DRAMATIC TALENT SHOWN IN PRESENTING "MR. BOB."

With a caste of unusual excellence which played each part of a captivating story from start to finish so well that not a dull moment was spent during the entire performance, on Wednesday evening "Mr. Bob," the play given by the Entertainment Committee of the Civic League was enjoyed by a well-filled house. The door receipts were about $85.00, and the proceeds are for the benefit of the Better Winnsboro Club. Prior to the raising of the curtain Rev. G. G. Mayes gave a short talk about the origin of moving pictures, and mentioned the official war pictures soon to be shown at the Community Theatre.

Between the acts music was furnished by Mesdames Wolling and Hood, Dr. Quattlebaum and Mr. Yates.
 The comic little drama was in two acts, and the mixed identities kept the audience in roars of laughter. The following characters took part:
 Phillip Roysen—Harris McDonald, Robert Brown, clerk of McDonald & McDonald—Ernest Burley, Jenkins, Miss Rebecca's butler—Ernest Blair, Rebecca Luke, a maiden lady—Lucy Doty, Katherine Rogers, her niece—Lilla B. Ketchin, Marion Bryant, Katherine's friend—Emolyn Macfie, Patty, Miss Rebecca's maid—Julia Gantt.

The opportunity to take the picture shown at the Community Theatre next Friday cost billions. This is official picture taken by the government during the World War. Don't miss it.

FOR THE YOUNGER SET.

Mr. Otis Brown delightfully entertained the members of the younger set last Monday evening. The home was prettily decorated in potted plants, roses and sweet peas. In the living room numerous games were played, fortunes told and jokes tried on the guests, while the hall and porches were thrown open to the dancing crowd. Block cream and wafers were served by Mesdames G. F. Patton and P. M. Dees. About twenty-five couples were present.
