Dean Blanchard has platted 15 acres on the bluff back of the door factory, and the lots are going rapidly at $40 and $75.

Too Great a Risk.

In almost every neighborhood someone has died from an attack of cholera or cholera morbus, often before medicine could be procured, or a physician summoned. A reliable remedy for these diseases should be kept at hand. The risk is too great for anyone to take. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has undoubtedly saved the lives of more people and relieved more pain and suffering than any other medicine in use. It can always be depended upon. For sale by Edwin Ross, St. Helens.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Reucer.

FISHHAWK.

This is the kind of weather to have. It makes everyone have a good opinion of himself.

Bennie Birkenfeld, of Deep Creek, attended Sunday-school Sunday.

Eigin Caples and sister, of Jewell, passed through Fishhawk Sunday en route home.

The Misses Estella and Alice Jones, of Vesper, had their names placed on the Sunday-school roll Sunday.

Mr. Bear, who is teaching the Deep Creek school, attended Sunday-school at Fishhawk Sunday. Still they come. The more the better.

Trout and sensible fish bite at a true bait, but suckers, like "Bill," bite at any old thing the mail carrier says.

The meteor, which was seen at Portland and points on the Columbia, also was observed by people on the Nehalem.

If this fine weather continues, the roads will soon be so people can go somewhere in a rig, without getting smeared with mud. A party of young folks were out Sunday in a spring wagon, and seemed to be having a good time.

About two weeks ago Ben Birkenfeld, of Deep Creek, captured a big bear in a trap. A week ago Thursday Willie Birkenfeld also captured one. Saturday, E. E. Hogberg shot a big one that weighed over 400 pounds. The Johnson boys, of Vesper, got one in a trap, but he got away and left just enough grease to oil the springs good. If they keep on at this rate the woods will soon be bare of bears.

In the Clatskanie Chief we notice that "Bill" makes a few remarks about a kissing bee and a low horse. Of the kissing bee we presume he means a yellow jacket, as they make about as last-lug and feeling a kiss as anything, but of the low horse? Well, if anyone can give a good description of such an animal, it will relieve the curiosity of a good many people, who are interested.

Mr. Joseph Pominville, of Stillwater, Minn., after having spent over $2,000 with the best doctors for stomach trouble, without relief, was advised by his druggist, Mr. Alex. Richard, to try a box of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. He did so and in a well man today. If troubled with indigestion, bad taste in the mouth, lack of appetite or constipation, give these Tablets a trial, and you are certain to be more than pleased with the result. For sale at 25 cents per box by Edwin Ross, St. Helens.

Alonso Jones returned from Portland convalescent.

Boys; our town is booming—a hotel, a boarding house and likely a coffee house, also a quick message delivery office.

Dave Lane passed his 49th milestone on last Monday. We wish him many happy returns.

In answer to the new-would-be nightingale question of last week, would say that the two nightingales are of a different feather—one was born in old Kentucky where the meadow grass is blue; there's the sunshine of her country in her face and manner too. The other was bred in the wilds of Oregon; was a pie in New Orleans, was cake in Philadelphia, but in Mist it was beans.

Charles Philpelt is clearing land, and his ranch, will, in the near future, be one of the finest in the Nehalem.

"Nig," one of the fastest trotters in the Nehalem, carried off the laurels at Clatskanie on last Sunday. The owner is Harold Dippold, of Mist.

The Mist Hotel will soon receive a new coat of paint.

Once more the screech of the Fishhawk is heard from the wilderness. Why don't some one cage the bird? What a fine birding he would make for the asylum at Salem.

Frank Lonkey, of Deep Creek, will soon leave the harbor and settle at Kiamath Falls.

Fresh fish in season every Friday, and special Sunday dinner at the St. Helens Hotel.

Dart & Muckle have received a complete line of mens' clothing, ranging from $7.50 to $15. Call and inspect them.

Remember when you go to the lower Nehalem, that you can get clean beds and first class meals at the new hotel in Mist.—Mrs. F. M. Dippold, manager.

R. H. Robinson and the Loops Bros., have purchased the Watts residence property on the hill back of the Oriental hotel. The price paid was $550, and the property consists of a dwelling and two lots.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Columbia County.

Edith L. Taylor, Plaintiff

vs.

Arthur E. Taylor, Defendant

IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON

You are required to appear and answer to the complaint filed against you in the above entitled court on or before the 5th day of May, 1906, to-wit:

On or before six weeks after March 27, 1906, being six weeks after the date of the first publication of this summons. And if you fail to so appear or answer said complaint, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief therein prayed for. For a decree of divorce dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between the parties, together with any and all other relief and damages to which the plaintiff is entitled by law, and for the custody of the child, the issue of said marriage, namely, Esther Hazel Taylor, and also judgment against you for the sum of $25.00 per month until the said child Esther Taylor, becomes of age and also for judgment for the costs and disbursements of this suit and for such other and further relief as to the court shall seem just and equitable.

This summons is published for three consecutive weeks by order of the Hon. Thomas A. McClure, Judge of the said court made on the 21st day of March 1906.
