Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Ewing gave two very delightful parties this week. Tuesday evening they celebrated the seventh anniversary of their wedding by giving a large high five party. The pretty rooms of the home, 417 South Fourteenth street, were tastefully decorated with cut flowers and smilax that were strewn on the mantels and tables. Elegant refreshments were served at the card tables which offered a pleasant diversion from the rush of progressive high five. The first royal prizes were souvenir spoons from Lebanon, Pennsylvania, the place where Mr. and Mrs. Ewing were married. They were won by Mrs. C. T. Brown and Mr. Sewell. The second royals, a basket of English violets and a bunch of cigars were carried home by Mrs. Nissley and Mr. Coffroth. Mrs. Coffroth very ably assisted Mrs. Ewing in entertaining the guests. The invited list included Messrs and Mesdames Baldwin, Stearns, Henkle, Little, O R Oakley, R. H. Oakley, Upham, Holmes, E E Brown, Yates, Phillips, Keir, Sizer, Shephard, Foster, O M Thompson, D E Thompson, Sutton, Travis, Sanders, C T Brown, McFarland, Nissley, F W Brown, Farwell, Tilton, Sewell, S E Moore, Hargreaves, Ladd, Perry, Wright, Coffroth, C Huffman, Mrs Burgess, Mrs Cheney, Mrs Wades of Omaha, Miss Kaufman, Miss Lathom, Miss Daniels of Oxford, Mr H J Walsh and Mr C D Van Duyen. Mrs. Ewing again entertained a number of ladies on Wednesday afternoon at a thimble party. The ladies brought their fancy work and chatted over their laces, embroidery and crocheting. Those invited being Mesdames Rowick, Seckle, Laws, Caulfaut, Bailey, B. E. Bailey, Applgat, Cowdery, H. Wheeler, Daniels, Wilson, Falkner, Rickette, Patrick, Webster, Geo Clark, McWhinnie, Richardson, Li Ibridge, Lyman, Wood, McCroery, Hewitt, W C Miller, Horton, Guthrie, Posbody, Righter, Billings, Dawes, Curtis, Madame Randall, Mrs. Putnam of Grand View, Misses Bailey, Miller, Richardson, and Sanders. The home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Speier, Seventeenth and K streets, was the scene of a merry card party Wednesday evening, which celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. This, however, was not known until all the guests had arrived. The royal prizes were won by Mrs. Sam Wessel and Mr. Oppenheimer, while the booby consoled Mrs. Willie Meyer and Mr. Well. Elegant refreshments were served about midnight. The guests were Messrs and Mesdames Simon Mayer, Charlie Mayer, Sam Wessel, Lou Wessel, Kesssky, Ackerman, Newmark, Brucks, Max Kohn, Morris Well, Willie Meyer, Oppenheimer, G Ellinger of Haddam, Kansas, B Simon of Washington, Kansas, Mr Lou Rotchild of Chicago, Miss Rosa Frank, Mr Kahn. The affair was a delightful one in every respect and proved a festive one to commemorate the happy anniversary of so popular a couple as the host and hostess proved themselves to be. It was after a new day had been ushered in that the guests bade their entertainers good night and hearty well wishes for a happy future.

The Pleasant Hour Club gave another one of their genial dances Friday evening at Hotel Lincoln. The visitors were numerous and seemingly enjoyed the occasion very much. As usual Irvine's orchestra furnished the music and so well in the excellency of his music known that it needs no comment. On this occasion nearly half of the numbers were encored. The gowns worn by the ladies were unusually handsome, the empire style being generally prevalent. The harmonious shades and vivid contrasts in colors made up a vision which appealed to the esthetic sense. One noticed the bright light falling upon the clear whites and yellows, soft greens, pale light blues and occasionally a more brilliant color was observed. A splendid luncheon was served during the evening, after which, with waltzes and other dances, old time sped on quite fast and ere the participants realized the fact the evening had passed. The dancers were: Messrs and Mesdames J D McFarland, H R Nissley, W R Dennis, C H Lippincott, E E Henkle, J A Buckstaff, C F Ladd, G K Brown, Misses Daniels of Des Moines, Lena Daniels of Oxford, Nellie and Jennie Fisher of Denver, Naomi Weaver, Ruby Jones, Olive Latta, Martha Funke, Mamie and Rose Carson, Lulu Clark, Maud Hammond, Annie Funke, Lillie Hoover, Maud Burr, Jeannette Wilson, Kittie Cowdery, Lula Shears, Nellie Kelley, Randall, Messrs F C Zehring, Canfield of Nebraska City, Dan Wing, Will Hammand, Joyce Burr, Will Johnson, Krug, Keating, Morrison, Marshall, Phil Wing, Ardriano, Dorgan, Fitzgerald, Markell, Dawes, Smith. The East Lincoln Social club was royally entertained at Temple hall on Tuesday evening. Those who gave the party were Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McKenny, Mr. and Mrs. V. H. Dyer, Mr. H. F. Rose, and Mr. A. H. Rose. The guests tripped the light fantastic toe until a late hour when they all repaired to the Palace restaurant where a splendid oyster supper was in waiting. The list of guests included Messrs and Mesdames Chas McKenny, V H Dyer, Zeizer, Hale, Wickersham, Ramsey, Dauback, McCandless, Tuttle, Spencer, Outcalt, Weidenhamer, Mrs Eaton, Mrs Lyman, Misses Grace Ramsey, Jennie Watson, Amber Barnaby, Carrie Vivyan, Florence Hale, Mattie Griffin, Kelley, Katie Young, Minnie Melick, Bertha Rice, Messrs H F Rose, A Rose, Geo West, Will Keim, Guy Hale, Barnes, Rob Deemer, Howey, and Prof Holmes. The Ravala dancing Club gave a very charming dancing party Friday evening. The club has given a number of parties prior to this and all have been marked with a congeniality and picturesqueness that characterizes all such happy gatherings of young people. The dancers of the evening were: Misses Adele Simmons, Pearl Agee, Bertie Poston, Jennie Stewart, Joe Lottridge, Moeler, Grace Ashton, Ada Heaton, Henrietta Hawley, Jennie Watson, Rector Stell Hoyt, Emerald Jones, Helen Hoover, Sadie Graham, Messrs Allen Hurkiser, of Cincinnati, Frank Kitchen, Arthur Walsh, John Lottridge, George Keinkauf, Wilson Winger, Archie Vaughn, Roy Chapman, Foster Beach, Dudley Cook, Harry Evans, Clatie Shrader, Park Garrouette, Ora Ward, Harry Harley, Ross Curtis, Homer Honeywell, Ernest Folsom. Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Dayton entertained the Au Fait club Friday evening at their cozy home and as usual proved to be most congenial and successful host and hostess. Cards were the order of the evening and a most interesting time was had by all. Refreshments furnished a pleasing feature of the evening. A list of the entertained guests is as follows: Messrs and Mesdames O M Thompson, D E Thompson, F W Baldwin, Patrick, Cowdery, Huffman, Oliver, S E Moore, Giffen, Stearns, Myron Wheeler, Rudge, Rehlander, Tait, Jno Barber, R O'Neill, Bignell, O W Webster, Mark Tilton.

The Swedish society gave a large and brilliant dance in Temple Hall Monday evening for the benefit of the North Star Relief society. A banquet was first given at which several toasts were rendered among the respondents being Hon. Eric Johnson, chief clerk of the house of representatives. About two hundred guests were in attendance. The orchestra furnished excellent music and everyone seemed to be enjoying the occasion. The affair was skillfully managed by Messrs C L Flodeen, Chas Roman and U W Palm.

A very pleasant whist party was that given by Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham on last Friday evening at their home on D street. Seven tables were surrounded by expert card manipulators who progressed as they won. The royal prizes were won by Mrs. Righter and Mr. Dawes. During the evening a dainty collation was served at the card tables. The "whisters" were: Messrs and Mesdames W C Wilson, Dr Righter, C G Dawes, F C Fiske, I M Raymond, A S Raymond, C F Ladd, E P Holmes, Hawley, Ed Baum of Omaha, Mrs Atkinson and Mr Faucon.

A dancing party was given in Temple hall last evening in return to the young ladies who so pleasantly gave a leap year party some weeks ago. Mr. George West had the affair in charge, and it was very much of a success. THE COURIER would like to give the affair a more extended notice, but as our forms go to press early Friday evening, it must of necessity be postponed until next week.

Hal Northam when seen by a reporter Wednesday morning on O street, had the appearance of a man that had been out all night. He looked sleepy and about worn out, but nevertheless he was happy. It did not take long to ascertain the reason. Hal had been up all night to welcome a new arrival that came at 3 a. m. and it is of that gender known in after years as "woman, lovely woman." Mamma, papa and daughter are all well and happy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Herriek entertained a few friends at seven o'clock tea in honor of Dr. and Mrs. Hill, who have recently moved to the city, and Mrs. C. C. Valentine of Omaha. The invited guests were Messrs and Mesdames Hill, Valentine of Omaha, C W Hoxie, T C Mungler, T H Benton, C M Call, R D Stearns, W R Cambridge and Wheeler.

The Leveta Whist Club was very pleasantly entertained by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Gillilan on Monday evening. As usual the scientific game of whist absorbed the attention of all. Elegant refreshments were served during the evening. Those present were: Messrs and Mesdames F A Brown, A H Weir, W A Lindley, W E Kirkor, M Waugh, A W Field, Lansing.

Mrs. Emma Seacrest, accompanied by her niece Miss Jo Winger, returned home Thursday after a visit of several weeks to New York, Boston, Baltimore and other points of interest in the east.

Mr. John Curtiss, of Owatonna, Minn., who has been visiting his daughter Mrs. W. N. Abbott, 1220 A street, for the past three months, returned home Tuesday.

The M. L. S. C. will give its second party of the series of dances at the Lansing academy Thursday evening. Irvine's orchestra will furnish the music.
