

SHINNSTON CLUB EXPECTED TO BE ACTIVE BOOSTER

Women Organized With Seventeen Members-Other News of Interest.

SHINNSTON, April 28.—With the organization of the Women's Club here with a membership of seventeen, Shinnston has a new association that is expected to play a big part in both the social and civic activities of the community. The organization was effected last Friday afternoon, when Mrs. O. G. Wilson, Mrs. James A. Meredith, Mrs. Joseph Rosier, Mrs. M. I. Hutchinson and several other Fairmont women came here for the organization meeting which was held in the Shinnston M. E. Church. Coincident with the organization meeting, the local club made application through Mrs. O. G. Wilson, division president of the central district of the State Federation of Women's Clubs, for membership in the state association.

The following officers of the Shinnston club have been elected: President, Mrs. Charles F. Randall; vice-president, Mrs. Charles L. Watkins; secretary, Mrs. Josephine Harmer; treasurer, Mrs. G. H. Higginbotham; by-laws committee, Mrs. Homer Hawkins, Mrs. George H. Wisser, Mrs. Frank Ferguson; program committee, Mrs. Guy Hardesty, Mrs. Chester Jones and Mrs. B. H. Lucas.

Three departments of study, civics, home-economics and fine arts, with the latter comprising music, literature and art, were decided upon as the scope of activities for the organization at its beginning. The club will hold its meetings on the first and third Fridays of each month at 2:30 p. m.

Members of the new club are: Mrs. Charles F. Randall, C. H. Higginbotham, B. H. Lucas, John Lucas, H. S. Ferguson, Fred Ferguson, Guy Hardesty, I. O. Ash, Lee Boggs, Homer Hawker, N. B. Cox, G. W. Wisser, Chester Jones, J. S. Maloy, W. F. Bock, L. F. Chalant and Charles L. Watkins. On the advice of Mrs. Yost, it was decided to leave the club charter open for a short time in order to enable other representative women of the town to join as charter members. The club is starting off with good prospects and will no doubt be a strong factor in the town's social and educational development.

Local Girl Dies.
Word was received here last Friday that Miss Meritt Pearl Vincent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Vincent, had died at the home of her parents. She was one of the most popular young girls in the whole community and in another month would have reached her fourteenth birthday. She had been ill with catarrhal affections for several months, and death was due to infection from the disease. Funeral services were held at the local M. E. Church last Sunday, her pastor, the Rev. E. O. Jones being in charge of the services. The church was filled to overflowing, and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. Following the funeral services, interment was made in the Odd Fellows Cemetery.

Mrs. B. F. Hess Dead.
Mrs. Elmer Hess, wife of B. F. Hess, who resides near Annabelle, died at her home on Tuesday evening. Mrs. Hess was 65 years old. She had been in her usual health until Monday morning when she was suddenly stricken with apoplexy while going about her household duties. She was a member of the M. E. Church South.

Local Man Injured.
William Vincent of Shinnston is in St. Mary's hospital in Clarksburg suffering from injuries received in an automobile accident in Shinnston Wednesday. Vincent had been employed at Owings mine but since the strike he has been working at carpentering. Wednesday he was standing on the sidewalk talking to some men when an automobile ran into him. The extent of his injuries have not been determined. The man at the steering wheel of the machine was learning to drive.

Last Sunday his daughter, Meritt,

12 years old, was buried. His daughter, Mabel, is suffering from the effects of influenza and will be taken to a hospital in Baltimore. William Vincent is a brother of the Rev. Eddy Vincent, a well-known minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church.

FROSTS SHOW EFFECTS.
WASHINGTON, April 28.—The total value of fruit and fruit products on farms in 1921 was $525,000,000, as compared with $744,000,000 in 1920 and $755,000,000 in 1919, the Department of Agriculture announced today. The decline is attributed to killing frosts early in 1921 and to lower prices. Production of apples in 1921 was only 96,881,000 bushels as compared with 223,677,000 in 1920. Peaches dropped from 45,620,000 bushels in 1920 to 32,733,000 in 1921 and pears from 16,805,000 to 10,705,000. There was a slight increase in production of oranges at 30,700,000 boxes.

TO OBSERVE MAY DAY.
WASHINGTON, April 28.—May Day will be observed by the National Association for Constitutional Government, according to an announcement today, with a meeting in Washington "of citizens who are actively opposed to all forms of destructive radicalism." The meeting, which will be presided over by David Jayne Hill, founder and president of the association, will be the feature of the organization's annual convention.
