Mr and Mrs J P Rockwell received word the first of the week that their nephew, "Jimmie" Biggs, had died at his home in Richland Center, Wis, on April 12, 1910, of tuberculosis. The young man was about 35 years old, and was born in this county. When a child of about 5 years he suffered a severe attack of scarlet fever, which left him totally blind. He attended an institute for the blind and thereafter was able to support himself and his mother.

Two automobile loads of detectives, headed by Chief of Police Dick Richards of Sioux City, were here Tuesday scouring the town in search of the bandits who dynamited and robbed the bank at Randolph, Neb, a few weeks ago, the officers having traced them to Sioux City and from there across the river into Dakota county. If the bank robbers had been in town they would have had plenty of time to get under cover while the officers were sailing around town. It is claimed that the five men who did the job at Randolph and got away with about $10,000, have been making their headquarters at Covington and Sioux City, and from the amount of mutilated bills in circulation lately, we don't doubt it. As yet the ragg men are still enjoying their liberty. The local officers were not taken into the confidence of the detectives, who probably do not care to divide the $2,000 reward offered for the capture of the robbers.

The village fathers received a new chemical fire apparatus Monday from the factory in Minneapolis. The new machine holds about 40 gallons of water and is charged with a mixture that when released into the water forms a gas that will smother out a good sized fire, especially if on the inside of a building. The engine will be charged and kept in readiness for the next fire.

A couple of drunks were arrested Thursday morning and lodged in jail by Marshal Feuston for fighting and raising a disturbance on the streets. Judge Heffernan gave them just five minutes to get out of town. These are probably the vags Police Judge Sims of Sioux City gave an hour in which to get across the combination bridge into Nebraska the day before. They will probably see you again Mr Sims.

B. M. Pizzy Ends Life.

After suffering untold agony for two weeks with severe pains in his head, chest and stomach, and receiving little encouragement from the attending physician, B M Pizzy, one of the old pioneer residents of this place in a fit of temporary insanity took a quantity of Paris green Saturday afternoon shortly after 4 o'clock, from the effects of which he died Sunday morning at 4 o'clock. When discovered soon after taking the poison he was in the act of trying to end his life with a knife and had nearly severed his windpipe. A physician was immediately summoned and everything possible was done to alleviate his suffering, but without avail.

The funeral services were held from the residence Tuesday morning, conducted by Rev W R Warren, pastor of the M E church. Interment was in Logan Park cemetery, Sioux City.

A sorrowing wife and two sons, Paul Pizzy, an attorney of this place, and Alfred Pizzy, an attorney of Sioux City, are left to mourn his untimely death.

Decceased was born in England May 21, 1821. Came to Dakota county in the early 60s and has resided here continuously since. He owned some valuable property in Sioux City which he purchased while driving stage in early days. He was a quiet, unassuming man, of pleasant disposition and was never known to wrong anyone.

Abstracts of Title Successor to Dakota County Abstract Co: Bonded Abstracter J. J. EIMERS Abstract I make Burlington Route The Stark Year Book for 1910 is ready to mail. It will be sent to any person interested in fruit-growing on receipt of 7 cents to cover postage. The Stark Year Book for 1910 represents an entirely new idea in nurserymen's literature—it is a work of art as well as a catalogue of Stark Nursery products. Within its covers are 32 full-page illustrations of fruits and flowers, representing 175 varieties, done in four colors, and exactly reproducing nature. 64 pages are devoted to descriptions, prices, and records. Stark Delicious, the apple that has revolutionized orchard planting and established a new standard of apple values (selling at $10.00 per bushel box this year); Stark King David, another apple of wondrous quality and merit; Stark King Philip, a hardy black grape of California grape quality, and dozens of the very best things in the horticultural world are fully described, illustrated, and priced. To any one planting one tree or many, of fruits or ornamental, this book is of inestimable value—a horticultural text-book—a guide to proper selection. Stark trees have stood the supreme test of actual planting for 85 years—they are the yard-stick by which all other nursery products are measured—they are the first choice of this country's most successful orchardists. The success of the orchard is dependent on the kind and quality of tree planted. Stark varieties are the best of the best. Our record of 85 years of successful selling is a positive guarantee of tree quality. Before you decide to buy, send 7 cents for the Stark Year Book—do it today before the edition is exhausted.
