Ketchin. It is hoped that as many members as possible will be present at this meeting.

Library Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the Winnsboro Public Library Association at the Thespian Hall Monday evening at 7.30 o'clock to take some steps for the continuance of the library. All members are earnestly urged to be present, as the very life of the library depends upon something being done at this time.

The Best of All.

I have experimented with different cotton seed, and I find none will equal Peterkin's Improved.
They will make as much seed cotton per acre, and 5 lbs. of lint more, on every hundred pounds of seed cotton than the average cotton.

I have them pure, selected with care, and sacked at 50 cents per bushel. J. W. Pope,

Stevenson, S. C.

Just a Word.

This issue of the News and Herald is also two days late, but it is expected to get out the next issue on time, and that thereafter the paper will come with that same regularity as in the past. The work of the job printing department is now being rapidly pushed and all orders can now be taken care of. While everything in our new quarters is not exactly to our notion, yet we are getting things in good shape.
A new power job press and a gasoline engine are to be installed in the next few days and other improvements made.

A Most Disgraceful Affair.

There is now a white woman in the Fairfield county jail and that too on the most serious charge of running a gaming house and selling whiskey. The woman is Jane Carman, who is now 68 years old, a fact that makes the offense with which she is charged all the more revolting. At her home about ten miles west of town, Sunday afternoon Sheriff Hood arrested seven negroes on the charge of gambling and Monday morning arrested her and one negro. The whole affair is a most disgraceful one and the officers of the law are to be congratulated in breaking into such a "hell hole" as this is said to have been.

Winnsboro's Postal Receipts.

The post office receipts are usually an index of the business conditions in any community and judged by this standard things have not been so dull hereabouts for the past year. The total sales of stamps and stamped envelopes was $4,237.29 against $3,969.89 the previous year.
There were issued 3,440 money orders amounting to $17,088.85, and paid 1,237 amounting to $8,710.70. During the month of December alone the number of money orders issued was 440, it being necessary to make an additional order for blanks by wire, the demand being so much larger than ever before. January is keeping up the pace set.

The increase in the postal receipts the past few years has been steady, the salary of the postmaster having been increased from $1,200 eight years ago to $1,780, $100 of this increase having been made as the results of the larger business the past year.

Death of Mrs. H. A. Gaillard.

Mrs. H. A. Gaillard died at her suburban home Sunday about midnight. For several years she had been in failing health.
Previous to the decline in her health she was most actively identified with every movement for the advancement of good works in her community. Some of the best work that she did in her great activity in a public way was as president of the Ladies' Memorial Association, which honored itself in the beautiful marble shaft that now stands on the public square. There was no one who did more to erect this memorial to the heroism of the sons of Fairfield in behalf of their beloved Southland than Mrs. Gaillard and the members of the Association fittingly expressed their appreciation of the good work she did by placing beautiful bouquets upon her grave.

Mrs. Gaillard was Miss Harriet Gascoigne White of Charleston, and was married to Capt.
H. A. Gaillard thirty-nine years ago. Several children were born of this marriage, but only one survives, Mr. Edmund G. Gaillard of Charleston. Capt. Wm.
White and a niece, Mrs. James Willson, of Charleston were in attendance upon her funeral.

Her remains were laid to rest Tuesday morning in St. John's cemetery. Rev. H. O. Judd conducted the last sad rites to the memory of her who had in years gone by been such an active member of St. John's church.

The pall-bearers were: A. S.
Douglass, J. C. Caldwell, J. D.
McCarley, J. A. Brice, J. J. Neil,
J. E. McDonald, R. Y. Turner.

Stockholders' Meeting.

for the purpose among other things to consider the advisability of increasing the capital stock of said Bank.
