Local and Personal.

D. E. Morrill left Wednesday for Kearney to spend the day on real estate business.

Attorney Albert Mulloon has returned from Kansas City where he spent a week on legal matters.

Miss Celia Bucel, of Maxwell, who had been visiting her sister Mrs. Arthur Home returned home yesterday.

The Altar Society of St. Patrick's church will hold a social at the home of Mrs. Edwina Schatz Tuesday afternoon. Everybody invited.

Mrs. Fred Stoddard and children, of Lena, who were called here by the illness of her father A. R. Adamson, returned home this morning.

Remember the exchange at Schatz's store tomorrow given by the ladies of the Christian church. Everything good to eat, everything home-made.

Roy Loudon, formerly a clerk in the Streit drug store, but of late in the drug business in Cortez, Col., spent several days this week with relatives and friends in town.

Mrs. Charles Davis and baby, of Portland, who were summoned here last week by the illness of her father A. R. Adamson, left a few days ago for Lexington to visit friends for a week.

"Bizzy Izzy" was presented to a capacity house at the Keith Tuesday evening, and this too at its second appearance in North Platte. The production is substantially the same as last season.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Dawson City, Alaska, who have been visiting in Iowa, arrived yesterday morning to visit the former's sister Mrs. Fred Payne whom he had not seen for twelve years.

All parties having automobiles which can be used for the Fireman's Convention next week are requested to phone Charles Temple before Tuesday morning.

Mrs. Amanda Beach who had been ill for several weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wade, died Wednesday evening. Mrs. Beach leaves a husband and three children who reside on a ranch north west of this city. The remains will be taken to Kansas today for burial.

James Weldon who was found in a frozen condition the latter part of last week at a ranch north of town is reported to be improving under the care of the physician at the P. & S. hospital. The amputation of one limb will be necessary and the operation will be performed as soon as the patient's condition can stand same.

RAILROAD NOTES AND PERSONAL

Dick Evans will leave today for Omaha, St. Joe and Kansas City to spend a couple of weeks with relatives.

On account of derailments in Iowa, train No. 13 was six hours late Wednesday and delayed five hours yesterday.

J. M. Merrill, Union Pacific switchman, was caught between the cars and crushed to death in the yards at Grand Island Sunday.

A heavy bar dropped on Passenger Conductor Mecumbers' right foot Sunday night breaking a bone. As a result he locomotes on crutches.

Because a train dispatcher at Phillipsburg, Kas., worked overtime three nights, the Rock Island company paid $400 in fines in the United States court of Kansas City, Kas., Monday.

Two trainloads of meat were taken from the South Omaha packing houses Wednesday by one road, destined for export. They were hurried east on passenger train time to catch a ship soon to sail from New York.

The Ladies of the B. of L. F. and E. held an entertainment at the K. P. hall Tuesday evening. Music, card games, and a delicious lunch made up a pleasant evening. The attendance was larger than on any previous occasion of the kind.

Conductors and trainmen in the employ of the Pennsylvania Railroad company have made a demand for a minimum rate of pay based on distance traveled, a schedule for overtime and changes in road regulations and yard service.

During the year 1912 there was moved over the middle division of the Pennsylvania road—from Altoona to Harrisburg—2,075,912 cars. This is 150,000 less than December, 1907, but the tonnage was greater, due to the increased capacity of cars.

Robert E. Evans, an employe of the Union Pacific, sustained a fractured wrist while at work Wednesday. John Mastous, also an employe of the shops, had the fingers on his right hand crushed and two other workmen were burned on the face and arms by a gasoline explosion.

A government inspector of locomotives has ordered a Michigan road to send twenty-two of its engines to the repair shops. Running a railroad under government supervision may have its disadvantages in the view of the operating officials, but it contains the promise for the public of greater efficiency and a corresponding increase of safety.

Baptist Church.

The furniture has arrived and is being installed in the new building. Dedication will take place next week. A leave taking service with Rev. C. Pope, of Lincoln as speaker, will occur in the old building Tuesday night.

Meetings will be held each night beginning Wednesday in the new building. From Friday night on all the services are open to the public and every one is welcome. The dedication services proper take place Sunday morning and evening Jan. 26th. Able and prominent speakers from abroad will be on the program in every service.

F. C. Pielsticker transacted business in Grand Island the forepart of this week.

Fred Pierson, of Sutherland, is spending this week in town on business.

Best Singing Dancing Looking Chorus In the United States.

Ed A. Goewey said this in the Kansas City Post: "Louisiana Lou takes the money."

"Perhaps there are a few people in Kansas City who haven't heard of 'Louisiana Lou,' the pretty, tuneful and really funny musical-comedy that ran for nearly one solid year in Chicago, but when the first local performance at the Willis Wood last night there was no ocular evidence that there are any such. The big playhouse was filled from pit to dome, and even the boxes were crowded to the rails. It was the biggest Sunday night theater audience seen here in a very long time, and that everybody was more than satisfied with the entertainment was attested by the generous and spontaneous applause that kept the play running for practically three hours. It was such a great big joyous occasion that actors and onlookers entered into the spirit of the thing, and the performers only laughed happily as they responded to five and six encores instead of the usual one or two.

"It has been said and oft repeated that few good things come out of Chicago, and that the sooner they come the better they are. 'Louisiana Lou' proves the exception to the rule. It was written and produced in Chicago and the persistent clink of coin at the box office window kept it playing at the La Salle for 356 consecutive performances. 'Louisiana Lou,' viewed from nearly every angle of theatrical criticism, than either the over-touted 'Madame Sherry' or 'A Modern Eve.' Its music is so good, particularly the lyrics, that one doubts if they really come from 'Chi.'"

"Hep" Blackman said this in the Ft. Worth Star-Telegram. Ft. Worth Bows to Louisiana Lou. "At last! A chorus girl show. After long absence the chorus girl has shown that she can come back. She was at Byars Friday night in shapes and sizes to please every fancy, accompanying 'Louisiana Lou,' the Joys and the Grooms and MR. SAMUEL LIEBERT. If you don't know who Mr. Samuel Liebert is, run your memory back over over the Majestic hits of three seasons ago until you hear the word 'Tobolsky says' and you will have him placed. 'In Louisiana Lou' he plays the same part of the fond-hearted old hebrew making wedding plans for his child which do not agree with the plans laid out by Cupid. 'Louisiana Lou,' in brief, is that little vaudeville gem set in a circle of dancing chorus girls, new jokes and joy-ride speed.

"Liebert, who is the particular star of Louisiana Lou" is an experience a remarkable theatrical success. The lovable old man who sing 'My Rose of the Ghetto' before 10:30 at night, after 11 is a youngster of 23, by the time he is 25 there ought to be a new Warfield on the stage."

"But to go back to the chorus, it is by far the best seen in many seasons—not a girl in the lot that you wish had been left out. Even in the 'Grooms' there is a silver lining to the black tight. It is seen at its best in 'The Puritan Prince,' a song hit in which the hit is made by the chorus.

IMPORTANT—Owing to the immensity of production and length of performance the curtain will rise promptly at 8:15. Those coming in late will not be seated while curtain is up. Carriages and motors at 10:05.

Seats on Sale Now Entire Suspension of Free List.

Prices 50 Cents to $2.00.

To Theatre Goers.

Owing to the immensity of the Louisiana Lou production and length of performance, the curtain next Wednesday evening will rise promptly at 8:15 o'clock. Those coming in late will not be seated while curtain is up. C. H. STAMP, Manager.

Cast of Characters.

The cast of characters for "The Miller's Daughter," which will be produced February 4th under the auspices of the Yeomen will include T. J. Kerr, W. J. Tiley, Bert Reynolds, Ray Lincoln, S. M. Souder, Mrs. T. J. Kerr, Mrs. W. J. Tiley, Maude Owens, Mrs. Lyman Weisch and Mabel Wessburg.

On March 25th the company will render "The Noble Outcast."

So the People May Know.

Down in Dawson county the county commissioners awarded the publishing to the Lexington Pioneer on a straight bid of $200; in Hall county the newspaper men got into a fight over the bids for publishing and as a result the Free Press offered to do the work free of charge and the offer was accepted. In this county The Tribune made a written offer to do all the publishing at one-half the legal rate. This offer was turned down and the publishing awarded to the Telegraph and the Maxwell Telepost, the Telegraph to receive two-thirds the legal rate and the Telepost one-third the legal rate; in other words the two papers, the combined circulation of which about equals that of The Tribune, are to be paid twice the sum asked by The Tribune. This is democratic economy with a vengeance.

To Investors.

We are prepared to loan your money on real estate first mortgage so as to net your eight per cent. Money if loaned is exempt from taxes. Come on and let us talk it over. Buchanan & Patterson.

To My Patrons.

I have guaranteed Louisiana Lou in order to have it during the State Firemen's convention and kindly request the patronage that this company merits. C. H. Stamp, Mgr.

Menace to Country.

That the concentration of money and credit is a potential "menace to the country" was asserted before the house money trust committee yesterday by George M. Reynolds, president of the Continental and Commercial National bank of Chicago. Mr. Reynolds said that he knew of the "trend toward concentration of money and credits" and that he thought it a dangerous thing. "I am opposed to the concentration of any sort of power," he said, "I believe that concentration to the point it has already gone is a menace. In saying that I do not wish to sit in judgement on the men who hold that power."

The J. D. club will be entertained Monday evening by Mrs. Robert Lannin.

Hershey Times Items.

W. C. Green, proprietor of the east pool hall, was assessed a tax of $32.50 as revenue on the sale of barley brau for the year June 1912 to June 1913, by a government man the latter part of last week.

Field manager Bryan informs us that but 1200 acres will be contracted for beets in his territory the coming season. He says some of his patrons are enlarging their acreage and some of his largest contractors have already signed up for 1913.

N. J. Young sold his farm, the west half of the southwest quarter of section 12; last Thursday to Gust Nelson of Bertrand, Neb., who will move onto same the first of March. The consideration was $6,000 cash. Mr. Young is now looking around for another location and will probably buy something in the neighborhood of the place he sold.

Mrs. George Shank, of Broken Bow, arrived here yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Fred Malone for a week or longer.
