

Absolutely Pure Wholesome Milk

Milk being the most essential food for the baby, the next question is "where to secure the purest, the freshest and most wholesome milk to be had?"

Discriminating mothers have found the solution by phoning 808, or "Watching for the White Wagon." They have satisfied themselves as well as having added health and life to their babes.

TWO ADDRESSES ON PROHIBITION TODAY

MEETINGS WILL BE HELD AT ST. JOHN'S CHURCH

DR. GEO. W. YOUNG

Member of the "Flying Squadron," of America Will Be Speaker.

Dr. George W. Young, member of the "Flying Squadron," of the National Anti-saloon league, will make two addresses at St. John's Methodist church today on prohibition. The first will be made at 4 o'clock and will be for men only. The second will be this evening at 8:30 and will be a union service, nearly all of churches of the city joining in with the Methodist congregation to hear Dr. Young.

Dr. Young is one of the best informed men on the liquor question in the United States and has campaigned 40 states in the nation and has done a great deal of legislative work with the national congress. He has been campaigning in South Carolina for the past 15 days, the first meeting having been held at Union and has spoken at about 12 places.

Dr. Young has been connected with the temperance movement for the past 20 years. For eight years he was assistant national superintendent. He is a man of middle age and has a great message to tell the people of Anderson.

Rev. J. L. Harley, superintendent of the Anti-saloon league of South Carolina for the past eight years, will make a short speech tomorrow afternoon just before Dr. Young will make his address.

"The outlook for state-wide prohibition," said the Rev. Harley yesterday afternoon, "is good, provided we can arouse to people to the polls. I admit if a small vote is polled in the Piedmont section and a large vote in the lower part of the state. According to the newspapers of the state, a considerable number of colored men have registered in the lower counties. It is easy to see that should the colored voters line up with the liquor people and the foreign element in the wet countries down the state, we might be surprised unless the Piedmont vote is polled. So far as the injunction proceedings before the supreme court are concerned, there is no danger from that source and if the supreme court should enjoin this injunction, the legislature would make short work with the dispensary when it meets.

All the people of the city and county are urged to hear Dr. Young today especially the men at the mass meeting for men only this afternoon. Dr. Young will go to North Dakota when he leaves Anderson.

BIRTHS

Born on Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Unger a boy, Walter Alma Unger.

Born on Friday afternoon to Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Brock, Morris street, triplets, two boys and one girl, weighing six pounds each.

Rev. W. H. Dodge.
Rev. W. H. Dodge, D. D., pastor of the East Jacksonville Baptist church of Jacksonville, Fla., is in the city spending two weeks with his son, F. W. Witherspoon Dodge, in North Anderson. Dr. Dodge will preach both morning and evening at the Central Presbyterian church this and next Sunday.

RIVERSIDE TEAM WON.

Played Jackson Mill at Iva—Score Was 8 to 2.
The Riverside Mill team defeated the Jackson Mill baseball team at Iva yesterday afternoon, the score being eight and two. The Riverside team did some heavy hitting, getting two home runs and several doubles. The batteries for this team were Hughes and Tinsley.

The Riverside team has played 22 games this season and has only lost four, which is a good record.

FRENCH GOLD.

It is Coming From Private Hoards to Public Funds.
Paris, Aug. 16.—(Associated Press Correspondence.)—One hundred and eighteen millions of francs in gold was exchanged for bank bills at the bank of France, its branches and other establishments authorized to receive it in the last few weeks. To provoke this influx of gold no more was required than the statement of the minister of finance that French citizens could show their patriotism by helping increase in gold reserve of the bank of France as well as by fighting in the trenches.

The first week produced 13 million, the second 40 millions and the third 65 millions. To what sum these exchanges are likely to amount no one risks a guess, the movement is reaching such formidable proportions without official insistence or pressure of any sort. Judging by the comprehensive character of the multitude that crowds the windows, at which gold is received, there will be little left in the safe deposit vaults in the woolen sock or in the child's savings bank when the procession has finally passed. There is an estimated net total of colored or colorable gold of $ billion 500 million francs in France at the present moment.

HUGE SUM TO PAY BALANCES ON BOURSE

To Introduce Law in French Chamber of Deputies to Aid Official Brokers.

Paris, July 29.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—One hundred million dollars is the sum required, according to the best estimates, to pay balances due on transactions on the Paris Bourse at the end of July last year, settlement of which is still in suspense. Financiers agree that the longer the settlement is postponed the more difficult the final liquidation will become, so an earnest effort is being made to reach a decision.

A law will be introduced in the Chamber of Deputies providing that the government to aid the "Agents de Change"—Official Stock Brokers—who are collectively and individually responsible for the obligations of traders dealing through them. This law proposes that the "Cours de compensation," that is to the basic price of each security on which settlements are made, shall be fixed by a commission composed of the Minister of Finance, the presidents of the finance committees of the senate and the chamber of deputies, and the "Chambre Syndicale des Agents de Change"—the directing committee of the stock brokers association.

Under ordinary circumstances the "Cours de compensation" upon which deals are carried over from one settlement-day to another are fixed by the stock-brokers committee, one hour before the closing of the Bourse, in conformity with the cash quotations of the day. Such a liquidation was impossible at the outbreak of the war. The closing of the Bourse simply held all deals in suspense.

A great many of the mwere between Frenchmen and subjects of powers now at war with France, in which cases the deliveries of securities and the settlement of margins was and still is impossible. Besides, a great many investors and speculators for whom transactions were in course are at the front. Their interests will be protected by carrying over their deals on the basis of the settlement price until they are able to liquidate. As to subjects of countries at war with France, their deals must be closed out arbitrarily. If they are winners the affair is simple; if they are losers their brokers must pay for them. That is a penalty they incur in return for the monopoly they have in the negotiation of securities. That monopoly dates from the creation of the Bourse of Paris by decree of the state council as a measure to restrict speculation after the complete demoralization of French finances by the speculations of the "Mississippi Bubble." Different decrees of the state council prohibited negotiations of securities elsewhere than on a public market, and gave the monopoly to 70 "Agents de Change"—stock brokers—named by the king.

These 70 official stock brokers formed a permanent committee of eight, presided over by a "Syndic" or manager, and this committee is called "Chambre Syndicale des Agents de Change." They, with the approval of the minister of finance, and in accordance with special laws passed by parliament, decide the admission of securities to the official quotations. All other securities are dealt in freely by "oubr" brokers, and as their transactions are not controlled it is impossible to even estimate approximately the total of the balances left unsettled the day of the closing of the Bourse.

The total value of foreign securities listed at the Bourse, Dec. 3, 1913, that is to say admitted to the official quotations, was 16 billion 200 million dollars, 8 billions of which were held in France. The domestic securities listed at the same time were about 14 billions of dollars, most of which was held in France. There are altogether 1200 different securities that figure in the list of official quotations, including government bonds, municipal, bonds, railroad, canal and other securities.

Financial experts, taking the estimate of Monsieur Neymarck, of 170 billion dollars as the total value of the world's securities, figure that war depreciation has cost their holders throughout the world 20 billion dollars. Supposing the loss in France to be in the same proportion as estimated on the world's total securities, 11 per cent, the depreciation upon the foreign and domestic securities that she now holds, 22 billion dollars, $2,000,400,000.

GLUCK WON YESTERDAY.

Defeated Belton Team at Belton—Is Now Leading.
The Gluck Mill team in the Anderson mill league defeated the Belton team yesterday afternoon by a score of two to one, the game being played in Belton. The game was called in seventh inning on account of rain. The features were the pitching of Ward for Belton and McDonald for Gluck, the former yielding three hits and the latter two. Gluck is now leading in the Mill league and expects to carry off the pennant.

Batteries: Belton: Ward and Snipes; Gluck: McDonald and Edwards.

STANDING OF CLUBS.

Owing to the fact that half the time we are unable to get returns from games in Mill league, we are therefore unable to publish standing of the clubs.

$13,000 IS LEFT TO CONNIE MAXWELL

WAS BEQUEATHED BY LATE LABAN MAULDIN OF EASLEY

WILL BUILD HOME

To Be Known as "Mrs. Laban Mauldin Home," in Memory of His Wife.

The Connie Maxwell Orphanage of Greenwood receives $13,000 by the will of the late Laban Mauldin of Easley. Mr. Mauldin was a trustee of the institution, giving it much thought and attention during his lifetime and leaving it nearly his entire fortune at his death.

The will provided that Walter Evatt, a nephew of Mr. Mauldin, was to receive the house and lot, located on Smith street, in which Mr. Evatt now lives, and left $500 in cash to Mrs. Charlie Thomas niece by marriage of Mr. Mauldin. These were the only persons who received bequests, the remainder of the estate going to the orphanage, included in the orphanage bequest are the residence in which Mr. Mauldin lived, situated on a large lot on Main Street, and in a most desirable part of town, a small house and lot located on Smith street, one block from Main street; two farms of 280 acres, situated about two or three miles from town, and all personal property. The total value of this is approximately $13,000. All this property, according to the will, is to be sold and the proceeds to be given to the orphanage to build a home at the orphanage called the Mrs. Laban Mauldin home. The amount to be expended for this home is not specified, but the amount left after the completion of it is to be placed as an endowment fund for the institution.

Walter Evatt was named as one executor and another is to be selected from the board of trustees of the orphanage.

PENDLETON.

A very successful entertainment was given Friday evening by the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church. It was called a shoe social. As every one had to give three times the number of their shoe. It was held on Mrs. McPhail's lawn, which was lit by Japanese lanterns and made a pretty and picturesque scene. The young people played games and had a good time generally. Iced tea and sandwiches were given to all who attended. Ice cream was sold. A good sum of money was realized.

The Fortnightly Club met Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Herbert Searight, who invited them particularly to meet her mother, Mrs. Adair of Clinton. Mrs. Searight is a very agreeable and attractive young matron. She is not only a good house keeper, and a most devoted mother but finds time to contribute her share towards the social life of the community.

Her guests enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. Sherbert and delightful old-fashioned pound cake was served. A very interesting meeting of the Farmers' Society was held this morning. Many attended and a number of new members were elected.

Plans were discussed for the centennial, which bids fair to be an event of great importance to the county, every member of which ought to take pride in seeing that the centennial of this old society is made a great success.

Miss Aniska Hunter is home for her holiday, and is making a round of visits to relatives and friends, who are very glad to have her with them once more.

Miss Lila Pickens who spent the winter with her aunt, Mrs. Eliza Pickens, has gone to Wallhalla for the rest of the summer. Her departure is much to be regretted not only on agreeable and charming personality, but a brilliant conversationalist. She is more than missed. We hope the winter will find her with us again.

A Salesman.

The depression in business caused a local jeweler to discharge his experienced man, replacing him with a high school graduate—a youth just out of school. He appeared very anxious to learn, and the proprietor at the end of the first week was much pleased with results. One day the merchant was obliged to be away from the store, and upon his return inquired:

"Well, Frank, did you sell anything while I was out?"
"Yes, sir; I sold five plain band rings."
"Five, my boy!" said the jeweler, enthusiastically. "Well, make an A salesman out of you one of these days. You got the regular price for them, of course?"
"Oh, yes, sir. The price on the inside was 18c, and the man took all that were left, sir."—Harper's Magazine.

A Substitute.

"Do you think women are competent to run the affairs of great nations?"
"I don't see why not," replied Mr. Grosvenor. "It might be a good idea for a change to substitute pink ribbon for red tape."—Liverpool Weekly Post.
