ONLY 15 DAYS TO PAY INCOME TAX

Local Deputy Collector to Be at Courthouse March 6 to 15

Taxpayers have fifteen days, not including Sundays, in which to file their income tax returns for the calendar year of 1921. Von E. Teeter, of Fairmont, deputy collector of internal revenue, pointed out today. To avoid penalty, the returns, accompanied by at least one quarter of the tax, must be in the hands of the collector of internal revenue or a deputy collector on or before midnight of March 15. Mr. Teeter will be at the court house from March 6 to 9 to assist local persons in making out their returns.

Where in exceptional cases such as illness or absence, a taxpayer is unable to make a return within the time prescribed, an extension of not to exceed 30 days may be obtained upon application to the collector. Such extensions will be granted only when in the judgment of the collector, further time is actually required for the making of an accurate return. Application for such extension must be made prior to March 15.

As a condition of granting an extension of time for filing a return, the collector may require the submission of a tentative return. Tentative returns will not be accepted unless permission is obtained previous to filing. A copy of the authority for filing the tentative return must be attached thereto when filed. Where a taxpayer files a complete return within the period of the extension requested by him, the complete return when filed is subject to penalties prescribed for delinquency.

If before the end of a thirty day extension granted by the collector, an accurate return cannot be made, an appeal for a further extension must be made to the commissioner of internal revenue, Washington, D. C., with a full recital of the causes for the delay. The commissioner will not grant an additional extension without a clear showing that a complete return cannot be made at the end of the thirty-day period. For failure to file a return on time, the taxpayer becomes liable to a penalty of not more than $1,000 and a further penalty of 25 per cent of the amount of tax due, unless he later files a return and it is satisfactorily shown that the delinquency was due to a reasonable cause and not to willful neglect.

To assist the public in filing income tax returns, Mr. Teeter will be at the following places in Marion county, on the dates designated: February 27, Farmington, bank; February 28, Grant Town, postoffice; March 1, Fairview, postoffice; March 2, Hammond, brick company office; March 3, Scott Dale, postoffice; March 4, Worthington, postoffice; March 6 to 15, Fairmont, court house. There will be no charge for the assistance rendered by Mr. Teeter.

On March 14 and 15 there will be a special agent from the bureau at Washington with the deputy collector at Fairmont for the purpose of rendering assistance in the making of corporation and partnership returns. This service is also free.

LAST CONCERT BOOKED FRIDAY

Violinist and Reader to Give Last Number of Legion Course

Crawford Adams, American violinist, who will appear at the first Presbyterian church next Friday with his company, will be the last number of the entertainment course of the Fred R. Heintzelman post of the American Legion. Mr. Adams has been playing his violin to Lyceum audiences for the last eight years, and has earned the title of the "Wizard of the Violin" because he can play any piece requested.

Mr. Adams will be assisted this year by Miss Marien Wilkins, reader. Miss Wilkins was here last year with the Weber male quartet. The early part of this year she was booked throughout the New England states where she appeared as a reader by herself. The prices for the concert Friday will be $1 for adults, 50 cents for Normal school students and 35 cents for grade school pupils. Ticket have been placed on sale at the H-H drug store.

Legion Notes
 No meeting of the local organizations of former service men are scheduled for this week, but four meetings will be held next week. Fred R. Heintzelman post No. 17, American Legion, will meet Thursday, March 2, at the club rooms.

 Herechell J. Hamilton post No. 112, American Legion, will meet Monday, March 6.
 Fairmont post No. 629, V. F. W. will meet Tuesday, March 14.
 Fred R. Heintzelman unit No. 23, American Legion auxiliary will meet Tuesday, March 7, at their parlor in the club rooms of the Fred R. Heintzelman post.
 Adopted House Rules

At the last meeting of Fred R. Heintzelman post No. 17, American Legion house rules for the club rooms, were adopted. The rooms will be open until 11 p. m. every evening except Saturday, when the rooms will close at 12 midnight. A canteen has been opened with W. R. Ice in charge. Ice will also act as steward for the club.

Last Call
 Members of the post who have not yet paid their 1922 dues will not receive the American Legion Weekly after March 1. Marshall M. Hamilton will receive dues from members of Fred R. Heintzelman post at the H-H drug store.

The military organization, the Siberian Veterans in New York city, is made up of all Americans who saw war service in Siberia. Woodrow Wilson is honorary president of the organization.

Every town of 500 or more persons in Minnesota has an American Legion post.

FAIRMONT'S Automobile Show and Style Week MARCH 7-11

STANDARD GARAGE LOCUST AVENUE

The Building of a Car

—the strong specially forged steel parts that enter into the automobile you drive,—the exact precision with which the parts are made to fit and many other features in the building of a high class motor car, will be explained by men who know,—in connection with the Second Annual Automobile Show to be held Tuesday to Saturday of next week.

Several cars,—minus the body and woodwork—will be on exhibition at the Show. This will give visitors an opportunity to peep into the "insides" of an automobile,—and to see under what principles it work.

The music and entertainment for the Automobile Show will be a feature of the week's event. During the first night music will be furnished by the Moose Band,—and the other evenings,—the Liberty Revue will be the entertainment feature.
