KANSAS CITY MARKET LETTER.

Stock Yards, Kansas City, Mo., June 1, 1906.—Receipts from the West this week have been very light. Top western steers for the week sold at $5.25, against $5.30 last week. Top natives sold at $5.60, same as last week. The run today is 1500 cattle, market slow. Bulk of the steers sell at $4.25 to $5.25, cows at $2.50 to $4.60, bulls $2.50 to $4.25, veals scarce at $5.50 to $6.25. Top stockers for the week sold at $4.80—from the Panhandle. Bulk of the stockers and feeders range from $3.25 to $4.60.

Sheep receipts continue light, about all of the fed stuff has now been marketed, and the supply from now on will come from Texas and the southwest. Texas grass sheep are coming in goodly numbers already, and are selling at good prices, about a dollar higher than the same stuff was bringing last year. Some Texas weathers sold at $5.60 this week. Top woolled lambs sold at $7.45, bulk of them at $6.00 to $7.30. Shorn lambs sold up to $6.60. Light receipts and strong markets are the prediction.

SOUTH OMAHA MARKET.

South Omaha, June 2, 1906.—The trade in stockers and feeders the past week has been of quite moderate proportions. Good to choice stock cattle are quotable at $4.40 @ $4.60; fair to good $4.00 @ $4.40; good to choice heavy feeders, $4.25 @ $4.50; fair to good $3.90 @ $4.25. Good hay-fed steers for slaughtering purposes are quite scarce and quotations are hard to give in this connection. Good to choice kinds of dry-lot steers are selling at $5.00 @ $5.50; fair to good $4.50 @ $5.00. Butcher stock remains unchanged.

New Banking Institution for Caldwell

It is safe to say that a good banking system encourages thrift in a community, and that the standing of the banks of a town is a pretty correct index to the financial stability of the people.

Caldwell has been especially favored in this particular. Its banking institutions have always stood well, and have been a synonym for financial strength and prudent management. This has been an undoubted benefit to the business interests of the community. For this reason the announcement that another bank has opened its doors to the people of Caldwell and the Canyon county public, will be looked upon with considerable interest.

The Western National Bank is the banking house referred to. It began business June 1 in its own building, at the corner of Main street and Kimball avenue, one of the best locations in the city. The banking rooms are equipped with modern requirements both for safe-guarding the funds and the convenience of patrons, and the business generally. These, of course, include fire and burglar proof vaults and safes, safe deposit boxes, desks, counters, etc., making the appointments very complete and attractive.

The personnel of the officers and directory is a strong one:

W. H. Redway, the president, ex-Governor John T. Morrison, first vice president, and D. D. Campbell, second vice president, are among our best known and most substantial citizens. Mr. Redway has built up, and is now at the head of, one of the leading mercantile houses of the city. Governor Morrison is a prominent lawyer and a man of high character, while Mr. Campbell is a successful and popular business man.

Mr. S. D. Simpson, the cashier, is a banker of ten years experience, who recently came from Texas, where he organized several successful banks, and is still vice president of the First National Banks of Bells and Savoy, Texas. He has excellent credentials as to character and ability. The head bookkeeper, Rufus Roddy, is also from Bells, Texas, and is an affable and competent young gentleman.

All things considered, the new bank starts out with flattering prospects for success, and will no doubt prosper with the certain development of the town and surrounding country.

How and Where he Found It. There was a certain man, and he was no back number, Who looked and he looked for the the best place to buy lumber, So he went across the track and bought a whole shack, And said "I've found it! I've found it, by thunder!"

He had reference to the new company, CANYON LUMBER & COAL CO. (Opposite the Depot.)

A. P. Alexander, of Humboldt county, California, who purchased a forty acre tract of W. R. Ballard, of Pleasant Ridge, was a caller last week. He is preparing to build and make his home on the tract. Mr. Alexander's land has about 25 acres in alfalfa.

"Get prices from Central Lumber Co. for fruit crates and boxes."—Caldwell, Idaho.

Finley McKenzie, the sheep raiser and rancher of Owyhee county, was in town last week. Mr. McKenzie owns 800 acres of rich land over there. He reports the recent rains of great benefit to range grass and that the flocks are doing well. He is an admirer of good poultry and is this season testing the Buff Orpington in addition to the old reliable Barred Rocks.

The Canyon Lumber Company, the place with the big sign, is where you can find a full line of building material for the new house. Call and let the new company figure with you. Caldwell, Idaho.

"The Central Lumber Co will carry a stock of all kinds of fruit boxes this season. Bell phone No. 3 Independent No. 2."—Caldwell, Idaho.

Robust Pie Plant.

George Dement, a Caldwell farmer, astonished our office force the first of the week, by leaving some monster stalks of pie plant that were grown on his land six miles below town. They are of the Linneas variety and are close to 3½ feet in length from end of stalk to tip of leaves. Mr. Dement says he has a large number of plants and they grow with surprising luxuriance on his soil, which is a rich bottom loam. He intends to make something of a specialty of garden truck.
