to the constitution setting up the Irish Free State as a dominion of the British Empire.

He spent the Thanksgiving holidays at his home in Glade Fork.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Price and son Dwight and Earl Beatty were the guests of the former's father, J. L. Price of Pricetown, Thanksgiving day.

Miss Naomi Asher is staying at the home of Thomas Hanley in Mannington.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cunningham moved to Ohio recently.

A number of people from this community attended the funeral of Mrs. Bob Holly of Logansport Friday.

One Musgrave has returned home after serving for a short time as night policeman in Mannington.

Miss Ada Beatty, who attends the high school at Grantville, spent Sunday at home.

S. E. BOYER BURIED HERE FROM HOME OF DAUGHTER

The body of S. E. Boyer, whose death occurred in Cincinnati, Ohio, several days ago, was brought to this city this morning. The body was taken to the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fred Wallace, on Merchant street, where funeral services were held at 10:20 o'clock.

Burial was made in Woodlawn cemetery by C. M. Williamson.

MUCH REALTY OWNED

NEW YORK, Dec. 5.—The Salvation Army owns realty of the United States of market value of $1,325,630, it has been revealed in a court order permitting the organization to mortgage its property at Port Chester for $10,000 to build a new home.

WENT TO THE DOCTOR AND THE DOCTOR SAID:

"Those pains around your heart after eating are caused by pressure from the stomach. That shortness of breath and palpitation can also be traced to the same source. Your fingers, arms and limbs feel numb and "go to sleep" because the excessive restricts circulation in various parts of the body.
