

BIG SPECIAL FEATURES

in next Sunday's issue of

CLARKSBURG'S BIG NEWSPAPER

THE SUNDAY TELEGRAM

EIGHT MAGAZINE FEATURES

In The Following Full Pages Which Are Illustrated by the World's Best Artists:

"PLAYING ROYAL GAME OF GOLF INDOORS" Bankers, brokers and business men can now make a pleasant round of links, even when weather drops below zero.	"FORMER SOUP LINE PATRON FEEDING THE HUNGRY NOW" Immigrant lad, forced to patronize Philadelphia charity table years ago, wins prosperity by hard work but does not forget the luckless thousands.	"PLENTY OF TIME AND NOTHING IN THE WORLD TO DO" That is what makes American women unhappy, says Grace Valentine, who says every lady of leisure should have an occupation.	"WHEN EVERY AMERICAN COULD SHOOT" It was just 100 years from January 8, when Andrew Jackson's backwoods sharpshooters beat the flower of the British army at New Orleans.
"HOW IT FEELS TO KILL ANOTHER MAN" Fritz Kreisler, back from the war where he was severely wounded in a hand-to-hand fight, tells of deeds of daring and about the war hospitals.	"MY DASH FOR LIBERTY FROM MILITARY PRISON" Gen. Benjamin F. Fisher, sole survivor of Libby tunnel diggers, tells how he and his companions tunneled under the guards and gained Federal lines.	COLONEL OF DEATH'S HEAD HUZZARS—A PRINCESS" While title of Kaiser's daughter is only honorary, she is an expert horse-woman and could command a regiment should she be needed.	"GUARDING OUR BRIDGES" Millions in money and an army of men needed for inspection of our American spans and for the annual painting and repair work.

Another Good Short Story by William L. Geppert, of Clarksburg
 Mr. Geppert's stories are proving very popular with readers of The Sunday Telegram. The story to be published next Sunday is an exceptionally good one. You'll like it.

Four Page COLORED COMIC Section

Absolutely the highest class comic in the world. Every subject a headliner. "Polly and Her Pals," "Buster Brown," "Dolly Dimples" and "That Son-in-Law of Pa's" in new and original stunts

Telegraph News Dispatches

3 to 12 hours later than news in the editions of New York, Pittsburg and other metropolitan newspapers which are circulated in West Virginia. The Clarksburg Sunday Telegram receives the service of the Associated Press over a direct wire. Special correspondents are employed in Washington, Fairmont, Charleston, Grafton, Weston and central West Virginia towns

GET YOUR COPY OF
The Sunday Telegram
 Next Sunday, January 3

You will like it better than any Sunday newspaper you ever read. There's a Telegram Agent in your Town. Order from him today.