FOLEY KIDNEY PILLS

The Tiger Manager and His Great Player.

Ty Cobb.

Har. Jennings.

This picture shows two typical photographs of two very great baseball players—Ty Cobb, in the act of bunting, and his manager, Hugh Jennings, wearing his fine broad grin after his great outfielder has succeeded in the bunt. Cobb has a peculiar way of drawing up his lips at the moment he bunts, but not so the pitcher or the fielders of the opposing club see the action in time to effect his play. There is little doubt that Cobb is the greatest of baseball players. He may even be the greatest player the game has known.

BELTON WON BOTH GAMES

Defeated Gluck at Belton Yesterday During Celebration.

The Gluck mill baseball team was defeated at both of the games at Belton on Saturday when Independence Day was celebrated there. The first game was played at 9:30 a. m., and the score was 5 and 2 in favor of Belton. The other one was played at 4 o'clock p. m. and resulted in score of 3 and 0 in favor of Belton.

This now makes Gluck and Belton teams tied for first place in the mill league.

Mr. Pearfloy Goes North.

Solicitor John H. Pearfloy leaves this afternoon for Ligonis, N. Y., to spend the balance of the summer. Mr. Pearfloy went there for treatment last year and although he feels that he has been cured, he wishes to make assurance doubly sure by returning for additional treatment. He will be away for two months.—Waterboro' Press and Standard.

Farmers in Ten States Buy 200 Automobiles a Day.

In the current issue of Farm and Fireside, the national farm paper published at Springfield, Ohio, a contributor writes an interesting article showing how motor cars affect farm life. In the following extract taken from the article appear some remarkable facts about the use of automobiles by farmers:

"Take the ten states at the middle west known as the grain belt: Iowa, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Wisconsin, Missouri, Kansas, South Dakota, North Dakota and Oklahoma. Four years ago these ten states owned 130,000 automobiles, the production of 170,000 automobiles was perhaps one in

ORR DEFEATED EQUINOX

In Fast Game Yesterday Afternoon. Score 4 to 3.
