

Friday night the Alliance DeMolay entertained the Broken Bow football boys, Job's Daughters and the faculty and students of the high school at the high school gym. The evening was spent in playing various games and guessing contests after which light refreshments were served. There were about 100 present with 15 boys of the Broken Bow football team. After the refreshments were served they staged a mock trial with John Howard as judge, Wade Grassman and Sterling Harris attorneys, William Williams and Leon Alter detectives, Lee Strong sheriff. Herbert Miller, the defendant, was charged with failure to change his so: for a month, and upon conviction the honorable judge imposed a suitable fine.

W. E. Rousey of Hill City, S. D., former business partner of J. S. Rhein and at one time a mayor of Alliance, is spending a few days in Alliance visiting old friends and hunting in the sandhills. Mr. Rousey gave a brief talk at the Monday noon luncheon of the Alliance chamber of commerce, in which he said he had always been an advocate of the city manager plan. He spoke on hunting in fishing in South Dakota and declared that he was always glad to welcome Alliance people at his home. South Dakota has many fine roads for tourist use and finds the automobile tourist traffic most profitable. It is planned to publish a booklet advertising the beauty spots in the Black Hills, he said.

Silas B. Wright, known to Alliance citizens as "Sam," and Miss Edna Martin were married late Saturday by Father Manning, and left on the early morning train for Chicago on a wedding trip. The wedding came as a great surprise to friends of the couple and they made the arrangements with such secrecy that only a few people knew of the event until Monday morning, when the announcement was made.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar M. Martin of this city. She is a graduate of the Alliance schools and for the past few years has been employed in various Alliance institutions. She was deputy county treasurer for some time and has been lately employed at the Guardian State bank.

The groom has been in business in Alliance for several years. He was one of the organizers and is the cashier of the Guardian State bank. The couple have a large circle of friends and acquaintances who extend best wishes for their happiness.

John N. Clark of Wichita, Kas., is visiting friends in the city. Mr. Clark is a pioneer of Box Butte county, coming to this part of western Nebraska in 1886. With his brother, George, he established the first lumber yard in the city, which was afterward sold to the Forrest Lumber company. At one time he homesteaded land in the vicinity of Broncho Lake. His brother was the first county clerk and the first presidential postmaster in Alliance. Mr. Clark has been renewing old acquaintances.

Gavin, McCormack, Fred Carlson, Howard Reddish, Robert Reddish, W. B. Barnett, Earl Myers, Bernard Holsten, H. E. Gantz, Percy Cogswell, W. R. Metz, Harry Johnson, C. E. Willis and Miss Mable Young.

CHURCHES

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Last Sunday was a Red Letter day in various ways. The special old folks service was one of the best we have had. The members and others found all the old grandparents they could get and bundled them up and brought them to church with the result the building was full. An unusual touching incident happened. When the pastor was about to speak, he opened a letter that had accompanied an expensive bouquet, given by a number of men who make their headquarters on King's corner, but who showed they were very human in giving the bouquet in honor of their parents who are "over the ocean" as they expressed it. This may be taken to mean either one over the ocean of death or over in the old countries; but in either case it was a manly act to remember their parents in this touching way. When the letter to the old people was read there was not an eye in the house that was not shedding tears. These men have learned to make our church their church and we shall, God helping us, be true to the trust they place in us. The pastor then spoke of the fact that these men because they may not be up in society were just as human and had the same feelings as we, and in this act showed much better spirit than we who had not thought of flowers with but one exception. The audience was so moved that a rising vote of thanks to the men of the King's corner was taken, and the pastor asked to publish it. An old lady who could hardly walk, said, "I feel like I could kiss those boys for that beautiful act." And she no doubt voiced the sentiment of all the aged in the building. A packed house in the evening enjoyed a wonderful musical program by the Mann's orchestra, of about twelve pieces. Such music is seldom heard in the church and the audience did not fail to show its appreciation by applause. After the sermon the pastor baptised the following: Mrs. S. R. Mitchell, Miss Elois Turman and Miss Winifred Tibbits. Several more are awaiting that ordinance. It was a fitting close to a great day in our church history.

Thursday the pastor will hold a Thanksgiving service, especially for the laboring men and their wives, after which he will hold a conference with them as to matters which he will bring before them.

No prayer meetings this week. B. Y. P. U. will be entertained Friday at the church by Valetta and Francis Hucker.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH.

Splendid audiences were present at both the morning and evening worship on last Sunday. The Bible school attendance was 251. Just a little more boosting and we will pass the 300 mark. The Junior Orchestra under the leadership of Mrs. Fostick is doing splendid work. They play at Bible school and at both preaching services.

The Mid-week meeting on Wednesday evening is one of the best meetings of the church. Following the devotional service of thirty minutes, the minister gives a Bible lecture. Many have expressed the desire to hear the lecture this week in which a large chart is used illustrating the subject, "The Devil Chuckles."

In harmony with the Thanksgiving proclamation of President Harding and Governor McKelvie, Alliance will have the privilege of hearing the annual Thanksgiving sermon preached by Mearl C. Smith on Thursday evening in the Christian church at 7 o'clock. The Junior Orchestra will play. The public is cordially reminded that you will be welcome to attend this Union service.

PROTECTION

When Life's shadows grow dim and the twilight of years settles upon us, the most comforting companion, the most dependable one to look to for cheer in our declining years—is a substantial bank balance.

We sometimes lose track of the fact that we cannot always work as we do now. Many an old couple could be happier and far more comfortable today if just a little more foresight had been used in their younger days, and the savings habit had been started when money meant less to them than it does today.

Start now to lay aside a little each week to provide a competence for old age. A few cents a day will do it—consider them spent foolishly if necessary, and you will be independent and comfortable when the silver hairs come.

Let us show you how easy it can be done.
