MOTHER'S MISTAKES.

Waterbury Mothers Make Them-But With a Little Light There Need Be None.

How carefully mother guards the secrets of her boys and girls. At night looking for that man. In fact we as she carefully tucks the bed clothes round them she chides and warns that mother will be angry if they repeat their time hunting up the truants and last night's offense, softly saying to herself, its only a habit but I must must break them of it. This is mother's mistake. The children cannot help it, and sweet, clean, dry beds can be the resting place of every child when it is understood that the cause is not a habit, but a weakness that can be cured. Active life of the little ones tends to weakening the kidneys, and weak kidneys means inability to retain the urine. This is a condition not a habit, and should have the same prompt attention you would give to the marked symptoms of any disease.
