

MIST MISTINGS

Dr. S. B. Hoskin is spending his vacation at Seaside.

Typewriter ribbons and carbon paper can be obtained at the Mist office.

Mrs. John Taylor, of Forest Grove, is here on a visit to her son, Rev. D. J. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. Von Gray motored to Portland Sunday and spent the day with friends.

Miss Leona Perkins, Miss Elsie Perkins and Miss Amy George are at Seaside for the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mackay and Jordan Zan spent the week end with friends and relatives here.

At Mason's Sunday—French Vanilla and Raspberry ice cream. Banana ice cream in brick. Phone 119.

Mrs. Willard Marsh, of Rainier, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hobbs.

M. F. Sommarstrom, of the Columbia City shipbuilding company, was a business visitor to Portland Monday.

Miss Gladys Hobbs, after a very pleasant visit with her friend Miss Vera Geartman, of Mountaineer, has returned home.

Dr. Lowe, the eye specialist, will be in Rainier Saturday, September 1. Will not be in St. Helens till October.

In order to take care of their heavy beach traffic, the S. P. & S. has added a special Sunday flier. It leaves Seaside at 6 p. m. and arrives in Portland at 10:05.

The Twenty-Second Annual Astoria Regatta will be held in Astoria August 31, September 1, 2 and 3. It is the intention to make this year's regatta better than ever before.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Brown and family returned to St. Helens Tuesday night, after a week pleasantly spent in the Mount Hood country. They motored as far as Government camp and left their auto there when they went on to Mt. Hood.

Dr. W. T. Johnson, a veterinary surgeon, has located in St. Helens for the practice of his profession. Before coming to St. Helens the doctor was employed by the state of Washington and he has had much experience in veterinary practice.

Arthur Jones, of the Strand Theatre Orchestra, has installed a $200 marimba in the theatre, which has proven one of the finest musical instruments that has ever appeared in St. Helens and has caused much favorable comment from the theatre-going public.

County Agricultural Agent Howard and Mrs. Howard left Saturday for Willamette valley points. They will spend some time in the mountains east of Salem and plan to return to St. Helens about September 1.

Harold Broughton went down to Cannon beach Saturday and returned Monday accompanied by Mrs. Broughton, who has been spending the past two weeks at that popular resort.

Judge M. F. Hazen and Mrs. Hazen returned Saturday after having spent Friday at the Iowa picnic at Salem. They report having a most enjoyable time and during the day met many friends and near acquaintances who came from the same section in Iowa in which the judge formerly resided. There were about 400 former citizens of the Hawkeye state at the picnic. The association has fixed their next meeting date as August 17, 1918, at Salem.

Mrs. Ruby Hughes, of Rainier, spent Tuesday with her friend Mrs. A. F. Barnett.

Dr. R. L. Jeffcott and Mrs. Jeffcott and son Bob, of Portland, were in St. Helens Friday.

Dr. C. G. Hall and wife, of Portland, were recent visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. H. Shinn motored to Portland Sunday, returning Tuesday afternoon.

H. B. Beckett, a prominent attorney of Portland, was the week end guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. McCormick.

Judge M. F. Hazen and Mrs. Hazen entertained their grand nieces, Viola and Louie Cooper, Saturday evening and Sunday.

Harry Thorp, who is now working for the Hammond Lumber Company at Oak Point, visited his father and sister Sunday.

W. A. Harris returned Saturday night from Seaside, where he has been spending a few days with his family. He enjoyed his vacation.

Mrs. L. L. Decker is in receipt of a postal from her son Harold. It was mailed in Chicago, and Harold stated that he was on his way east but he didn't know his destination. He is a member of the hospital corps.

The steamer Cello, after discharging her Portland cargo of freight, dropped down to St. Helens Saturday night. The vessel took on a cargo of 965,000 feet of lumber and sailed Thursday night, San Pedro being her destination.

For the benefit of the Red Cross, a silver tea was given at the home of Mrs. A. L. Stone Tuesday afternoon. She was assisted by Mrs. Hoskin, chairman of the local branch. A neat sum was realized for Red Cross purposes.

J. W. Allen has bought the Jeffcott house and will move from his present location to the newly bought property next week. Mr. Seebrey, of Oakland, Cal., mechanical superintendent for the Sommarstrom Bros., has rented the cottage where the Allens now reside.

Gordon Ishister, Mason Dillard and Oura Hisey are members of a party of young men who are camping at Spirit Lake, Wash. Prof. Ostrander, of the Portland Y. M. C. A., formerly of St. Helens, is looking after the boys, who are having the time of their life.

J. S. Dellinger and wife were St. Helens visitors Tuesday. They left in their auto during the afternoon and expected to make Astoria before nightfall. Mr. Dellinger is editor and proprietor of the Morning Astorian.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crandall, of Seattle, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Fannie Ross. Mrs. Crandall is a sister of Mrs. Ross.

Burrell Graves and "Mickey" McDonald left Tuesday morning for "somewhere" in Oregon. All that can be ascertained is that Mickey took his auto and made an early start. Both boys have been drafted, so the secrecy might be just a preparation for what will come later. During Mr. Graves' absence Miss Ethel Sten is assisting in the post-office work.

Attorney George Gore left Monday morning via the steamer Great Northern for the officers' training camp at San Francisco. Before leaving, Mr. Gore made arrangements with H. B. Beckett, of the firm of Wilbur, Spender & Beckett of Portland, to assist W. A. Harris, Mr. Gore's partner, in carrying on the business during Mr. Gore's absence. Mr. Beckett will try the cases for the firm.

Mrs. J. H. Cronkite and son James are visiting friends in Warrenton. They are expected to return to St. Helens next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mell, of The Dalles, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Mell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. O. Larabee, in West St. Helens.

C. W. Blakesley went down to Seaside Saturday and returned Sunday night accompanied by Mrs. Blakesley and her friend Mrs. Bertha Rottman, of Portland, who will visit in St. Helens for some days.

Alfred Davis, of Beaverton, is here visiting his daughter, Mrs. V. L. Shepherd. Mr. Davis was last in St. Helens in 1866 and helped to construct the old mill. He also built the house which is now occupied by H. E. LeBare.

The steamer Willamette will be the next steamer to call at St. Helens. She is expected to arrive in the river today, and after discharging her Portland freight cargo will come to St. Helens for a full load of lumber.

Danny Richardson received orders to report at Eugene, where the Red Cross ambulance corps is to be mobilized. It is expected they will be sent to American lake for training, and then over to France to look after our wounded soldiers. Danny left this morning.

St. Helens friends have received word that Lester (Duke) Wellington, now a member of the aviation corps, is now in New York. Lester expects to soon sail for England or France, but doesn't know exactly when. He has received a promotion and is now a full fledged corporal.

Lost—On the road, either between Chapman and Scappoose or Scappoose and St. Helens, a man's grey coat. It contained books and papers valuable only to the owner. If the finder will notify E. C. Stanwood, sheriff of Columbia county, St. Helens, Oregon, a liberal reward will be paid.

Mrs. Mary Brooks Walter, mother of Mrs. E. B. Woods, died at the family residence in Portland Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Woods was at her mother's bedside when the final summons came. Deceased was 81 years of age and was a pioneer resident of Portland. The funeral will be held today.

J. W. Van Natta and family returned Wednesday from their long trip through Oregon and California. While away they took in many of the interesting places—the natural bridge across Rogue river, Crater Lake park and others. The 1,500-mile trip was made without any accident to mar the pleasure of the motorists.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crandall, of Seattle, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Stone entertained Thursday night at a porch dinner party. The guests present were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Crandall, Mrs. Fannie Ross, Dr. and Mrs. L. G. Ross, Mr. Eli Shaffer, Miss Dora Shaffer, Dr. Edwin Ross, Miss Harriet Ross, Mrs. Flora Owen and Miss Parmley.

John Q. Gage has received word from his son Roy, who enlisted in the United States cavalry and was stationed at Fort Russell, Wyo., that his command had been ordered to Honolulu and they expected to leave for San Francisco on the 16th. Young Harrison is a member of the same command. Roy Laws is also in the cavalry service and is now stationed in Honolulu.

MIST MISTINGS FROM WEST ST. HELENS

Helen White spent the week end in Portland.

Jack Milkey, of Albany, spent the week end in Houlton.

Mrs. Moffett is spending a few days in St. Johns on business.

Miss Juanita Moffett is home from Portland for a few days.

Sherman Saxton, of Scappoose, was seen on our streets Tuesday.

Adrian Lehman, of Lents, is spending the week with the Oliver family. Cal Howard and family are moving into one of Mrs. Wilkerson's houses.

Mrs. Urie, who has been spending a few days in Warren, returned home Monday.

Wm. Morley took a barge up the Columbia Highway on his big truck Sunday.

"Red" Webber has gone to California points and will be gone a couple of weeks.

E. O. Steward has been attending the Grand Council I. O. R. M. in Portland this week.

N. A. Perry and a party passed through here Wednesday on their return from Seaside.

A very enjoyable time was had by everyone at the dance given by Mrs. Daniels Saturday night.

A. Gannon, of the U. B. of A., was in Houlton Wednesday on business connected with that order.

Oren Johnson, of Battery B. U. S. A., visited his folks at Bachelor Flat for a few hours Saturday.

Mrs. N. O. Woodward came up from Astoria Wednesday to look after some business and visit friends.

Mrs. Jennie Lovelace, of Rainier, came up Sunday to spend a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Guy Tarbell.

White Shoes

Austin's

White Shoes

CLOSING OUT SALE ON LADIES' AND CHILDREN'S WHITE SHOES

We must make room for our Fall and Winter stock of Shoes which will soon arrive, so we are offering a big reduction in the prices of our White Canvas Shoes in order to close them out at once.

NOTE THESE BARGAINS

$4.50 Ladies' High Top
Lace Shoes at.....	$3.65
$4.00 Ladies' High Top
Lace Shoes at.....	$2.95
$2.50 Ladies' White
Canvas Pumps at.....	$1.85
$2.85 Ladies' Rubber
Sole Bal.....	$2.20
$2.50 Ladies' Rubber
Sole Pumps.....	$1.85
$2.00 Ladies' National
Parade Pumps.....	$1.50
$2.00 Ladies' Nassau Bal.
Week End Bal.....	$1.65
$1.50 Ladies' National
Emmy-Lou.....	$1.25
$1.40 Misses' Cinderella
Pumps.....	$1.10
$1.00 Child's Mary Jane.....	.80c

There will be many days of white shoe weather before the winter season sets in, and at the prices we are offering these shoes it will be to your advantage to investigate and effect this saving.

Announcement of New Garage

I beg to announce to the public that I have opened a Public Garage and I am prepared to serve the auto owner. I handle the Red Crown gasoline, Ajax tires and will have a full line of Automobile Accessories. I have ample store room for cars, and storage rates are reasonable. A portion of your patronage will be appreciated.

W. J. Muckle Garage

ST. HELENS, OREGON

"Doc" RAE'S BIG DANCE

CITY HALL, ST. HELENS

Saturday, August 25

With a New Orchestra from Portland

BEST OF FLOOR MANAGEMENT

Admission $1.00

TO THE PUBLIC

I wish to announce that I have bought the FISH, POULTRY and ICE business formerly conducted by S. R. Sonneland, and from now on will conduct the business. I believe I can give you better service and better prices by conducting the business on a cash basis, so I am going to try this system. I will handle Fresh and Cured Fish, Poultry, Ice and other things you need. My phone number is 42, and if you don't call me up probably I'll call you, and when you place your order you can depend on prompt delivery and reasonable prices. I respectfully solicit a portion of your patronage, and will do my best to give service, satisfaction and quality.

Thomas A. Roy

SUCCESSOR TO S. R. SONNELAND

The Girl of the Golden West

A TYPICAL "HART" FEATURE WITH THE DANCE HALLS, THE HOLDUP MAN AND THE GIRL.

Two days
MONDAY and TUESDAY

AT ST. HELENS' POPULAR THEATRE

The STRAND

(ALWAYS GOOD—MOST TIMES GREAT)

THIS DRAMATIC FEATURE OF THE DAYS WHEN CALIFORNIA EXPERIENCED THE "GOLD RUSH IN THE FORTY-NINES" IS RANKED AS ONE OF THE GREATEST WESTERN PLAYS EVER PRODUCED, BOTH ON THE STAGE AND SCREEN.