

SHOES

We want to show you our line of shoes. Every pair has quality and style combined in the making.

Our prices are as low as consistent with good quality. Poor grades in shoes are dear at any price.

We have just received a complete line of Men's, Women's and Children's rubbers and overshoes.

EARLE CILBERT

NEMAHA, NEBRASKA

New Fall and Winter MILLINERY

Everything we have is of the NEWEST STYLE AND SHAPE

Call and inspect the new styles
MRS. THEO. HILL

Bad roads.

Still lots of pop bugs.

Only a month until Thanksgiving.

J. W. Ritchey was an Auburn visitor Monday.

J. C. Stokes of Howe was a Nemaha visitor Friday.

John Steuteville was down from Brownville Friday.

See R. E. Bucher for best soft coal. Car just received.

Fun for everybody Monday to Saturday night at the opera house.

Eli Knapp and wife of Stella spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Peabody.

Chas. Smiley and wife of Shubert visited D. T. Smiley and wife Sunday.

Mrs. C. V. Glenn went to Wyomere Tuesday for a few days' visit with relatives.

Floyd Ellis of Orchard, Nebr., visited Ralph Ritchey from Wednesday until Saturday.

Miss Maud Kinton went to Nebraska City Saturday to visit her cousin, Mrs. Cloyd Steele.

C. H. Kindig started for Calgary, Canada, Monday, with several prospective land buyers.

Marshall Webb caught two sturgeons one day this week, one weighing eight pounds and one five pounds.

Miss Hazel Parker came in from Auburn Saturday and visited her cousin Mrs. Alf Rowen until Thursday.

Lind Carson visited Friday night with F. L. Woodward.

New burnt leather and comic post cards at the postoffice book store.

Doors open at 7:30 p. m., seats free, next Monday night at the opera house.

Mrs. A. Matthews went to Brownville Tuesday, returning the next day.

Ben Neal of Holdrege, formerly of Nemaha, loaded a car of apples here this week.

The Titus Nursery residence has lately been repainted, which adds much to its good looks.

Mrs. J. H. Linn of Lincoln has been visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity the past week.

Lew Argabright, who has been quite sick with a complication of diseases, is reported to be slowly improving.

H. G. Shedd of Ashland, Neb., was in Nemaha Friday of last week talking real estate with C. H. Kindig.

Wm. Seid is through threshing, and is out with his wood sawing machine, which is one of the sure signs winter is coming.

Mrs. A. R. McCandless went to Omaha Tuesday where she will visit relatives a few days and incidentally take in the horse show.

Miss Lulu Cooper, who is teaching school near Peru, came down Saturday evening and visited her parents until the next day.

W. W. W. medicine Co., at the opera house beginning next Monday night.

Miss Myrtle Jones of Peru visited Nemaha friends from Saturday until Monday.

H. T. Minick presented the angels with some fine October peaches the first of the week.

Misses Stella and Bessie Washburn came down from Peru Friday morning, returning the next day.

Walter Keeling went to Peru Friday evening and visited with Dr. Neal and family until Saturday evening.

A. L. P. Thompson and Marshall Pryor went to St. Joe Tuesday night to get some stock cattle if they can buy them right.

1.62 inches of rain fell from 6 o'clock Sunday evening until 6 o'clock the next morning. This rain was needed for the wheat crop.

Andy Cook and wife of near Craig, Mo., visited several days with Mrs. Cook's sister, Mrs. Wm. Snelling. They returned to their home Tuesday.

Marshall Webb returned from Omaha Friday of last week where he had been attending grand lodge I. O. O. F. as delegate from Victory lodge No. 195.

A farewell surprise party was given Eli Knapp and wife at their home near Stella Friday evening of last week. A number from Nemaha were present.

The forests are beautiful now in their varied tints of brown, red, orange and yellow. It is a pity that pictures of them in their natural colors can not be taken.

The B. & M. bridge gang is working on this division now repairing the stock yards, etc. Warren Stokes, Johnny Goff and Arthur Littrell, former Nemaha boys, are with the gang.

Wayne Morris, who has been living in California the past four years, visited with his sister, Mrs. Will Hacker over Sunday. Wayne says he thinks he will stay in Nebraska from now on.

Born—To Walker Burdette and wife, Sunday, Oct. 21, 1906, a son. Grandpa Wm. Mead is surviving the advent of this boy and it is hoped he will soon be able to come over to Nemaha again.

Miss Dora Morton is giving excellent satisfaction as teacher of the Champion school. The patrons of the school speak very highly of her work. She is now one of the highest paid rural teachers in the county, and can probably stay at Champion as long as she wishes.

Edwards & Bradford Lbr. Co. have just received a complete line of

Ranges,
Cook Stoves,
Base Burners,
Coal Stoves,
Wood Stoves,
and everything in the way of stoves.

See our large line of Fall and Winter Goods and get our prices on the things which you will need, such as

OUTING FLANNEL
WINTER UNDERWEAR
SHOES
FANCY WAIST PATTERNS
Cotton Blankets Wool Blankets
Fancy Table Covers
Gloves and Mittens

See our line of Fall Standard Prints, Per yard 4³/₄ cents

JNO. W. RITCHEY
Phone 20 NEMAHA, NEBR.

Mrs. C. L. Russell returned last Saturday from the Rebekah state assembly at South Omaha where she went as a delegate from Bena No. 166 lodge.

Mrs. J. M. Sanders started for Garretson, South Dakota, last Friday, to visit for a few weeks with her son, John G. Sanders. W. W. Sanders went also, but will return the last of this week.

John Rutherford, who lives on the Burson farm south of Nemaha, left a squash at the meat market which weighed 92 pounds. It is a monster and would do for Peter pumpkin eater to put his wife in.

Delbert, the three year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Colerick, died Friday night, Oct. 19, at their home in Johnson and was buried in the Nemaha cemetery, Monday, Oct. 22, Rev. Ayers officiating at the funeral.

The road across the creek bottom east of Scott Argabright's is being graded up in good shape. This has been almost a swamp in the spring, and next to impassable. It is to be hoped that it will be better henceforth.

Mr. Baldwin of Plattsmouth visited several days last week with his nephew Ben Baldwin in Nemaha, and his niece Mrs. James Wolfe south of town. He rented a farm east of Shubert while here and will move thereon in the spring.

Dan Holmes, who has been spending the summer at Edmonston, province of Alberta, Canada, returned home last Friday. Dan says he likes that country and will return there in the near future. He purchased town property in Edmonston.

T. J. Doyle spoke to a fair sized audience at the opera house Monday night from a democratic standpoint. Dr. Heilman of Sterling, candidate for state senator, and Mr. Phelan of Johnson, candidate for float representative, also made a few remarks.

Dr. Bourne fits glasses. So. Auburn.

Best photos in southeastern Nebr. at Criley's. So. Auburn.

Did you see those dollar watches at Keeling's? They're all right.

We would ask those who have so kindly subscribed to the Methodist parsonage fund to please pay to the bank to Mrs. Elmer Allen's credit, and ask those that have not subscribed to please help us on this fund if possible, as we have almost one hundred dollars yet to raise.

M. A. WOODWARD,
LILLIAN ALLEN,
Soliciting committee.

Thos. Shaffer purchased of John Colerick last week the old Bennett mill west of Nemaha and he is moving it this week to his farm east of Shubert. The consideration for the mill was $125.00. The taking away of this mill removes an old land mark, the mill being erected the first time in about 1859 or 1860. The old mill was torn down in 1883 and the present mill was erected. It has been idle for several years.

W. W. W. Medicine Company

Will occupy the Opera House

Commencing
Monday night, Oct. 29

and ending
Saturday night, Nov 3.

Nice Clean Performance
by High Class Artists

All seats FREE Monday night
Come Yourself and Bring Everybody Else

Capt. C. W. Smith,

Manager.