

It was at this session that the preliminary report of the Legal Aid Committee was read. A vast plan for better legal conditions was outlined by the Secretary who with Professor McKenzie is a joint member of this Committee.

Conforming to its stated policy the Society, on Friday, met at Denver University. Here the real value of the conference was drawn to a focus. Under the topic, "The Legal Status of the Indian," some astonishing information was given. Nearly all the members participated in this discussion, among them, Robt. Hamilton, Wolf Plume, James Green, Hiram Chase, Joe Ignatius, S. S. Bonnin Armel, Cleavor Warden, Regis Alientoyah J. E. Shields and others. At the close of the afternoon discussion the platform was read, discussed and after an extended debate adopted unanimously. This remarkable document comes as near to point out the real remedy to what I shall term the "Indian Complex", as any plan of action yet devised. It has been born after three years of travail, of bitter experience and of educational developments.

"A RECIPE FOR SUCCESS: Keep your head cool—your feet warm—your mind busy. Don't worry over trifles. Plan your work ahead and then stick to it—rain or shine. Don't waste sympathy on yourself. If you are a gem, some one will find you."
