

OREGON MIST. PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY.

SIDE-HEAD PARAGRAPHS.

PLAIN TALK.—They say funny things back in Kansas when a political fight is on. For instance, a newspaper back there, referring to the newly-elected governor, says: "The reason horses do not bring more is because street cars are run by electricity, threshing machines by steam, and the state by a donkey."

WILL USE BLOODHOUNDS.—County Judge Cornelius, of Hillsboro, has sent an order to a dealer for two trained bloodhounds, at the quoted price of $100, which it is proposed shall be used in hunting down the perpetrators of numerous hold ups and robberies in Washington county.

THE FEATHERED KINGDOM.—Ducks are in season now; but they are hard to find, though said to be around in good-sized bands. For a few years they have been somewhat scarce, which a St. Helens man accounts for by saying that they have been going up the Columbia into the wheat fields of Eastern Oregon. Cold weather up there will mean plenty of ducks here.

NOT SO HERE.—Chinamen who are familiar with the Denny pheasant at home, claim that in time the bird will become so plentiful in Oregon that it will not be enough in the grain fields but will attack the gardens.—Ex That might be true in China where they shoot pop-guns; but not in Oregon where there is lots of powder and shot and hundreds of crack wing shots.

ADVERTISING IN DOLL TIMES.—The habit of advertising in doll times—the stir up business is slowly growing, but as yet it is far behind the plan of advertising when trade is brisk. Good trade makes a merchant liberal with advertising; bad patronage makes him economical. Liberal advertisers are always known to be liberal dealers; hence the public patronize those who advertise.

MAKE YOUR WANTS KNOWN.—Persons wishing notices or advertisements in this paper should bring them in on Wednesday as the paper goes to press Thursday. This paper has a large circulation throughout the county, and is an excellent medium through which to reach country customers. Our subscription book is open to the inspection of advertisers that they may see what they are getting for their money.

THE EXPOSITION.—The Portland Universal Exposition opened last Saturday night with a fair attendance. The exposition was said to not yet be complete in all its details at that time, but probably by this time everything is in running order. It is given under the patronage of the mayor, city council, and chamber of commerce, and the gentlemen composing those organizations are laboring very hard to make it a success.

OFFICERS ELECTED.—Tuesday night was regular election of officers in Avon lodge No. 62, Knights of Pythias, in St. Helens. The officers elected are: C. C. Dave Davis; V. C. W. A. Harris; F. J. James Sheldon; M. A. A. Harris; C. M. W. D. J. Switzer; M. E. E. E. Quick; M. F. C. H. Newell; K. R. and S. S. Chas. Davis; I. G. C. W. Blakesley; O. G. Jas. Muckle; J. W. D. Connell, trustees for three years.

BIG PAY.—The professors in the Oregon Agricultural college, at Corvallis, receive the following salaries: Bloos, $2,500 and $40 for secretary; Letcher, Borcholt, Snell, Corvallis, Washburn, Shaw, French, Clark, Horner, Bristol, each, $1,000; Fulton, $1,000; Coate, $1,200; Mrs. Callahan, $900; Thompson, foreman, $900; Emmett, mechanical, $900; E. B. Prichard, carpenter, $750; Clark, printer, $1,200; Fernot, photography, $900.

GOT MIXED UP.—A Medford lawyer got fooled the following way: There are two Jarvis boys, twin brothers, living at Medford, and their resemblance, one to the other, is decidedly similar, so much so that Attorney Parker thought one was the other and put him to work on his city property, whereas the other protested vigorously, but Mr. Parker declared he had employed both of them and didn't know it—in short Mr. Parker doesn't know just where he is at or what station he'll get out of it.

A DISGUISED CHINAMAN.—The Long Creek Eagle says: "The China storekeeper at Susanville played 'sucker' a short time ago, and now mourns the loss of $100. A stranger came into his store and bought a $10 bill of goods, and presented a $100 confederate bill in payment therefor. The Chinaman, without examining the bill, promptly gave the stranger $90 in gold in return. The mistake was not discovered until the following morning, and then Mr. Chinaman was not in a position to do anything, the man presenting the worthless money being a stranger, and the Chinaman unable to describe him. It is safe to say this China merchant will be more particular in the future about giving out change for spurious-looking $100 bills.

NEWSPAPER SYNDICATE.—The Milton Eagle is responsible for the following, and that is all that is necessary to substantiate its truthfulness: "A powerful newspaper syndicate has been formed, which proposes to give the northwest the best paper it has ever had. The start has been made by buying the Pasco News at $35,000, the Spokane Review at $110,000, the Sheridan Sun at $8,000, and offers are now pending for the Tacoma Ledger, News, and Union at pool prices of $190,000, says an exchange. The Milton Eagle will be bought later, and thus the syndicate will control the leading papers from the great lakes to the Pacific. Among the organizers of the syndicate are Col. F. J. Parker, E. V. Smalley, Alfred Holman, N. W. Durham, and H. O. Guild. F. G. Hull, of the Eagle, will also take a hand, and so the proper way to run distribution rollers on a Campbell press is 'kattawampus', and not straight across on the roller rack.

ANOTHER LABEL.—The Cottage Grove Leader perpetrates the following malicious libel in a recent issue: "It is curious how some people can make mistakes. A short time ago a young lady not many miles from Eugene was troubled with a boil about the size of a golf ball. It grew so bad that she thought it necessary to call a doctor, but as the family doctor was a single man she shuddered at the thought of showing the boil to him. The mother suggested one of the other resident physicians, who were all old married men, but the father kicked. He said it would make the young doctor mad. The young lady saw a way out of the difficulty. She reported that one of those traveling doctors who had been coming to that town regularly for a long time was in town, and she saw him pass with his medicine case that afternoon. It was agreed that they would watch for the specialist and call him sure enough along he came. He was called in and the young lady very modestly exhibited her boil. The stranger, rather curiously for a doctor, looked at it and remarked, 'Well, that's a bad.' Well, doctor, what shall I do?' The stranger tumbled. He smiled a smile and replied: 'Get a doctor; I'm a piano tuner.'

ALL ABOUT A HARNES.—One Mr. Simon, a teamster, lived in Eugene last spring. A tramp came along and stole a set of harness from him. The tramp sold the harness, says the Journal, which he had stuffed in a sack, to one McFarland for $1. Mr. McFarland sold the harness to Mr. Eli Bangs for $1.50. Mr. Bangs sold to Wm. Parsons the same harness for $6.50. Mr. Parsons traded the same harness to Bob Blair for a lighter harness. This week Mr. Simon, who has been away from Eugene since last April, returned to Eugene and happened to recognize his harness on one of Mr. Blair's teams. Blair gave it up to the owner and got his light harness back from Parsons. Parsons got his $6.50 back from Bangs, and when McFarland pays Bangs the $1.50 everything will be right again, and McFarland will be in the soup, for the tramp is gone these many months. All parties are satisfied as each had the harness almost long enough to pay for it.

A GOOD EXAMPLE.—Mr. John F. Ryan, who lives on Five Mile, and who is road supervisor of his district, did a good day's work on Three Mile hill the other day, says The Dallas Times-Mountaineer. He procured a sledge-hammer, and broke large rocks into small pieces and filled in the chuck holes. This made the road very passable, and was a great improvement over its former condition. When asked by a neighbor, who was passing the road, why he did not use the rock-crusher, a hall interest in which was purchased by the county, he held up his sledge-hammer in his hands, and answered, "This is the best rock-crusher I know, and it is not very expensive, either." It would be a good plan if other road supervisors would follow Mr. Ryan's example.

HIS FIRST LOVE.—Doubtless there is one woman in these United States who is thankful she did not marry her first love, says the Boston Journal. When she was a young girl she met, on a visit to friends, a theological student, to whom eventually she became engaged. This youth showed himself fickle and jilted the girl. Later on he again jilted another young woman, and although she forgave and subsequently married him, he has never been anything more than an ordinary country clergyman, whom the first girl could not regret. She has since married and her name is Mrs. Grover Cleveland.

THE POWER OF MILK.—If a pan of milk is placed near an open vessel containing turpentine, the smell of turpentine is soon communicated to the milk. The same result occurs as regards tobacco, paraffin, asphaltum, camphor, and many other strong-smelling substances. Milk should also be kept at a distance from every volatile substance, and milk which has stood in sick chambers should never be drunk. The power of milk to disguise the taste of drugs—as potassium, iodine, opium, salicylate, etc.—is well known.

Struck By a Sand-Car.—OREGON CITY, Nov. 29.—At 4 o'clock this morning, C. Gallagher, night foreman at the new electric power-house, was seriously, perhaps fatally, injured by a sand-car, with a load weighing fully a ton, falling upon him. The breaking of an iron pin in the hoisting gear caused the car to fall back, and Gallagher freely admits that he was where he ought not to have been when the descending car caught him. No bones were broken, but there was concussion of the spine and serious internal injury. The injured man has a wife and three children.

(Mr. Gallagher is well known in this section of Columbia county, having been engaged in the butchering business in this city several years ago.—Ed.)

Party Purification.—Weaver, of Iowa, stopped out of the republican party when it would not continue him in office any longer, into the green-back party. Then, when the greenbackers could not give him office, he stopped over into the people's party, and was their candidate for president. He canvassed Oregon while running for president on that ticket. When that organization failed and faded out he had sense enough to leave it, while some others did not, and he joined the democrats. The democrats refused to take him back. The democrats nominated him for congress in his district in Iowa. The populists thereupon dropped him and he was completely snubbed under by the republican candidate, November 6. There is no other party left for Weaver to join. He has tried them all and failed. Lack of political honesty and stability of character has ruined the career of a once brilliant man. The fate of such men as Greeley, Fremont, Tilden, Schurz, Weaver, and Penney, to say nothing about Pierce and the smaller fry in Oregon, should admonish men who have been honored and trusted by their party to use their influence for within their own party and not jump into some other organization, which is no better than their own, on slight hints out of the same kind of materials of which their own party is composed. There is room only for two permanent parties in this country, and when a third party comes to stay one of those now on the stage must retire.—Eugene Journal.

PERSONAL AND LOCAL.

Geo. Perry and wife visited Portland last Friday.

Mrs. John Cloninger has been ill for several days.

Mr. John West, of Westport, was in the city Monday.

New Christmas goods, choice selection at Dolman's.

John Cooper is quite low with typhoid-pneumonia.

Attorneys Allen and Dillard visited Portland last Saturday.

Walter Cox and Walter Blakeley visited Portland Monday.

Miss Jade Groves spent Sunday in Portland, visiting relatives.

The Trans-Mississippi Congress met in St. Louis, Mo., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Swager, of Scappoose, were in town last Sunday.

Geo. Lemont has just finished the erection of an addition to his barn.

E. M. Potter, of Kalama, was seen on our streets last Monday morning.

Lewis Kihm, a student of Portland University, spent last Sunday in St. Helens.

Mrs. A. B. Little, of Houlton, was a passenger down on the Dixon last Sunday.

Miss Anna Merrill has been confined to her room for several days from ill health.

Dr. Edwin Ross, of St. Vincent hospital, Portland, spent last Sunday in this place.

The sawmill at this place shut down Wednesday evening, and the next day it snowed.

Jared Wilson, of Beaver Valley, was doing business at the county seat last Wednesday.

The teachers' institute for the first judicial district was held at Grants Pass last week.

A great many cases of whooping cough is reported in the Tide creek neighborhood.

We are sorry to hear that Miss Kitty Moore is suffering with typhoid fever at her home in Salem.

R. C. Campbell, of Rainier, put in an appearance at the county seat on Wednesday of this week.

Miss Dell Butler left Wednesday of last week for Oregon City, where she will reside during the winter.

The parties who borrowed the putty knife from A. H. Blakesley's old house will please return it without delay.

Miss Frankie Way came down from Portland last Friday to spend a few days with her parents, returning on Monday.

The steamers Potter and Telephone are doing some pretty fast running just now. Competition is the life of any thing.

Quite a number of St. Helens' young people attended the dance at Columbia City last Saturday evening, and report having had a most enjoyable time.

W. H. Dolman was in Portland this week, having been drawn as one of the United States federal jurors. He was excused, however, and returned home Wednesday.

Two football players died at South-bridge, Mass., November 30, from injuries received during a game the day before, and three more are not expected to live.

George Perry, of Houlton, has just completed a new residence on his place. The building is 18x30 feet and one and one-half stories high. He expects to move into his new quarters soon.

R. S. Hutton, principal of the public schools of this place, went to Clatskanie Wednesday evening of last week to spend Thanksgiving with his family at that place, returning Monday.

Messrs. Orchard & Switzer yesterday completed the system of gravity water works at Woodburn which they have been working on for the last three months. The work was accepted by the city.

John Eder, representing the Copen Shoe Company of Oregon City, was in town last Friday in the interest of that company. It is the only manufacturing establishment of that kind in Oregon.

H. W. Scott, of the Oregonian, and A. Sorenson, of the Evening Telegram, Portland, have been arrested and bound over in the sum of $200 to await the action of the grand jury, on a charge of criminal libel.

Deputy Clerk Harris, Chas. Davis, and Deputy Sheriff Blakeley were passengers on the Lurline Saturday afternoon for Portland, to attend the opening of the exposition which occurred on that day.

Two marriages have recently occurred at Yankton, this county. That of Chas. Crouse to Mrs. Vining and Skeff Kelso to Miss Lizzie Howard, daughter of Herb Howard, the proprietor of the sawmill at that place.

Quite a number of teams are busy hauling wood into town, which is used by steamers plying on the river between Astoria and Portland. This is the first year there has been any amount of wood, to speak of, sold to steamers at this point.

It requires only one or two visits to Portland to convince the purchaser that our county stores can and do sell cheaper than Portland retail houses.

Mr. Dolman, when in Portland this week, examined the question fully, and finds that we "sell" there at a low price and always pay them a liberal profit.

Last Thanksgiving was quite a day for sport throughout the state in the line of football. The Seattle's succeeded in shutting out the Portland by a score of 8 to 0. The University team, of Portland, who went to Corvallis to contest with the O. A. C. boys, were in better luck, and succeeded in defeating their opponents by a score of 22 to 0. The contest at Eugene college between the Forest Grove and Eugene college teams resulted in a tie, neither side scoring a point. Great interest is taken in the game of football throughout the whole United States, it being confined principally to colleges.

If you have something to sell let the people know it by advertising in THE MIST.

The Mist is the only newspaper published in Columbia county. A personal of its columns will convince one of that fact.

The first snow of the season fell here yesterday morning, intermixed with rain. There was enough of "the beautiful" to cover the ground.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever." This weather is not beautiful, consequently there is no joy. However, E. Z. Joy was in town Monday.

F. D. Henrici, of Montaville, was in town several days this week. He has been engaged in enclosing the family lot in Germany Hill cemetery with a neat fence, built mostly of native material, in the line of basaltic.

CLATSKANIE.

Watson Elliott, of Marshland, was on our streets last week.

Miss Hattie Conyers took a brief trip to Oregon City last week.

C. H. Wheeler spent a few days in town the forepart of last week.

E. S. Bryant came in on the steamer last week from a visit to Portland.

R. A. Gage, Fred Longfelt, and others were passengers up the river Monday.

Professor Hawes took a few days off last week to be with friends in Portland on Thanksgiving day.

Mr. and Mrs. Eas rowed a boat from Westport to be present at the entertainment Thursday evening.

The school board met the other day to adjust some business, after the completion of three months of school.

Mrs. Stewart, of Portland, spent a few days in Beaver valley looking after the new baby and its mother at Barnes'.

The poet Longfellow constituted a study for the literary circle at a recent meeting, and those present seemed to be quite interested.

R. S. Hutton was down from St. Helens two or three days last week looking after a sick child and the interests of his family generally.

Rev. White preached at Beaver on Thanksgiving day and talked up the wants of the Portland hospital. Some supplies were furnished for use of the hospital.

C. Melis has been over from Nehalem the past week or more doing brick work in the way of building chimneys for W. K. Tichenor's new house and at other places.

We noticed A. F. and John Myers with a small party go out hunting last Friday, equipped for camping out, but have not heard of any venison or bear meat in our market since.

D. J. Barnes stopped work on the shingle mill last week to attend to matters at home. The one important matter that chiefly demanded his attention was the new girl that came to live on the household. The little lady is being properly cared for.

Our latest photographer, Mr. Hobbs, is at work this week changing his cloth tent into a wooden barrack for a winter residence by building a frame work around and roofing with boards. The tent is quite large and the arrangement will add to its comfort very materially.

Miss Mildred Boyle passed through our city on Tuesday to be present at the wedding in Marshland, where she officiated as bridesmaid with her usual tact and cheerfulness. Miss Boyle can adapt herself to circumstances and is handy at either a wedding or a funeral.

Another of our enterprising citizens has secured a life companion, intending hereafter to have the counsel and assistance of a good wife in his enterprises. The event of last week at Marshland was not altogether unexpected, inasmuch as an unusual amount of work has recently been done in and about the Warren building, and a portion of the building furnished in a way that is not customary for bachelor's quarters. Besides, the frequent visits of the proprietor to Marshland, suggested that there was some attraction there. So on Wednesday of last week, in presence of the family and a few invited friends, Rev. O. S. White performed a ceremony that made Henry L. Warren and Miss Ines Graham man and wife.

The happy couple are spending their honeymoon in our city receiving the congratulations of their many friends, who unite in hearty wishes for their happiness and prosperity.

One pleasant exercise in our city last week was the entertainment given by the city band on Thursday evening in Conyers' hall. A large and quite appreciative audience gathered for the occasion. The evening was spent in listening to selections by the band, entire, with some quartettes and duets upon the brass instruments, interspersed by readings, recitations and vocal music, and a couple of selections by the orchestra—violin, cornet and piano. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Merrill had kindly loaned their piano for the evening, and added very greatly to the entertainment thereby. A piano trio by Miss Jennie Myers, Messrs. John Bryant and Orville Merrill evoked much praise, while R. C. Fritz, in his impersonation and in his part in the (c) brought down the house. The recitations of the Messrs. Bryant, Myers and Blackford were all good, and in fact the whole entertainment was a very enjoyable one. At its conclusion a part of the audience remained for a social dance of a couple of hours.

Thanksgiving passed off very pleasantly with ye scribe, as Wm. Blackford's folks gave an excellent dinner. There were fourteen guests present and we all had a very pleasant time.

There was preaching here last Sunday, and the congregation was composed of but two persons. However, those present report a good sermon. It is to be hoped the attendance will be larger in the future.

PERIS POINTERS.

B. F. Pope is unable to work on account of rheumatism.

T. Holstein has got his legs all down to Muckle Bros' dam.

Master Fred Hendricks is going to board at Brim's at Yankton this winter and go to school.

Sherman Vosburg was in Portland last week on account of the serious illness of his aunt.

Bo-n—To the wife of Charles Wickstrom. A Bachelor Flat, Nov. 26, a son. Mrs. Wickstrom being the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Moyer of this place, they are to be congratulated on the birth of their first grandson.

Miss Cora Tarbell and her brothers, Guy and Ray, of Yankton, paid Moyer's family a visit last Tuesday. We think they must be rufflers from away back as they came on foot through the mud and arrived about 9 o'clock. Master Guy Tarbell and Perla and Ezer Brown of Yankton, and Willie Moyer went over to the Clatskanie hunting and fishing. They say they had a lot of fun, but as they failed to bring anything back but some wet clothes empty stomachs and bad colds, we have our own idea about their fun.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
